FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. CARRICK.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Bridget Carrick took place on Sunday last for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, the remains being removed from her late residence, Jasmine Villa, Military Road, at two o'clock. The cortege was very largely attended, and was an eloquent testimony of the respect in which the deceased lady was held by all classes in the community.

The officiating clergy were—Rev. James Cregan, Adm., St. Michael's; Very Rev. Andrew Murphy, St. Munchin's College; Rev. J. Lee, C.C. St. Michael's; Rev. J. Kelly, S.J.; Rev. Fr. Lynch, C.S.S.

The chief mourners were—Masters Charles and Michael Carrick and sons; Maurice O'Regan, Head Master, Trim Model School, son-in-law; Michael Carrick, James, John, Patrick and Matthew O'Mahon, Charles Close, relatives.

The general public included—Dr. J. Holmes, John Ryan, solr.; Alderman Daly, E. O'Connell, Dr. Pearse, Michael Herriot, J. O'Donohue, H. Kearney, Wm. Walsh, John Burns, T. Brinn, John Waters, Thomas Brinn, J. Kelly, P. Kerins, J. Hanrahan, J. Russell, James Forrest, High Constable, Maurice Fitzgald, Morgan Fitzmaurice, J. Fitzmaurice, Harbour Master, John Walsh, F. Herriot, P. Herriott, James Bell, H. D. Williams, A. Williams, J. O'Mahony, Captain Edwards, H. O'Leary, James Williams, John Murphy, Martin Murphy, F. Williams, J. D. Hannon, etc.

THE KING.

(BY TELEGRAPH.)

The King left London this morning for Midhurst, Sussex, to lay the foundation stone of the King Edward VII. Sanatorium.

On arrival at Haslemere, his Majesty was received by county dignitaries. The King then drove to Midhurst, and was everywhere greeted with enthusiasm. His Majesty reached London on his return journey shortly before three o'clock this afternoon.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT

A workmen's train from Tynemouth full of passengers was entering the Central Railway Station at Newcastle-on-Tyne this morning when an outgoing train dashed into the rear of the workmen's train, overturning one carriage and derailing another. Several people were injured, and the traffic was much delayed.

KILRUSH DISTRICT COUNCIL.

The quarterly road meeting of the above Council was held yesterday. Mr. Thomas Talty, J.P., presided, and there were present—Messrs Patrick Lillis, Michael Mescall, Joseph Kett, J. Finucane, John Talty, John Campbell, T. Kelly, D. Casey, A. O'Dwyer, Michael Kett, John Corry, Anthony McNamara, Patrick Bourke, T. Tubridy, T. Crotty, P. O'Brien, P. McNamara, M. Murphy, M. McInerney, J. Crotty, P. Healy, P. McCarthy.

DIRECT LABOUR.

The Clerk read a letter from the Kilrush Land and Labour Association asking the Council to give the roads now falling out of contract to direct labour.

The Chairman said they had nothing to do with the matter here. It was for the County Council, and here they were only asked for an opinion.

A KILKEE CLAIM.

Mr. Corry made an application to widen and deepen the arches of the bridge at Kilkee near the Victoria Hotel to prevent flooding.

Mr. Casey supported the application.

Mr. Pilkington, solicitor, appeared on behalf of some ratepayers in sustaiment of the motion. He handed in a memorial in favour of this necessary work, and a photograph of the place after rain showing the flooding complained of. One man had a couple of pigs drowned as a result of the floods, whilst others had their houses and beds saturated. Mr. Pilkington said the work was necessary, and he estimated the expenditure at £25.

After a protracted discussion, the application was granted by a £20 estimate.

THEATRE ROYAL.

MOODY MANNER'S COMPANY IN "FAUST."

Last night Gounod's celebrated Opera "Faust" was performed at the Theatre Royal by the Moody-Manners's Company which comprises a good combination of artistes. The great work was produced in an excellent manner, and the principal artistes acquitted themselves creditably. Mr. Edgar in the title role sang and acted with much success, his impersonation being characterised by a keen appreciation of the author's ideas, while his vocalism is pleasing and carefully rendered. Mr. George Nelson as "Mephistopheles" gave a clever assumption of the role, and his singing and acting were received with appreciative enthusiasm. Miss Lily Moody as "Siebel" was good, and her singing of the "Jewel" Song was earnest and well illustrated. As "Marguerite" Miss Enriquetta Chrichton portrayed the part faithfully. Mr. Walter Barrett acted the part of "Valentine" very intelligently, and Miss P. Gilandont as "Martha" was successful. The choruses were an excellent feature in the performance, being very powerful and steadily rendered, while the orchestration were very good. To-night Besit's beautiful work "Carmen" will be presented. To-morrow night "Maritana."

PRESENTATION

TO EX-LIMERICK JOURNALIST.

An interesting little Press gathering took place on Saturday night, when the members of the literary staffs of the Dublin "Daily Express" and "Dublin Evening Mail" entertained Mr. Hugh Curran, sub-editor of the "Daily Express" (and formerly editor of the "Munster News") to dinner at the Four Courts Hotel, Dublin, in celebration of his recent marriage. Twenty-one members of the staff were present, the chair being taken by the Editor of the "Express." Several complimentary speeches were made, and the occasion was availed of to present Mr. Curran with a handsome gold watch, suitably inscribed, as a souvenir of the occasion, the presentation being made by the editor of the "Evening Mail." His many friends in Limerick, journalistic and otherwise, will cordially join in the congratulations and felicitations, and wish the newly-made Benedict and his wife a happy and prosperous life.

FATAL QUARRY ACCIDENT.

A man named Thomas Bridgeman, who was employed as a quarryman, near Pennywell, about nine days ago died at Barrington's Hospital to-day. It appeared that he was employed with some others drawing a charge when an accident occurred. Bridgeman received some injuries, but they were not serious. He was removed to hospital, where tetanus subsequently set in, with the result that death took place to-day. The police communicated the facts to the Coroner, who did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest.

DEATH OF MR. DOHERTY, KILKEE.

Limerick people will deeply regret to hear of the death of an old and highly esteemed Kilkee gentleman, Mr. Wm. Doherty, who passed away at his residence, Doherty Terrace, on Saturday last. Mr. Doherty, who had attained the ripe age of 77 years, was a native of Adare, but for some thing like half a century he has been resident at Kilkee, carrying on an extensive general business in the West End. Though a man of a retiring disposition he took a deep and practical interest in the welfare of "The Brighton of the west." He erected considerable property, and it may be added that some years ago he generously gave the site free for the new Methodist Church, which is situated near his residence. He was himself a member of the Church of Ireland, and for very many years filled various offices in connection with the Kilkee church. His death removes a familiar personality, not alone to the regret of the townspeople, but to all who are in the habit of sojourning each season at this popular watering place. The funeral took place to-day and was very largely attended.

At Askeaton to-day, Terence Kennedy was fined 1s. 6d. and costs for selling adulterated milk. James McMahon, for drunkenness, was fined 5s. and costs, Michael Ryan, 1s. 6d. and costs, and Denis Madigan, 2s. 6d. and costs.

The following were the prices at the Ennis Markets on Saturday:—Hay, 42s to 45s per ton; straw, 44s to 47s 6d; reed, 50s to 65s; white oat-
