

on view during a long and most season in Dublin. They are thoroughly ; may be counted by hundreds and ing scenes collected from all parts of the ese comprise, of course, representations scenery, commerce, sport, etc, and y pleasing variety in the display are pictures or "iders" which create no sement. Altogether the views are so interesting and so graphically de- the lecturer, Mr. Fr derick Matthews, two hours and a half or so which the ce occupies, fly past as if by magic. It possible for us to make more passing reference to some of the views. These included several of Dublin life, the Horse Show, race the great Gaelic Language Procession, ports, the University Regatta, the first e, some very humorous situations being ith the latter. The views of the Royal ablin and Belfast were received with usiasm from all parts of the house. We l that a very novel not to say extremely e feature of the Bioscope was some of colored photography, amongst others of the Upper Thames, which atural that one would imagine he was azing on the scene itself. The "Herring" was also an excellent picture. The f the evening is very much enhanced by ent performances of the Native Swiss, whose members appear in native songs by Mr. F. Matthews, who for as been connected with the Livermore istels, and skilful violin solos by Mons urensan were heartily applauded and pleasing variety in the evening's pro- sning there was another large audience a new set of views was again shown. be the case throughout the engagement are excellently produced by powerful y, in connection with which, it may be a handsome star-shaped device is also electricity over the main entrance to re Royal. Last night's views included ions returning from some of the city on Sunday last.

PER CHILDREN AND OUTSIDE SCHOOLS.

PROPOSAL AT LIMERICK UNION.

meeting of the Limerick Board of Guar- terday—Mr. J. McInerney, J.P., in the proposal was brought forward by Mr. P. vice-chairman) with the object of having er children of that house sent to outside He said that as far back as 1828 an Act nent was passed enabling guardians, and o have pauper children sent out to the and other schools in cities and towns. m had been already adopted in England land, and in many centres in Wales, n Ireland he found that seven- tions had adopted it. He begged d, to move—"That we, the mem- the Limerick Board of Guardians e time has come when we should join the other Poor Law Boards of Ireland, already adopted the system of sending house school children into the National, Brothers and Convent schools of the towns and that we adopt and put into scheme of education at the earliest onvenience, and that all marks or tokens im be removed from the children before t out to such schools."

Chairman—I will accept that as a notice n, because it proposes to change our

Mr. Kelly argued that it was only a case of sus- picion. There was no conviction; and Judge Adams had stated in Limerick that no magistrate should entertain a suspicion. It was illegal.

District Inspector Conlan pressed for a convic- tion, on the ground that Sergeant Beirne on no account should be in the public house after hours. He said it was giving a bad example.

After consideration with the other magis- trates,

The Chairman said the majority of the Court had decided on dismissing the case (loud applause). For himself he considered there should be a con- viction.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. DELMEGE.

The above took place on Sunday 4th inst., from her residence, 73 Westland Street, at 3 p.m, for family burial place, St. John's. The coffin was of fine polished oak, and heavily mounted. The remains were borne by her four grandsons to her last resting place.

The cortege was large and representative. Chief Mourners—John McCutcheon, son-in-law; Richard J. McCutcheon, John McCutcheon, Walter McCutcheon, and James Albert, grand- sons; Joseph and P. Galbraith, cousins.

Among the general public were—Mr. E. Goggin, North Strand; Joseph Clarke, Edward O'Connell, Thomas Buckley, H. Griffiths, L. Griffiths, W. Griffiths, Percy Griffiths, M. Caffery, Thos. Rice, Wm. Gullen, sear; William Gullen, juar; H. Levers and sons; Edward Hewson, H. Christie, J. Enright, J. Grant, P. Hynes, M. Mason, Wm. Flynn, E. Collopy, W. E. Smyth, M. Dorman, Alfred King, and son; John King, Mr. Reid, and son; George Hewsons, Denny's; A. Hewson, Shannon Street; A. Wylie, J. Blake, A. Woodhouse, M. Coarhan, and son; M. Kocue, Mr. Vickery, Mr. Irwin, Mr Nolan, Mr. Blennohasset, M. Minihan, C. Corbett, P. Singleton, P. Johnston, M. Rusk, P. Y.M.'s.

The following rev. gentlemen attended—Pev. G. L. Swaine, St. Michael's; Rev. Browne, St. Michael's; Rev. F. Langbridge, St. John (Rector).

The burial service was conducted by Pev. G. L. Swaine, M.A., and Rev. F. Langridge, and was partly choral, and included the hymn—"When our heads are bowed with woe."

As the coffin was borne from the church the organist played the Dead March in Soul.

Wreaths were sent by her loving daughter, Eliza, and granddaughter Catherine, by her grandchildren, John, James, Walter, and James Albert, and R. J. and Mrs. McCutcheon, Edward O'Connell, Mrs. Griffiths and family; Mrs. H. Levers, a cross; Mrs. Theobald, flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McCutcheon and family desire to return their most sincere thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who kindly assisted at the Choral Service and to Miss Switzer who so ably presided at the organ.

COACHING HORSES.

IMPORTANT SALE.

Attention is directed to the annual auction of coach horses from the Grand Atlantic Coast Tourist Route, which takes place at Mr. O'Brien's Repository, Union Quay, Cork, on Saturday next, the 10th inst. Year after year these horses are growing in favour with the public and de- servedly so, as they have invariably given entire satisfaction to purchasers, both as roadsters and able, is to be maintained in its efficiency.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S

The opening meeting for this Young People's Society was held Chapel, Military Road, on Tuesday, meeting commenced by the singing hymns:—"A Ruler came to Je "In the Heart of London City," Tempest is Raging," and prayer. The lecture, which was on the sub Barimæus," was given by Mr. W was illustrated by lantern slides, th under the control of Miss E. meeting lasted one hour, and w prayer by Mr. Shule.

It is intended to hold a similar Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, a folks appear to be very interested in and entertainment provided for the

LIMERICK PROOF I

The reason why Doan's Ointment cure any disease of the skin, espe eczema, is that this ointment heal surface of the skin, and draws out poisons from beneath the skin, t actual cause of the trouble. A Lin splendid cure is described here:—

Mr. Patrick Moloney, who resid Quay, is a well-known man in Li lived here nearly all his life. He years I suffered from piles. The tion were so bad that I could hard tried various remedies, but got no what a splendid remedy Doan's O this complaint, I procured some Co., in George street. The first f of this ointment gave me relief using it and the result was that t ritation disappeared. Doan's Oin me more good than anything else can thoroughly recommend this s to all who suffer from this distre (Signed). Patrick Moloney.

If you are ill, write and fully de to us. We shall be pleased to gi advice in our power, free of cha depend upon your letter being tre confidence. Doan's ointment is t ninnence a pot (six pots thirtee ninnence). Of all chemists and free, on receipt of price, direct McClellan Co., 8 Wells street, Oxi don, W. Be sure you get the same as Mr. Moloney had.

ASKEATON PETTY

These Petty Sessions were he before the Hon. J. French, R.M., Mr. J. B. Hewson.

DEAR BEER.

D. I. Cusack prosecuted Mich stealing seven bottles of Lager Be S. and W. R. Company's store at The Station Master, Mr. O'Gr case.

Sentenced to three months im hard labour.

EQUAL JUSTICE.

Timothy O'Halloran