SALE OF WORK AT THE HAVERGAL HALL.

The annual Sale of Work in connection with the Church of England Zenana Missionary Society was opened in the Havergal Hall this afternoon. The stalls are very tastefully ranged round the spacious apartments upstairs, and contain a great variety of fancy and useful work. Miss Waller's home produce stall presents quite a rustic appearance, decorated as it is with evergreens and flowers. The Presidents of the other stalls are as follows:—Fancy Stall—Miss Gregg and Miss Harley. Chinese—Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Day. Tea table—Mrs. O'Donoghue and Miss L. Gregg. In one of the rooms downstairs a splendid Christmas tree laden with toys, is naturally a great object of admiration on the part of the little folk. There was a good attendance of the public during the afternoon, and a brisk business was done at the various stalls. The sale will be continued to-night from seven to nine o'clock.

THE LATE MRS. GOGGIN.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Goggin, widow of the late Mr. John Goggin, Thomondgate, took place yesterday forenoon, the remains being interred at Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. Despite the extreme inclemency of the weather there was a large gathering of friends from town and country to pay a last mark of respect to the memory of the deceased lady. The chief mourners were—Michael Goggin, son; Michael Lyddy, brother; Thomas O'Connell, Michael M'Inerney, brothers-in-law; M. Lyddy, John Collins, Michael Collins, P. Corbett, James Corbett, John Corbett, cousins; P. Hartigan and R. T. Hartigan.

The clergy present were—Very Rev. Fr. T. R. Shanahan, P.P., V.G.; Rev. D. Shanahan, Rev. Father Woulfe, Rev. Father Begley, Rev. Father Bresnahan and Rev. Father O'Shea.
