

Sciatica, &c.

For pains in the region of the kidneys, or for a Weak Back, the plaster should be applied as shown above. Wherever there is pain apply Allook's plaster.

Beware of dangerous Substitutes. Insist on ALLOOK'S.

For Rheumatism or Pains in Shoulders, Elbows, or elsewhere or for Sprains, Stiffness, etc., and for Aching Feet. Plaster should be cut size and shape required and applied to part affected as shown above.

ENNIS RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL.

TRACT V. DIRECT LABOUR.

Quarterly meeting of the Ennis Council held on Saturday. Mr. James Kennedy

ADJOURNED WORKS.

Culligan applied for £8 10s to build a wall between J. Cahill's house and James O'Connell's house on the Knockatunna road. A long discussion, chiefly referring to the cost of the work, and the danger of leaving it as it is at present, followed.

Mr. Doobin entered, and the substance of the report on the same was conveyed to him.

Mr. Doobin said this work was not necessary, and his recommendation it was rejected.

Mr. Loohan and Dillon presented for £100 to build a new bridge on the road from Ennis to Lisroe at Aildavour.

A long discussion ensued, complaints of the excessive taxation being made, and a vote taken, when 14 voted to reject the road, and 10 voted for it. Four did not vote.

Other presentments were adopted, three rejected, and one was adjourned.

WORKS OF MAINTENANCE.

There were forty-six applications for works of maintenance all of which were recommended for approval by the County Surveyor.

In several cases there was a slight reduction in the price.

There was an application to repair for one year the bridge of road from Ennis to Tulla between Ennis and Carroworrin Bridge and the roads at Tooreen and Muckinish, at 3s.

Mr. Doobin, amid confusion, Mr. Hegarty proposed that the roads be advertised for five years.

Mr. Harding proposed, and Mr. M. Lynch seconded, that they be advertised for six months.

A poll there voted for the five years' contract. Messrs. Garvey, Considine, Doobin, J. Hegarty, Mackey, Quely, Mungovan, O'Connell, Roughan, Flynn, Leary, McDonnell, and 14.

For six months—Messrs. Hannon, O'Grady, J. Barry, J. Lynch, Fion, M. Lynch, C. O'Connell, McNamara, McInerney, Harding—12.

The result led to a warm exchange of observations.

Mr. Sweeney stating the contractors have the work done here, and we want to have them at the same price and the same men all along (continued).

Mr. Considine—There is no friendship going on between the contractors.

Mr. Sweeney—There is. There is not a single contractor who has not a friend on the road.

Mr. Sweeney is robbing the ratepayers in every shape and form.

Chairman then made an order passing all the works down to No. 722.

Mr. McNamara (with heat)—Are we coming to humbug the ratepayers? This is a curious question.

It is nothing but humbug. The next and concluding presentment was to build a road to Crusheen, near the Presbytery,

DEATH OF MR. E. GRAVES.

The "Standard," Warrnambool, of October 22nd, says:—

The announcement of the death of Mr. Edwin E. Graves, of this town, will be received with deep regret by the numerous friends of the deceased and of his son, Inspector Graves, who was until recently in charge of the Warrnambool Police District. The deceased died yesterday, morning from heart failure after a fortnight's illness. He was 73 years of age, and, although a resident of Warrnambool for only about two years, he made many friends in the town, by whom he was held in high esteem. He was the son of the Rev. Jas. Wm. Graves, Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin, and Rector of Itermurragh, Ireland. His mother was Mary, daughter of Richard Croker, of Croom Castle, Balmaguard, Limerick, J.P., and Sheriff of the County. The deceased was born at Croom Castle, and was educated at Trinity College, Dublin. He first joined the Royal Engineers as Lieutenant, and afterwards held the rank of Captain in the Royal Irish Regiment. He retired from the Army about 30 years ago, and went to reside in Natal, South Africa. After his family had married, he came to Australia and took up his residence at Warrnambool about two years ago. One of his daughters married Col. Fromm, of the Inniskillen Dragoons, another to Captain Barnes, of the Engineers Natal, and the third daughter to Mr. Frederick Kemp, of London. His eldest son is Inspector Graves, and his second son is Colonel in the Royal Artillery at present in London. The funeral took place at Warrnambool cemetery.

DEATH OF MR. W. CREHAN.

"The Long Branch Record," New Jersey, for Friday, October 23rd, says:—William Crehan, for more than a quarter of a century a summer resident of North Long Branch, the home of his sister, Mrs. Oliver Doud Byron, and well-known in the theatrical world, died in New York on Sunday. Mr. Crehan had been ailing for a long time, although his death was sudden and a shock to his surviving sisters and host of friends. Death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Crehan was born in Limerick, Ireland, on December 25, 1843. He was one of a family of five children, all of whom have played a most prominent part in the theatrical world. The surviving sisters are Miss Ada Crehan, Miss Kate Byron and Mrs. Fulton Russell.

Mr. Crehan was a bachelor, and was the last survivor of the name of Crehan, which has been famous in the theatrical world, Miss Ada, his sister, having taken the name of "Rehan" many years ago.

Mr. Crehan was buried at Greenwood on Tuesday. His remains rest alongside of his mother.

A QUESTION OF WORK.

At Newcastle West Petty Sessions, Patrick

dog for vermin of all sorts, and the earth permits him to follow. Airedale is always willing to little fair to deny his friend styling him a terrier if they do is also one of the very best of w once upon a time, when do thought of, he used to be know terrier, which title bore eloquent swimming abilities. In appearance is a powerfully built yet active a long flat head, a powerful mouth teeth. His ears are of fair size flat to the sides of the head, rather small and dark in color strong, well set on nice sloping chest well let down and rather legs dead straight, heavy in bone shoulder, whilst the feet are small. The body is short, the loins being and the tail, which is set on docked short. The tail is thick weather resisting, whilst the chest excepting on the neck and back grizzly black hue. When first puppies are black and tan in color in coat, but when they grow to the proper points.

The Bedlington Terrier is the of the pitmen of the North of England all question no more, plucky me terrier exists. As a show dog it as he would be were his coat more under control without resource those who know the Bedlington him the most, so he can exist the patronage of exhibitors. The lington is high and domed at the and carries a topknot of silky taper, but are unusually powerful tight, the nose large, and the sunken. The colour of the eye upon that of the dog, which may liver, sandy, or any of the above the blue and black-and-tan hue and dark eyes, the other flesh-colored light eyes. The neck is long shoulders sloping and the chest legs rather long. A peculiar trait of the body is his flat ribs, and at the loins; the tail, which about ten inches long and whilst the coat is hard and close weight about 22lb. to 24lb.

The last of the family to be the Paisley Terrier, which is purposes a silky-coated Skye, been alluded to in a former paper.

POULTRY

(Continued from our issue of

GENERAL UTILITY

The Wyandotte is like the I ready referred to—a handsome which owes its existence to the chance of American breeders appearance, so far as shape is concerned resembles somewhat similar varieties as the Brahma and whilst the lacing on its feathers expression of a cross of Sebright rose-combed, substantially thick in neck, with a plump breast and a fairly luxuriant tail. The but the chief distinction of the tiful markings of the laced varieties there are also buff and white the silver, gold, and other lace