A QUESTION OF LAW.

Newcastle Petty Sessions, Sergeant Lockaderry, summoned James Kennedy, Kennedy, and Michael Sullivan, for arrival in Kilteely he has sung at the local Roman Catholic Church, and also in Kilkee and other churches.

PROMISING SONS.

Mr. William C. Norris-Lee, eldest son of Rev. J.
T. Norris-Lee (of Killonahan and Bettyville, Co.
Limerick, Rector of Hardwicke, Cambridge, has just received his commission, and has been gazetted to the Second Lieutenantcy in the Indian Army.

Mr. Frederick H. Norris-Lee recently obtained tenth place in the first class examination for the Cape of Good Hope Civil Service, consequently the Rector and Mr. Norris-Lee have now two sons in different branches of his Majesty's service at the ages of 19 and 17 years respectively.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HAMILTON.

We announce with very sincere regret the death which took place at Kilkee of Jesie Helen, wife of the Rev. Donald McG. Hamilton, M.A., curate of Castleknock, and daughter of the Rev. T.
B. Robertson, Rector of St. Munchin's Limerick. The sad event was not quite unexpected, the young lady having been in delicate health for some time past.
Her bright and amiable disposition endeared her to all who had the pleasure of knowing her, and needless to say her demise at the very early age of 28 years has occasioned feelings of the deepest sorrow. The sincerest sympathy is expressed with her bereaved husband and the Rev. Mr.
Robertson and family in their great affliction. The remains were conveyed to Limerick yesterday by train, and shortly after one o'clock the funeral, which was of a large and representative character, left the Terminus for St. Munchin's Church. The chief mourners were—The Rev. Mr. Hamilton (husband), and the Rev. T. B. Robertson (father of the deceased).

Amongst the general public present were:—
The Lord Bishop, the Rev. J. T. Waller, Rev. J.
Dowd, Rev. H. Orpen, Rev. C. Thompson, Rev.
R. H. Semple, Dr. Long, Mr. J. O'G. Delmege, D.L.; Mr. H. L. Stewart, Mr. J. Stewart, Mr.
D. L. Roche, Mr. Rockby, Mr. Wilkinson, Mr.
F. C. Cleave, Mr. W. Holliday, Mr. E. Holliday, Messrs. Hanna, Messrs. Christy, Mr. T. Rice, Mr.
McKenzie, Mr. Collier, Mr. Mesnard, Mr. A. J.
Barnett, Mr. E. G. Fitt, Mr. Cooke, Mr. C. Hill, Mr. A. J. Eakins, Mr. S. E. Lee, Mr. Pike, etc.

Carriages were sent by Precentor Meredyth and many other friends.

The Rev. J. T. Waller and the Rev. H. Orpen officiated.

THE NEWCASTLE WEST OUTRAGE.

At the Newcastle West Petty Sessions, before Hon. J. French, R.M., presiding; Messrs. Thos.
Hurley, and Michael G. Barry,

James Nix, John Walsh, and Daniel Connors were charged with having assaulted and inflicted grievous bodily harm on Patrick Collins, who is now a patient in the Newcastle West Workhouse Hospital, and whose depositions have been already reported.

Sergeant O'Brien said Dr. Pierce, Medical Officer of the Workhouse Hospital, believed Patrick Collins was still suffering seriously from the effects of the injuries inflicted, and he had the power to afford immediate the certainty of speedy and peri-cure, the absolute safety and economy, have made them the st-skin cures and humour remedies civilized world.

Bathe the affected parts with water and Cuticura Soap, to clear surface of crusts and scales and the thickened cuticle. Dry, by hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura ment freely, to allay itching, ir-and inflammation, and soothe anand, lastly, in the severer form Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to clear cleanse the blood. A single set sufficient to cure the most tordisfiguring and humiliating skin and blood humours, with loss when all else fails.
