

a could say they had lots of water in ghter), and they ought reply to that n Halloran called attention to Drom- erage, and wanted to know why they eceeding with it.

olved that the works be passed now, harge on the electoral division of r.

THE COTTAGES FOURTH SCHEME.

Byrnes, Clerk District Council, wrote related items in connection with the me of Labourers' Cottages. In part sanctioned was £6,780, and part 2, l these estimates, under the Newcastle rers' Order, 1899, are insufficient, and her sum of £245 18s. 1d., would be supplemental to complete the work. Government Board were requested to the Board of Works issue order for mental order.

RY AT ABBEYFEALE.

es Woulfe Flanagan, R.M., made some g observations at Abbeyfeale Petty n Thursday. He said some of the ven in the court was most disgusting. ay that there would soon be prosec- jury in that Court, as he found it next ble to administer justice in consequence lence given there, and he would like the eep their eyes on those cases with a stituting a prosecution for perjury. ise, D.I., promised to give the matter on. agan said he did not wish that any ac- ken in the cases before him, but in ses, particularly these under the Li- ts.

INICAL INSTRUCTION RESULTS.

BUILDING CONSTRUCTION.

ary Stage—Kennedy Joseph, 1st class ; Denis H., 1st class.
INORGANIC CHEMISTRY PRATICAL
ry Stage—Joyce William B., 1st class ; e Frederick S., 2nd class.

MACHINE ACCIDENT.

rsday, a man named John Hickie, in the ent of Major Hickman, J.P., Fenloe, et-on-Fergus, was admitted to the Clare nfirmatory suffering from serious injuries ft hand. It seems that Hickie was a reaping machine, when by some e fell from his seat. The left arm came with the cutting blade, with the result one was almost sawn through, and the d forefinger severed. The wounds were by the Surgeon, Dr. Faris, and the in- is progressing satisfactorily.

FAIRS OF MUNSTER—AUGUST.

Monday, 24—Limerick : Bruff, Drumcolloher. Kerry : Milltown.

Tuesday, 25—Limerick : *Rathkeale. Cork : Dunmanway (pigs). Waterford : Kilmacthomas.

Wednesday, 26—Limerick : Foynes. Clare : Kilrush (pigs). Tipperary : Cahir (two days), Golden. Cork : Roscarbery. Kerry : Listowel.

Thursday, 27—Clare : Killadysart. Tipperary : Carrick-on-Suir. Cork : Buttevant, Drimoleague, Dunmanway. Kerry : Scortaglin.

Friday, 28—Cork : Mitchelstown. Kerry : Dingle.

Saturday, 29—Kerry : Lingle.
Monday, 31—Clare : Kilkishen. Cork : Fermoy (pigs), Inchigeela, Killaugh, Liscarroll. Kerry : Brosna, Killorglin.

In places marked thus (*) a pig fair is held on the previous day.

Ennis monthly fair is held on the first Saturday of each month.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, AND DEATHS.

BIRTHS.

NOONE—On the 20th instant, the wife of John Noone, 9 Lansdowne Terrace, of a son.

O'BRIEN—On the 12th instant, at 10 Lincoln Terrace, New Street, the wife of Alick O'Brien, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

MACCALLUM and WILLIAMS—On August 5th, at Bangor Parish Church, by the Very Rev. the Dean of Down, William Henry, son of the late James MacCallum, Bushmills, and Mrs. MacCallum, Quay House, Portrush, to Charlotte Mary Christina Williams, B.A., daughter of John Williams, Mayville Crescent, Bangor.

O'SULLIVAN and WHITELEGGE—On August 18th, at St. Patrick's Church, Cork, by the Rev. John Cassidy, C.C., Patrick O'Sullivan, of the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction, Ireland, to Frances Sarah Amy, daughter of the Rev. W. Whitelegge, M.A., Cork.

DEATHS.

EVANS—18th August, at Leinster Road West Rathmines, Richard Charles Raymond, only child of Louis and May Evans, aged 2 years and 11 months.

GALLAGHER—Daniel Gallagher, senr., Kilcoe—R.I.P. Funeral left on yesterday (Friday) from Kilcoe R.C. Church, at 12 o'clock, for Aughdown family burial ground.

HANNAN—August 16, 1903, at Leeson street, Dublin, Maggie, beloved wife of William N. Hannan, Caherelly Castle, Caherelly, Limerick, and daughter of the late Patrick Fitzgerald, Tipperary. Funeral on Tuesday last from St. Francis Xavier's Church, Gardiner street, immediately after seven o'clock Mass, to Kingsbridge, going by 8.30 train to Limerick Junction, for interment in Tipperary Cemetery. No flowers, by request.

HARNETT—At his residence, Market square, Newcastle West, Richard Harnett. Funeral to-morrow (Sunday) 3.30 o'clock, from the Roman Catholic Church, for Churchtown.

LADY will recommend good g lodge-keeper, able to take c and trap, and could care small gar no incumbrance. Apply, 2354, thi LADY Oxford Graduate desires t from 6 to 10 years. Terms m by letter to 2351 this office.

RABBIT Trapping to Let at Co. Limerick. Apply, D. F Upper Mallow Street, Limerick.

GOVERNESS Car and Harness 14-2; first class order and cor Winter, V.S.

FURNISHED Apartments to cooking and attendance. Upper Mallow street.

LAW Clerk.—Wanted a comp liberal salary; short-hand preferred. Apply by letter, 2362 paper.

WANTED a strictly honest ar take charge of coal yar wages given to suitable man; no above need apply to Legear, Adare

FURNISHED LODGINGS—To room and bedroom on M Apply, Miss Hallowell, 2 Mount V

ALLEGED OUTRAGE BROADFORD.

A Broadford report states that a six shots were fired by some ur through the windows of the dwe man named Patrick Marsh, living near Broadford. The constabul of shot on the kitchen door, and t were broken. Some articles of v which were on the wall opposite tl were found to have been perfora There is no clue to the perpetrator

BE A JOURNA

The most attractive professor such opportunity for advanceme young men. A ladder to wealth preferment. Immediate pay afte instruction. Utilize your spare ti

Journalism by

Write to-day for Free C
CHRISTY INSTITUTE, 61 FL
LONDON.