CHANGE OF SITE.

Mr. Gaffney, solicitor, at ended on behalf of an occupier named Walsh, in the Ballybrawn Division, to request that a site of a cottage should be changed to his lands at the opposite side of the road, but which are in the Corrig Division. He pointed out that the change would be of much benefit to the occupier while the labourer would not suffer any disadvantage.

Mr. Hourigan and Mr. Lynch protested against the change, the latter stating that new site would be liable to flooding.

Mr. O'Malley, C.E., Engineer, stated that the new site was equally as good as the former one. The Chairman took a show of hands and declared that the majority were in favour of the change.

Mr. Ryan (Knockatane) said it was only right that they should accept the opinion of the engineer.

Mr. Lynch demanded a poll, which was taken, with the result that the motion for changing was carried by 17 votes to 11, three members not voting.

Mr. J. P. Hall, solicitor, appeared for a change of site in the Ballyvarra division.

Mr. Moloney, the Councillor for the Division, supported the application, which was unanimously granted.

Mr. O'Malley drew attention to the fact that the parties applying for changes of site should pay the costs. Already the ratepayers were mulcted in the sum of 50 guineas owing to this regulation not being enforced.

Mr. Hall said his client was willing to bear the expenses.

CAPPAMORE SLAUGHTER HOUSES.

Sergeant Bourke reported that the slaughter houses in Cappamore, belonging to parties named Bourke and Fitzgerald, were in a loathsome condition and dangerous to public health.

After a discussion,

The Chairman said he would make an order that the parties be noticed, and the majority of the Council favoured this course.

Mr. Hayes protested against this order, stating that he had to pass through the village, and the odour was awful.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

On Wednesday evening an accident, which proved fatal, occurred at Ballylursna, near Newpallas, the victim being a boy named Daniel Kilmartin, 17, farm servant. He was engaged on a rick of hay when he fell, the fork which he was using sticking in his neck. He bled profusely and died the following evening.
