A SUBURBAN DEATH-TRAP.

EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
an you or any of your readers, learned in law, inform the public what are the esor parties responsible for the "noisome e," which is being generated at the lower the middle North Circular Road, A t of cesspool drainage in an open sewer emitting a mephitic vapour that ut circulate the germs of disease to and e adjacent streets of the city. The whole e road out to Eden Terrace has been presumed by the contractors, in an un-state, still overlaid with rugged stones by the steam roller; impassible, therefore, ate vehicles over that section of the d difficult for the conveyance of supplies from town to the circumjacent district. ointment of a conscientious and energetic and the practical co-operation of s are very desirable.

I am, sir,
Faithfully yours,
ONE OF THE SUFFERERS.

A PLEASANT JOURNEY.

EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
Kilkee, 9th September, 1903.

SIR—Having seen a letter in your issue erday, re-service between Foynes and , I am tempted to relate for the benefit readers the experiences of about 40 tourists t Limerick at 9 o'clock yesterday morning steamer Shannon.

eached Cappa Pier at 1 o'clock and were formed that the train for Kilkee which e to leave at 1.30 could not start until 3 owing to the fact that "something one wrong." We waited patiently hstanding the fact that rain never ceased for a moment, and at 4.30 our train left

On our arrival at Kilrush (4.40) we were ed that as the train we were on board as bound for Ennis we would to wait until six o'clock for the train. At 6.15 we left Kilrush and rn Kilkee at 7 o'clock, having taken exactly rs to cover the 60 miles between Limerick at charming spot. The delay (five hours) owing to the South Clare Railway Com. and when this is the treatment tourists pect, is it any wonder that Kilkee has lost pularity it enjoyed before it possessed the ages (?) of a "regular" train service.

Yours truly,
VERITAS.

ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH WINDOW.

THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
R SIR,—Your correspondent (Historicus, ary's) has confounded two windows, both of are connected with St. Michael's Church, Square. The first old window originally d part of St. Francis Abbey, which was n the 13th century, in the reign of Henry d. 1732 the Abbey was taken down with the of building the County Courthouse on its and the eastern window was then removed dged in the new church (at that time build-

BAND PROMENADE.

Under the auspices of the Post Office Hockey Club a grand band promenade is to be held tomorrow evening on the grounds of the P.Y.M.A Cricket Club at Lansdowne. The programme, which is most attractive, is published in another column, and will be performed by the splendid and popular band of the King's Liverpool Regiment, under the baton of Mr. Jones, bandmaster. It is earnestly to be hoped that the event will be favoured with good weather, in which case the citizens will be afforded an opportunity of enjoying a grand musical treat.

HOSPITAL CASES.

John Foy, Catherine-street, was admitted to Barrington's Hospital, suffering from an injury to his thigh caused by a fall. Denis Shanahan, Carey's Road, and Ml. O'Donnell, Francis-street, were treated for dog bites.

THE VICTORIAN BUDGET.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

Melbourne, Thursday.

During the Budget debate in Parliament, Mr. Reid, the Opposition leader, advocated a reduction of duties in favour of Great Britain.

DEATH OF A POLICEMAN.

Constable McSweeney, a native of County Limerick, who had served in the Force for over twenty years, died in Barrington's Hospital this morning. The poor man had been on a visit home after burying his father and took ill rather suddenly, having previously enjoyed good health. He had an excellent record as a policeman, and was highly respected by his comrades.

GAMEKEEPERS SHOT BY POACHERS.

(BY TELEGRAPH)

Yesterday afternoon William Uttley, under gamekeeper, and Robert Kenyon, head gamekeeper's son, of Marsden, near Huddersfield, went to look for poachers. They did not return, and to-day were discovered by a search party on the adjoining moorland. Uttley was dead and half buried, whilst Kenyon was lying by his side in a critical condition. Supposed they were shot by poachers.

CO. TIPPERARY INDUSTRIES.

A Waterford newspaper states that as the result of the recent deputation to Denmark to inquire into the working of the co-operative bacon curing system there, a bacon curing factory is to be started in Tipperary, towards which, the same paper states, the Agricultural Department is contributing £10,000.
