

LY FUNERAL.
ELEGRAH.]

Newbigging, coachman, and little girls, took place at Dunn's Cemetery, close to the interment at the desolate cottage, the massed attending. At the funeral assembled. It will be Newbigging, who had been absent for insomnia, first children by cutting their throats committed suicide.

CONFERENCE.

OF COMMITTEE.
The conference committee met in the evening and sat from 11 till 4.30. Mr. Unraven, K.P., was in the chair. The attending members of the Land League were present—The Earl of Doneraile, Lord Castletown, Mr. J. J. Gore, Sir Josslyn Gore, Mr. Borrowes, Sir Anthony Dunham-Massy, Major Bryan, Captain Loftus, C.B.; Colonel Everard, L. H. Prior-Wandesforde, Mr. J. J. Kavanagh, M. V. Stewart-Moore, H. C. O'Hillas, A. More O'Ferrill, Captain Shawe-Taylor, Mr. O'Reilly, T. D. Atkinson, Delnege, W. H. Persse, Anthony Parker. The Secretary, Mr. Lane, was in attendance. The committee was considered, and the committee (with power to add amendments) was appointed to draft the Bill and watch the Bill in the House. The Right Honourable Unraven, K.P.; the Right Honourable Mayo, P.C.; Colonel W. J. D.L.; Colonel Nugent T. J. Ambrose Lau, Esq., solicitor.

the examiners, was referred to the Bishop by the Board to nominate the examiners for the special prizes in the 6th and 7th classes in the appointed course for their classes in the controversial catechism.

MILK CONTRACTOR FINED.

At the Ennis Petty Sessions yesterday, before Messrs. A. W. Brady, R.M. (in the chair), H. B. Harris, and P. J. Linnane, John Considine, one of the Ennis Union milk contractors, was prosecuted by the local Inspector of Food and Drugs, Sergeant Sullivan, for supplying milk which was found to contain on certificate from Somerset house, 9 per cent of added water. Fined £3, with all costs.

FISHING AT CASTLECONNELL.

Now that the river has again reached fishing level sport is improving and the prospects for the angler are hopeful. On Doonass, Mr. G. C. Williams killed four salmon 22, 24, 25, 27 lbs. On Prospect, Sir P. C. Walker, Bart, killed one salmon 12lbs, and the Earl of Kingston one salmon 8lbs. On Newgarden, Sir P. C. Walker, Bart, killed one salmon 14lbs. On Hermitage, Mr. Guy Francis killed one salmon 20lbs, and Mr. W. C. Jones killed four salmon 19, 25, 30, 33lbs. On the Castle fishery Mr. C. G. Wickham killed one salmon 13lb.

FOUND DEAD.

A man named Cornelius Ryan, aged 72, was found dead on the roadside at Ballysheedy this morning. The police were at once communicated with, and Head Constable Moore took some of his men out without delay. Enquiry showed that Ryan had been in the receipt of out-door relief, and was probably going home last evening when he was seized with faintness, and died of heart failure. The Coroner, on hearing of the circumstances did not consider an inquest necessary.

HARRIS'S MACHINE MADE BREAD.

Church of Scotland.

At an inquest at Hackney on a six-year-old child, who died from pneumonia, the mother said she dosed the patient with brandy and soda. "I usually fly to it," she said in explanation to the coroner.

Mr. W. H. Grenfell, M.P., speaking at Slough, said he would not be able to get together a cricket eleven of legislators this season as they were so much occupied by the multifarious duties in the House of Commons.

An infantry column belonging to the 18th Regiment has mutinied at Oporto, and the mutineers have been brought to Lisbon and secretly embarked on board the cruiser Du Amelina, to be transported to Africa.

The famous delicacy of the opulent Chinaman's bird's-nest soup, which is said to be highly appetising and delicious, is being prepared in tins in a town on the coast of China for exportation to China and America.

A cheque for £50 has been forwarded to Mr. John Burns, M.P., by the Amalgamated Union of Operative Bakers and Confectioners in appreciation of the services he has rendered in several years in advocating the cause of journeymen bakers.

The French smack Simone, of Boulogne, 2,403, laden with salt for distribution among the French fishing fleet, while leaving Seaharbour for Crookhaven, on Thursday struck a sunken rock, between Goat Island and Barrel Rock, and narrowly escaped becoming a total wreck.

The atrocities which the Bulgarians are committing may lead to savage reprisals, they will not deceive Europe, which has suffered too much of the Bulgarians in the last twenty years. It is now recognised by all that both parties are ruffians, and that there is nothing to choose between them.

Miss Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler, the well-known authoress and daughter of Sir Henry Fowler, M.P., was married on Thursday to Alfred Laurence Fellin, youngest son of late Mr. R. Felkin, of Coomepyne, Bournehampton, at Tottenhall parish church, Wotton. The bride, who was attended by five bridesmaids, was given away by her father.

O'CONNOR, CARVER & GILDER, CATHEDRAL