

any machine
erial or work-

3.

called "Wood

BE HAD ONLY

Industry.

& CAKE,

SHEEP, PIGS
RY.

in the Market
Home Industry.

com

LTD.

REET, DUBLIN,

CO., LTD.,

AGENTS.

(z13 jy26

PHARMACY

THE ACCURATE

NG
ID. SURGEONS' IONS.

D. PROMPTLY.
VERIES.

ART, L.P.S.I

CY, LIMERICK.

"Stewart, Chemist,

FFIN.

& FLORIST.

ON STREET

A NURSERY,

(Z3r

in future be located in Waterrora Jail.

On the recommendation of the Right Hon. the Earl de Montalt, H.M.L., the Lord Chancellor has appointed Mr. James Cleary, Ballinabinch, Cashel, to the Commission of the Peace for the County Tipperary.

Mr. Patrick Reedy, son of Mr John Reedy, U. C., Queen-street, Nenagh, has been successful at the recent May examination for the position of sorters in the General Post Office, London.

Yesterday a child, eighteen months old, named Flanagan, managed to creep from its parents' house, Dublin road, Nenagh, across the road to an old well, known as 'the Spout, into which he toppled and was drowned.

The Mayor presided at the city police court yesterday morning, and committed Patrick Carey and Winifred Brady to a month's imprisonment each for drunkenness and disorderly conduct in default of paying a fine of 40s.

At Barrington's Hospital, John Cassidy, Mungret street, was treated for injuries received by being run over by a car. They were not serious, and he was not detained. Richard M'Namara, the Abbey, was treated for a dog bite.

The funeral took place last evening of Mr. John Byrne, an old and much respected citizen who was deservedly a great favourite with an all but past generation of Limerick citizens. He had been ailing for some time and the end came quietly. The deceased was close on his seventieth year.

The annual Show of the Clonmel Horse Show Society will be held on the 4th and 5th of August. The show includes sections for horses, cattle, sheep, and poultry. Intending competitors should note that entries (for single fees) close on July 22nd, and for double fees on July 26th. As usual, this very important event promises to be a great success.

A labourer named Alphonsus O'Connor sustained injuries, while working at the docks last evening, which necessitated his detention in Barrington's Hospital. O'Connor was performing some work in connection with the discharging of a ship, when he accidentally fell into the dock basin, and badly strained his neck.

The funeral obsequies of the above deeply lamented clergyman were solemnized yesterday. The remains had been removed to the R. C. Church at Pallaskerry on Saturday evening, and the coffin was placed on a catafalque in front of the High Altar.

Ideal weather favoured the annual Limerick Lawn Tennis Tournament, which opened in the County grounds yesterday. From early morning the sun shone out in all his brilliancy, and tempered with a refreshing breeze from the south west, matters were made very enjoyable for those who figured in the entry programme.

After a Requiem Service early yesterday the remains of P. C. Burke, of the E. Division of the D.M.P., who was drowned at White Rock, near Dalkey, on Friday, were removed from Mount Argus to the Kingsbridge Terminus, en route to Ballingarry, Co. Limerick, for interment. A large number of the deceased officer's fellow-constables attended the funeral, and under the command of Inspector Callen, marched after the hearse through the streets. The band of the D.M.P. played the "Dead March" along the route, and the bystanders uncovered reverentially as the body was borne past. Many wreaths sent by deceased's colleagues covered the coffin.

A most distressing accident occurred at Kilmash docks on Tuesday evening. A young lad, aged about seventeen years, Kelly, received a dreadful mangling across a steam winch whilst in motion. That a large steamer was discharging a for a local firm, and at six o'clock the charge of the donkey engine. All went about eight when Kelly went to some oiling operations with steam to some extent, but not until whilst lubricating, got astride the drum of the winch. The power crept up suddenly to some irregularity, and the engine went ahead, thus dragging the lad within and sending him in a frightful way hand noticed the occurrence and proff steam, and poor Kelly was then ex the men on board. His right leg was severed from some inches above the knee leg was broken and other injuries were on the ribs and stomach.

THURSDAY.

The second Clare Feis held yesterday was a great success.

A meeting is to be held in Limerick purpose of taking steps to present to Cardinal Logue on the occasion Eminence attaining his Silver Jubilee Episcopate.

At the Harbour Beard this evening was read from Mr. Twiford stating were now being taken to remove the wreck near Matthew Bridge. Another given him for the performance of the

At a branch meeting of the Irish Foresters held yesterday, Broth Greo, C.R., in the chair, a vote of was passed to Bather John I family, on the death of his wife.

In connection with the Church Auxiliary Fund, meetings have been held on August 9th, at Killarn Tralee; 10th at Valentia; 11th at Wex has been decided to hold a meeting in October.

We are pleased to notice that M Enright and Son, have been awarded "Prix" for salmon fly exhibit, and "Medal" for general exhibit of rods, etc., at the International Exhibition of Pastimes at the Crystal Palace.

This afternoon was what may be the first experience of the "General Holiday" in the city, and on the whole encouraging. There were over a houses closed, than was the case on past two Thursdays.

Details of the Royal Munster Fusiliers have for several weeks past been in depot of the regiment at Tralee, have the 1st provisional battalion at Dro be attached to that unit during the 2nd battalion Royal Munster Fusiliers at Gibraltar.

Mr. W. Harding presided at meeting of the Ennis Board of Guardians yesterday. The Master preferred against four female inmates, one noyance to the Nuns, and the other the house without permission. He cautioned that if the offences were would be prosecuted.

Containing all the substance of the Cocoa Nibs.