"PROMISING" YOUTHS.

Two small news boys named Patrick M'Namara and James Kiely were arrested at an early hour this morning by Sergeant Brennan for the larceny of two bottles of whiskey from Mrs. Hannan's, the National Hotel, Bedford Row, last night about 10 o'clock. It appears that they succeeded in getting into a "snug" and took away two five noggin bottles, and that a number of boys consumed the drink between them in one of the lanes. The accused were discharged to be summoned. Kiely is the young lad who, it was sworn at the Petty Sessions last Friday, was found drunk in the street on the 9th instant and had to be taken to Barrington's Hospital for treatment.
