

P.Y.M.A CONCERT.

Lecture Hall last night a concert was under the auspices of the Hockey and Club attached to the Institution. There y large attendance, and the well selected me was fully appreciated, judging by use metted out to those who figured on . The conducting was in the hands of Iuspratt, who performed this duty with skill. Miss Irwin, I.S.M., opened the ment with a most interesting item "Capriccioso" (Mendelssohn), in which full opportunity of displaying, as a brilliancy and neatness of execu-ame from the audience. Mr. A. tins supplied a humorous reading, topographical Movement" and "To Kilkee Popular Route" two selections which proaugher in abundance, and applause none restricted. The songs "I Seek for Thee y Flower" (Ganz), and "Vainkas Song" aw) found in Mrs. Alexander Knox, a grand exponent. Mrs. Knox p sseses a of great compass and flexibility, and ber of the songs was a real treat for audience. Encores were demanded and ded to. Mr. W. H. Jones contributed our cello solos, and as an executant left g to be desired. His selections were—lance L' Adieu" (Squire), "Allegro Affas-(Saint-Saens), and "Romances Sans s" (Davidoff). Mr. E. W. Angley gave in nimitable style "Are ye right there, sl," "Mike, Mike, Mike," and for an encore a ipal topic of a cleverly conceived and highly ing character. He was enthusiastically ded, of once more fully upheld the at-ons and the comic element in the realms of m. The concert was brought to a close the singing of the National Anthem by the ce.

committees desire to express their sincere s to the ladies and gentlemen who so ably ed to make the entertainment the success t was, and to many friends for their kind
