

UTILITY OF SKIN PURITY OF BLOOD

Latest and Modern Ideas on These Interesting
Subjects.

UP-TO-DATE METHODS

Purifying and Beautifying the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands.

Beauty is called a short-lived privilege of nature, a delightful prejudice, a silent cheat, Carneades a glorious nature, Ovid a favor of the Aristotle affirmed that beauty is better than all the letters of recommendation in the world, and yet these distinguished authorities give us even a hint of how beauty is perpetuated, or the ravages of disease defied. Time soon turns the lily and the rose into the ash of age, disease dots the fair face with cutaneous disfigurements and as the Roman nose with unsightliness, moth, if not rust, corrupts the luster of eyes, teeth, and lips yet it is not by defacing the complexion, but by the sensitive soul with agony, which is the unhappy condition of the afflicted with slight skin blemishes, must be the feelings of those in torturing humours have for years a riot, covering the skin with sores and chafing the with poisonous elements to be-part of the system until death?
In the treatment of torturing, driving humours and affections of the scalp and blood, with loss of the Cuticra remedies have had their greatest success. Original composition, scientifically compounded, absolutely pure, unchangeable in any climate, always ready, and adaptable to the most delicate and sensitive present to young and old as the most successful curatives of modern times.

Two sons, inhabitants of Skibbereen before Judge Day, charged with consisting of two gentlemen of the names of magistrates in that part of the The jury brought in a verdict of guilty and the learned judge immediately pronounced sentence of death upon those unfortunate in a manner so solemn and affecting as to draw the attention of a number of the spectators.
(To be continued.)

THE LATE MR. M. C. HARTIGAN.

THE FUNERAL.

Not often, says a correspondent, does it occur in the natural course of events that a person dies, who was so generally esteemed and universally regretted as Mr. Michael C. Hartigan, or as he was more popularly and locally known among his many associates in Bruff, Croom, and elsewhere, as plain "Mick." His illness was of short duration, and he passed away at the rather premature age of about 36 years. His death has been received with the most general feelings of sorrow by every class and creed both throughout the city and county of Limerick. Not alone shall this sad sensation be confined to his native county, but to the sporting circles throughout Ireland, where he was so largely connected in racing and spotting circles, as well as in the sister country beyond the Channel. Not alone was Mr. Hartigan so popular amongst the fraternity of the turf, but he was also most esteemed by those who indulge in the minor pastimes of coursing, athletics, cycling, aquatic, etc. The deceased was the owner of several well known steeplechasers, including—Benets, Crean, Knocksouna, Kerko (own brother to Kirkland), Beggar's Bush, in addition to many others. He was also the past owner of Kirkland, that got placed in the last Grand National. The Crean stables have turned out many racers that have gained numerous turf distinctions both in England and the Emerald Isle. Mr. Hartigan's death will be a great drawback to sporting affairs in general but more particularly in such local racing centres as Bruff, Croom, Kilmallock, Fedamore, Charleville, etc.

A solemn Requiem Mass and Office was offered up for the repose of his soul on Saturday-morning, the celebrant being the Rev. C. Connelly, C.C., St. John's Limerick; deacon, Rev. James Carroll, C.C.; St. Michael's, do.; sub-deacon, Rev. Solomon Frost, P.P., Banogue; master of ceremonies, Rev.
P. O'Riordan, C.C., Bruff.

Immediately after the conclusion of the Mass, the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining the church amidst the tear-bedimmed eyes of the large crowd present.

The other priests in attendance were—Very Rev. Charles McNamara, P.P. Bruff; Rev. Fr.
Kennedy, P.P. Fedamore; Rev. Edmund Clifford, P.P. Monogay; Rev. John Fitzgerald, P.P. Mani-ster; Rev. Michael Carty, P.P. Domin; Rev. J.
Breen, C.C. do.; Rev. James O'Shea, P.P. Kil-mallock; Rev. John O'Donnell, C.C. do.

Some of the chief mourners were—Martin Hartigan, father; Timothy Hartigan, brother; Dr.
Jermian Hartigan (Croom), uncle; James Hartigan, uncle; Dr. T. Clifford (Adare), uncle; Dr.
Joseph Hartigan (Croom), Patrick Hartigan (do.), Timothy, James, John, and Con Hartigan (Baker House), Patrick Hartigan (Greenlawn), Cornelius Hartigan (Clorane), John Hartigan (Galtee View Cottage), Cornelius Hartigan (Limerick), Martin Hartigan (Rathmore Castle), Thomas Hartigan (Rockbarton Cottage), Timothy and Edward Hartigan (Patrickswell), Cornelius Hartigan, C.E. (Croom) cousins; John Dunn (Bruff), Michael P. O'Shaughnessy, J.P., Co.C., James Scully (trainer to deceased), James Butler, Edward T. Moran, William B. O'Donovan, and Michael Raleigh (Bruff), Thomas Casey (Grange), Patrick A. Kirby, auctioneer (Bruff), J. Curley, John Conway (Rockbarton), friends.

The following wreaths were sent:—"In loving memory," from his cousins in Boher; "In deepest sympathy," from two of his sincere friends—Michael Raleigh, and Edward J. Curley, Bruff; from Michael and Mary O'Shaughnessy, "with deepest sympathy;" "in fond and last remembrance," from his father, brother, and sisters, Crean House.

is the best cleansers.

it is really scrubbing and it will stain or

VIM

Linoleum
Plates,

short, for

Sold by

WANTED A SMOKE.

WON'T HAVE ONE FOR A WEEK

At Tipperary Petty Sessions, before M.
P. Bell, in the chair, J. P. Byrne, R.M., Héard, J. W. Shea, and R. S. Mansergh.

A man named Shine, who stated that longed to Newcastle West formerly, was forward in custody, charged with: he laid a pound of tobacco, value 4s. 8d. in premises of Mr. Tierney, Emly.

The evidence was to the effect that the was committed whilst Mr. Tierney was to a person at the door. When he missed followed the accused, who denied taking