

black cloud was observed, and as the island Lake the waters of the set it, a column at least 15ft. round and round. An island grave was considerably damaged, trees denuded of foliage, while grass on tree-tops. After crossing the again reaching open water the ed very large proportions as, rattling spray in all directions, it a north-east shore of the lake.

FOYNES SHIPPING.

(says a Foynes correspondent) has with increased traffic in this line, leading to note that extra facilities are being discharged vessels at this port by the Harbour Trustees. The port of the place, in view of increased trade, would be encouraged in the way of the local trustees.

ALLEGED ARSON.

Property of one of the most prominent firms at Foynes, has been set on fire and burned. Twelve months ago a fire took place. The owner on that occasion did not apply for insurance but he now intends to do so, as he has no malice. Much indignation is being expressed locally over such petty outrages.

DEATH BY FIGHTING PIGS.

Yesterday afternoon two prize pigs, which were on board the Montreal liner at Foynes, fought. A cattledrover was killed and tried to separate them, but was mauled that he was killed.
