

; if you the best ask for chard's.
'll know when you ry it.

test from your grocer or a free copy sent on receipt of your address on post card mentioning Chronicle.

COCOA & CHOCOLATE,
10, North Quay, Dublin.

Advertisement: the greatest achievement in ABBETT ESTATE.

Rev. Mr. Gabbett's estate, after completing a purchase based on what the tenants considered a reasonable price, through the agency of Limerick, who has always been a moderate and indulgent agent to whom he became agent, and the fulfillment of his best wishes. The term tenants, 21 years, second year. There were 1½ years' rent gave the half gale, one to be paid, and one-half gale to be paid purchase money until purchase money is some of the best land in the county, and the second terms were £4.

YOU EAT TO LIVE
LIVE TO EAT,

Nothing would be rendered far more enjoyable than occasionally indulged in a Real Mushroom Ketchup. This should never be foregone if only once the smell of it makes you hungry.
Apply for either the Ketchup or to see the products of their country in competition with those of other countries. It was nothing short of suicidal to say that an "International" Exhibition would not be a success.

Alderman Daly said he favoured the holding of a National Exhibition, and concurred with Alderman Joyce that an International Exhibition was prompted by flunkeyism (hear, hear).

A poll was taken when the following voted for the amendment—Aldermen McDonnell, McNeice, Councillors Long, Dooley, Slattery, Donnellan and Clune.

Against—Alderman Joyce, Daly, Prendergast. Councillors Hickey, C. Ryan, Guinane, J. Ryan, Bradshaw, McInerney, Dalton, Cuddihy Prendergast and Murphy.

Councillors O'Malley, Ebrill, Leahy and Behan refrained from voting, and the proposition was declared carried by the same voting.

FUNERAL OF MR. DAVID KENNEDY (NEWCASTLE WEST).

With feelings of deep and sincere regret, the sad and most unexpected death of this highlyesteemed gentleman was received by the people.
Only a week before he had been attending to his ordinary business duties, but having contracted a chill at his father's funeral arrangements, an acute attack of pneumonia supervened, which in a few days, notwithstanding all that medical skill could do, closed a life in its prime and in the ful-ness of great business prosperity. One of the most unassuming of men, his upright, sterling honesty of purpose, pleasing, social and benevolent dispositions, endeared him to a large number of friends, and he was truly beloved within the family circle.

Sincere sympathy is extended by the people, of all classes, to his widow and only son and other members of his family. The interment took place at Rathkeale after Office and High Mass, the cortege being large and representative.

At the High Mass Rev. Father O'Leary, C.C., Newcastle, presided, and very many of the clergy from various parts were present.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Kennedy (widow), Patrick J. Kennedy (son), John P.
Kennedy (brother), James Kennedy (uncle), John Kennedy, Patrick Kennedy, Ballypierce; George Barry, Rathkeale; Pat O'Sullivan, Michael O'Sullivan, Mrs. Moran, D.C., Listowel (cousins); Charles McDonnell, Auckerton; John Mulcahy, the Misses Mulcahy, Longhill; R. Murphy, Feonagh; James F. Power, solr., Birr; J. H. Power, Rathnasare; Wm. H. Power, Rathkeale (brothers-in-law), P. J. O'Shaughnessy, M.P., Rathkeale; Wm. O'Shaughnessy, Dr. O'Shaughnessy, junr., Wm. Lyons, Patrick Lyons, J. P. O'Connor, Limerick, James Lyons, do; P. Power, John Power (nephews), Dr. O'Shaughnessy, M. Lyons, David Begley, Limerick; Dr. Nolan, Limerick, W. D. Power, Rathkeale; Thos. Collins, do; Daniel Collins, do.

No Breakfast Table
complete without

EPPS'S GRATEFUL-COMFORTING.
COCOA

two months for assaulting the constable.
RIOTOUS.

Daniel Laffan was charged by Head. Co Webster with riotous conduct in Back street. Defendant had his coat off fight in another man whom he had on the ground.
Fined 10s 6d and costs.

WAS IT CRUELTY?

A young man named Patrick Rourke charged by Sergeant Beatty with cruel dog. The sergeant stated that the dog had thrown into the river at the Mill, and that was sufficiently long to enable the poor man have its nose above the water, and the dog a terrible death from exhaustion.

The defendant said he did not intend to throw the dog, a statement the Bench concurred dismissed the case.

MISREPRESENTATION.

Norah Dwyer, publican, Athlunkard-stre prosecuted for a breach of the licensing l Good Friday.

Mr. Nash defended.

Acting Sergeant Wilson stated at 10.15 o Friday night he found two men named Keatinge and William Barrett on dese premises. The men lived in the city.

By Mr. Nash—He believed the men sent themselves as travellers. He knew the men's father lived at Clonlara.

The Bench was of opinion that it was a misrepresentation, and dismissed the case, the publican, and fined Keatinge and Barre and costs.

VAN LOADING.

A STREET OBSTRUCTION.

At the Petty Sessions yesterday, arisi of a number of prosecutions by the pol street obstruction, and in which fines v from 2s 6d to 5s were enforced.

Mr. Hickson said the magistrates wis draw the attention of Mr. O'Hara to obstr in Bunswick street. This had been bad when there was only one bakery there today's. Now there was a second, and the was impassable, especially on Saturday last Saturday he was watching for some from the corner, and no person had re pass.

District Inspector O'Hara—The horse drawn across the road there. You may r ber that I brought these cases before—

Mr. Hickson—The obstruction is ever now.

District Inspector O'Hara—At the brought these cases the defence was t vans could not be loaded unless the horse in a certain position, and there being no tion I did not further trouble about them.

Mr. Hickson—I remember an undertak given that the loading would not occur s o'clock in the day, but this was not acted

District Inspector O'Hara promised action in the matter.

A VALUABLE MAP.

Messrs W. and D. K. Johnston, th map makers of Edinborough, have just i beautifully got up large sized map Russian-Japanese war district. The clearly printed in colours, and show glance the various points of interest ju The price is 1/6 net, and the map may l either as a wall or pocket map.

TITHE RENT CHARGE.

At the Quarter Sessions yesterday ar brought by the Waterford Comptroller