id about the Care of the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands

Too much stress cannot be placed on e great value of Cuticura Soap, Ointent and Resolvent in the antiseptic eansing of the mucous surfaces, and the blood and circulating fluids, thus fording pure, sweet and economical cal and constitutional treatment for eakening ulcerations, inflammations, chings, irritations, relaxations, disacements, pains and irregularities peiliar to females. Hence the Cuticura medies have a wonderful influence in estoring health, strength and beauty weary women, who have been presaturely aged and invalided by these istressing ailments, as well as such Impathetic afflictions as anæmia, chloosis, hysteria and nervousness.

Women from the very first have fully preclated the purity and sweetness, he power to afford immediate relief, he certainty f speedy and permanent ure, the absolute safety and great conomy which have made the Cuticura emedies the standard humour remedies f the civilized world.

Millions of women use Cuticura Soap, saisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preerving, purifying and beautifying the kin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, cales and dandruff, and the stopping of alling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, or annoying irritations and ulcerative veaknesses, and for many sanative, aniseptic purposes which readily suggest hemselves, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

Sold throughout the world. Cutiours Resolvent, 2s, 6d, n form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 1s, 13d, per visit of 60, intment, 2s, 6d, Scap, 1s. Depots: London, 27 Charterouse Sq.; Paris, 3 Rue de la Paix; Boston, 137 Columbus, vo. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors, 23 Send for "A Book for Women."

LANCASHIRE WIVES.

"A HUSBAND'S" PANACEA.

the London Divorce Court, in a case Lancashire, the petitioner, a lady named r, said that when she remonstrated with susband for his attentions to ladies. he said, men ought to be kicked every day, and they would not want to interfere with their ands. It is only English and American en who have impudence enough to interfere their husbands." Mrs. Duerr obtained lecree.

HE WORLD'S GREATEST SIN GER S.

ne world's best instrumentalists, bands and estras, cannot be listened to and enjoyed by body who would wish it, but the truest most natural reproduction of all those can eard and enjoyed at one's own fireside, and e midst of one's family and friends, by ing one of Cole, Nelson & Co's. special ng machines, which range in price from 15s. 15, and records from 1s. each. This firm e all who are interested in talking machines, at Liverpool, snowing matter on in excellent physical condition, heart and lungs perfectly sound and muscles in splendid condition.

MAJOR WARREN, D.C.

IMPORTANT APPOINTMENT.

Major H. G. Warren, J.P., Limerick Artillery, embarked from Southampton with Honourabe J. Johnson, Treasurer Sierra Leone Protectorate, on 28th to take up the important post of District Commissioner of Fabula. Has been on the West Clast Africa seven years, joined the Frontier Force 1896, was Adjutant of the Bat. at Freetown under the command of Major Blackeney, has seen considerable service, being all through the Insurrection, recommended in despatches, has medal and clasp, is a J.P. for Co. Cork and Sierra Leone.

Major Warren was specially recommended by his Excellency Sir C. King Harman, K.C.M.G., Governor to the Right Honourable the Secretary State Colonies, for the important posts which he now holds. Major Warren is son of Major John Augustus Warren, J.P., late of the Duke of Cambridge's Own Regiment, Coolcorver, Macroom, Co. Cork.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. E. M.

The remains of the late Mr. Edward McGillicuddy McCartie, a highly esteemed member of the clerical staff of the G.P.O., Limerick, were removed on Saturday evening from his residence, Colooney Street, to St. Michael's R.C. Church, whither they were accompanied by very many friends. The funeral took place from the Church at three o'clock ou Sunday afternoon for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. It was of very large proportions. Not alone were the various departments of the Post Office, with which the deceased had been connected for seventeen years, largely re-presented, but there was a big attendance of the Shannon Rowing Club and commercial young men of the city desirous of paying a last mark of respect to the memory of a young man whose kindly and ever courteous manner won for him the respect of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. Deep sympathy is also expressed with his widow, father and family, in their great sorrow. The coffin was carried the entire distance from the Church to the Cemetery by Postil officials and employes, The chief mourners were Mr. Edward McCartie, father; Mr. James Lynch, and Mr. Michael Hartigan; brothers-in-law of the deceased. The clergy present were Father Cregan, Adm., Dr. O'Riordan, C.C., Father O'Connor, C.C., and Father Lee, C.C. Wreaths were sent by the deceased's colleagues in the Post Office, and the postmen, members of the Lansdowne Football Club, the family, and several personal friends.

HONEYMOON BY MOTOR.

The Honourable Eric Thesiger, son of General Lord Chelmsford, was married on Saturday at St. James's, Spanish-place, to Miss Pearl Coupland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coupland, of Upper Berkeley-street. Afterwards the happy couple left in the bridegroom's motor-car for Sussex for the honeymoon.

PUBLICAT

LIVING LONI

Part 2 of this sumptious w 7d. net), edited by G. R. Sims teresting both from an artisti of view. The articles, whice trated, deal with "London at (Sims); "The House of Comworks" (A. F. Robbins); "A in London," by Mrs. Aria; ' (Sims); "Musical London," land "The Bank of Engla Lucas.

SOCIAL ENGI

(1s., Cassell & Co.) Part 55 this erudite and wonderful b 1855, and deals with pottery tricity, 1815-1885; agricultu education, 1807-1885; and pr. 1885. The frontispiece is a reproduction af the Minton The publishers announce t for binding the six vols, can leach, or 9s. for the set of six

NARROW ESCAPE FRO

About 12 30 on Sunday n stable Grady, of Mary stre duty he heard screams in Matthew Bridge, and noti water clutching the chains b wall. The tide was on the between four and five fee strong current running. cured a lifebuoy, which h who proved to be John Co ran to the barrack for Beatty and some men at Night Watchman Mann ha courageously gone into the assistance. With the aid of got down to the quay near this vicinity it appears a bc endeavoured to get near the so owing to the current. got down to the aid of the siderable difficulty all three up to terra firma. Mann their hands cut by coming i wall, and to all every crec timely and plucky conduc clothes were completely sa advised to relinquish duty unknown how Connell got was brought to Barrington' ment, and subsequently dis-

ANOTHER RIGHT 0

(From our own Co

At Rathkeale Quarter | Judge Adams heard a Blackwell v. Bridgeman.

Mr. Kelly, B.L. (instruappeared for plaintiff.

Mr. Cullinan (instruction) defended.

This was a remitted against the defendant. T