FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. McGRATH.

We regret to announce the demise of a most worthy and estimable citizen in the person of Mrs. McGrath, wife of Mr. Timothy McGrath, Merchant, William-street, which took place at her residence last Monday. By her death her husband has lost an excellent wife, her children a loving mother, and the poor a most charitable benefactress. The high esteem in which the deceased lady was held by all classes of the community was testified in a marked degree by the large numbers who were present at the funeral to St. Michael's parish church, where the remains were laid overnight in a massive oak coffin, which was covered with beautiful wreaths, and bore the following inscription—

NORA McGRATH,
Died July 4th, 1904,
Aged 59 years.
R.I.P.

Office and Requiem High Mass commenced at eleven o'clock on Wednesday, 6th inst. The Rev. J. M. Cregan, Adm. St. Michael's, presided; Rev. John J. Cahill, C.C., Valley-mount, Dublin (nephew of the deceased), celebrant; Rev. James O'Shea, C.C., Dromcollogher, deacon, Rev. S. B. Culhane, C.C., Ballygarry, sub-deacon (cousins); Rev. P. Scaplan (President St. Brendan's College, Killarney); Rev. John Lee, C.C., St. Joseph's; Rev. M. O'Riordan, D.D., C.C., St. Michael's, and Rev. R. Devane, C.C., St. Joseph's. A large congregation attended at the ceremony.

The funeral cortege to the family burial place at Mount St. Lawrence's Cemetery was one of the largest seen in the city for many years, being representative of all classes, from the city as well as from the counties of Limerick, Clare and Cork. All the clergy who officiated at office and Requiem High Mass attended at the funeral, also the following members of the medical profession—Dr. O'Sullivan, Dr. Graham, Dr. Malone and Dr. Mulcahy.

The chief mourners were:—Timothy McGrath (husband), John Joseph McGrath (son), Thomas Patrick, and Michael Cahill (brothers), and a very large concourse of nephews and cousins of both deceased and her husband.
