

aved John McNamara from the payment of a stiff fine, for an assault on the police on Saturday.

Constable Stevens told the bench at Petty Sessions yesterday that for telling McNamara to go home, he got struck on the face, thrown down and kicked.

Mr. Gaffney, solicitor, apologised on behalf of the defendant, and as the case was not pressed a fine of 2s. 6d. was imposed.

PRECOCIOUS YOUTHS.

At the Petty Sessions yesterday the Boherbuoy police had a number of boys and girls charged with throwing stones in the region of Vize's Fields and ringing hall-door bells.

Mr. Hickson administered a severe caution to the children charged, and told the parents that if their charges were brought before the Court again they (the parents) would be prosecuted under the Youthful Offenders Act.

SEQUEL TO A LAND CASE.

At the Petty Sessions Court yesterday, James Fenton was charged with assaulting Michael O'Brien, D.C., Ballyagran. The latter said on the day of the Munster Fair Fenton came behind him and struck him thrice with the stick cutting him. He attributed the assault to a dispute about land. The magistrates looked upon the assault as wanton and unprovoked, and as well as fining defendant 20s. bound him to the peace.

JAP ATTACK.

Mukden, Saturday.

The Japanese opened an artillery fire on the Russian right this morning.

THE POPE.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Rome, Saturday.

The Pope to-day, received the Right Rev. Dr. Brindle, Bishop of Nottingham, in private audience. The Archbishop of Tuam was also received.

LIMERICK WORKMANSHIP FOR CAPETOWN.

Within the past few days, we are informed, that per the Globe Express, Messrs Cole, Nelson & Co, have shipped, to the order of a Limerick gentleman now resident in Capetown, another of their "Shannon" Cycles, which are so popular in Cape Colony.

Considering that Cycles of all makes could be had in Capetown at moderate prices without incurring the cost of the heavy freight from Limerick, this gentleman's order is certainly a high tribute to Limerick manufacture.

RECKLESS DRIVING.

A jarvey named Kerley, whose address was not given, was charged at the Petty Sessions yesterday with negligently driving his horse and car through the city. The prosecutor, Constable Bryan, said he drove through Patrick street in such a manner as to endanger the life of a woman who was crossing at Denmark street. Defendant repudiated the statement of the

THE BOARD OF TRADE INQUIRY.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

The Board of Trade Inquiry into the Russian outrage on English trawlers was resumed at Hull this morning. The Solicitor for the Board of Trade called a witness who had just come ashore, namely, the skipper of the trawler, Majestic. He stated that his vessel was under fire for a considerable time, and afterwards described some firing which took place at 7 o'clock on the morning after the outrage. Other witnesses having been examined, the inquiry was adjourned sine die.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, AND DEATHS.

BIRTHS.

ALLEN—On the 14th instant, at The Vicarage, Chalfont, S. Peter, Bucks, the wife of the Rev. Roland Allen, of a son.

DENNING—November 17, at Vereton Lodge, Sligo, the wife of Dr. Denning, of a son.

MARRIAGE.

GAUSSEN and KELLY—On Tuesday, November 15, at Abbeyknockmoy Chapel, by the Rev. J. Curran, P.P., Captain D. Gausсен, Highland Light Infantry, son of the late David Gausсен and Mrs. Gausсен, of Duncote, Northamptonshire, to Marguerite, daughter of Charles Kelly, K.C., late County Court Judge, Newtown, Co. Galway.

DEATH.

MOORE—At the residence of her brother-in-law, 18 Ascot Terrace, Bella Victoria, dearly beloved youngest daughter of the late Andrew and Evelyn Moore, fell asleep in Jesus, Friday, 18th November, 1904, aged 21 years. Funeral to-morrow (Sunday) 2 o'clock, St. Munchin's. "I am the Good Shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep"—John x. 11.

I was wandering and weary

When the Saviour came unto me,

For the paths of sin were dreary,

And the world had ceased to woo me;

And I thought I heard Him say,

As He came along His way—

"Trembling soul, oh do come near Me!

My sheep should never fear Me;

I am the Shepherd true!"

bred wools with color the best prices of the year solicited.

FAIR

FAIRS OF MU

Monday, 21—Limerick; Clare; Broadford, Tipperary; Cork; Buttevant, Doneraile; market, Timoleague, Wick; mare.

Tuesday, 22—Clare; Britton, Waterford;

Wednesday, 23—Kerry;

Thursday, 24—Limerick; perary; Cahir (pigs), Roscarbery, Kerry; Cappoquin.

Friday, 25—Limerick; Bridgetown.

TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. has been used over 100 mothers for their children with perfect success. It is immediately. It is pleasurable, natural quiet sleep, by pain, and the little cheek abutton." Of all Che

CONC EL

Coughs,
Bronchitis
and All Diseases
also Wh

For nearly EIGHTY
ful Remedy. Th

CONSU

have been perma

CON

BALSAM

is sold by all Chemists
Vendors, at 1/12.

A New Edition of
work on CONSUMPTION
Six Stamps for it
Coombe Lodge, I

COUNTY BOI
LI
IN

THE Improvement
meeting on consider propos
Insurance Company
City Court-house
(additional).

Tenders to be received
4 o'clock on above
Insurance," the do be accepted.—By

Baking "Little Dinner Loaves" is a Lady's work

when made with

Brown & Polson's raising powder 'Paisley Flour'

'Paisley Flour' is mixed dry with household flour. It is so clean, quick, and successful, that baking and pastry-making become a lady's pastime, rather than work.

These 'Little Dinner Loaves' are a dainty form of bread for all mealtimes.