

LIMERICK CHRONICLE THURSDAY EVENING,

FOR TO-NIGHT AND TO-MORROW.

tion of a good man's life, needless, unremembered acts and of love.

Wordsworth.

f praise how'er concealed by re or less, and glows in every Young.

ES AND NOTIONS.

CITY DEATH-RATE.

continues to occupy an all too ion in the death-rate as regis- twenty-two town districts by the al. While the average for the tricts for the four weeks ending as 24.7, at Limerick the rate was other places being higher—viz.,) and Galway (34.0). For the anuary 16, the rate in Limerick he week ending January 23 it for the week ending January 30 d for the week ending February lowest rates recorded were at und Londonderry (16.7).

THE VILLAGE JURY.

had directed the jury to find a -de-se. "Well, chaps," said the e jury, when they had retired to edict, "it appears to me that this issself with a gun, after shootin' with a gun, but Dr. Jones, the re all know and ighly respect, 'e re chap fell in the sea. Well, it res of us to go arguin' the point r, for 'e knows more about it than l propose we find a verdict of ed"—and they did.

A RUSSIAN NOTE.

ssian "note." Apropos of all he Czar's love of peace, the peace cludes a piece of China, and no er. The Czar's dominions, says are like a wheel with a huge rim e spokes. Japan is about to insert in that wheel. At least we hope

OUT AND ABOUT.

There is a credit balance of £502 Os. 5d. at Ennis Union.

Mr. Sheridan, the popular hon. secretary of the Leinster League, was married yesterday.

Miss Hoaford gratefully acknowledges 5s., received anonymously, for the Methodist Orphan Fund.

Mr. Joseph Gleeson, Chairman of the Nenagh Urban Council, has been appointed town magis- trate.

The Marchioness of Waterford and the Countess of Dunraven have arrived in London from Ireland.

At a meeting of the Glin Rural Council a re- solution in favour of a Catholic University was unanimously passed.

Thurles Urban District Council Water Bill has been read a second time in the House of Commons.

Mr. McGroary, the so-called "Pauper Million- aire," who resided in Donegal Workhouse for some time, has left £1,600.

At the Limerick Asylum Committee on Wed- nesday increases to certain members of the staff were granted.

The Congregated Trades Delegates last night passed a vote of condolence to the Misses Corbett at the death of their father.

The death is announced of Mrs. James O'Mara, of Ardagh, who was a descendant of several illustrious families in West Limerick.

The water pipes at Ennis Workhouse are to be cleaned out, so as to get a better supply. They have been down 24 years.

Our readers will be glad to hear that the health of Mr. A. B. Baker, Gas Secretary, is much improved to-day.

Kyle Daly, draper's assistant at Todd's, Dublin, a native of Tulla, Co. Clare, has been missing since the 30th January.

A public meeting at Ennis has appointed a Committee to go into the question of ways and means for starting a bacon factory there.

During the week the Sub-Sheriff of the County Clare visited a number of farms in West Clare and seized a number of cattle in lieu of rent.

Miss M'Carthy, who accidentally sustained some injuries through the burning at the Ennis convent on Monday, is progressing favourably.

At the Newcastle West Guardians, notice of a resolution was given calling on the County Council not to increase the County Surveyor's salary.

Mr. Thomas O'Meara, of Farnmacbrien, a few miles outside Nenagh, has been reinstated in his holding, from which he was evicted a few years ago.

At Newcastle West, four persons out of the same family recently died from consumption, and many other cases have occurred during the year.

Admiral Lord Charles Beresford has left Claridge's Hotel, London, for Portsmouth, having quite recovered from his recent hunting accident.

SAD ACCIDENT AT CORBALLY

TWO MEN DROWNED.

NARROW ESCAPE OF TWO OTHERS

A very sad accident, resulting in the two lives and narrow escape of two oth- curred yesterday afternoon at the Weir, Corbally. For some days number of men in the employm the Shannon Fishing Company have engaged preparing for the net fishing which opens to-morrow, by putting down and other appliances on the weir. Ye about five o'clock, seven or eight me employed on the back part of the weir, the Clare shore, and four of them, named Woulfe, James Dundon, Joseph Keeg James Moloney, were, it appears, stand plank used in connection with the puttin of the grates. It is alleged that th slipped, with the result that three of th Woulfe, Dundon, and Keegan—were pitc the river, and borne off by an extremely sti- rent. Mr. Clear, foreman, shouted to ha- near at hand sent to the rescue, and at once manned by Woulfe (a brother o the parties) and by another fisherman while, Keegan, after being carried dow a distance of something like one yards, succeeded in getting asho Dundon sank six or seven yards from la assistance could reach him. Woulfe appeared when some sixty yards below. The sad affair was at once reported by l to Acting-Sergeant Wilson at Corbally ging operations were at once carried on and again from an early hour this mornin boats were engaged searching in the v the weir, but so far the bodies have no covered, and it may be some time before as the river is in very high flood with a ve fresh on. The deceased were unmarrie being 24 and Dundon 25, and they Ardnacrusha, Co. Clare. Keegan and are married men. The latter escaped fr the water by clutching on to the w Plac e, who only returned from Lot morning, heard of the sad affair with gret.

We learn as we go to Press that the the two ill-fated men were found t noon.

COLLAPSE OF A WALL

IN POST OFFICE LANE.

An occurrence which Providential resulted in loss of life occurred betwee ten o'clock this mornin in the Post O. A large portion of the old wall at the Free Library and close to the new l building (formerly part of the foundat famous Roche's hanging gardens) collaps any warning, and tons of solid brickwa as loose material fell with a great cr-