

oap

ing strong, health or a Perfect soap and Cleanly!

BOILING!

and Excellence.

ERICK NO. 1 RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL.

IS Council will at their meeting on Saturday, 3rd December, 1904, receive Tenders for the erection of Porches to the following Cottages, according to plan and specification of the Council's Engineer, and which can be seen at his Office, 10 Gleastworth street, Limerick:
The cottage of John Hayes, Killeagh, E.D. of Kilmurry.
The cottage of Michael Long, E.D. of Kilmurry.
The cottage of Edmund Tucker, E.D. of Kilmurry.

were halted by Constable Flover.
Mr. Nash, Solicitor for the defence, said the men were of the highest character. They were at Clounanna coursing that day, and being keen sportsmen came into the defendant's premises to have a chat about dogs. That was the position.

Mr. Hickson—Unfortunately she has got a record already.

Mr. Nash—That is a long time ago.

Mr. Hickson—Only three years. She is fined 20s and an endorsement.

Mr. Nash—I'd ask you not to endorse the conviction.

Mr. Hickson—We will have to impose a heavier fine so. Those found leaving the shop are fined 5s each.

Eventually the endorsement was removed.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. RALEIGH.

The funeral of the late Mr. John W. Raleigh, son of the late Mr. John F. Raleigh, formerly Town Clerk of Limerick, took place yesterday morning from his residence, Glentworth street, for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. The deceased gentleman had been in delicate health for a considerable time past, and his death in the 58th year of his age was therefore not unexpected, but has occasioned the sincere regret of very many friends. Mr. Raleigh was for many years connected with the bakery trade, and was highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. Deep sympathy is expressed with his widow and relatives in their bereavement.

The clergyman present were—Father Cregan, Adm., St. Michael's; Dr. O'Riordan, C.C., and Father Hogan, O.S.A.

The chief mourners were—Mr. James Purcell, nephew; the Messrs. Maume, Adare, cousins; Mr. Matt Purcell and Mr. Stephen McCarthy, Annagh.

The general public were—Mr. J. Clune, J.P.; Mr. Wm. Lloyd; Mr. J. J. Browne, C.E.; Mr. John Dundon, J. McNamara, Catherine-street; Mr. J. Spillane, Mr. A. Hall, junior; Mr. H. Coyle, Mr. John Guinane, J.P.; Mr. Keane, and numerous others.

TRESPASS IN PURSUIT OF GAME.

(From our own Correspondent.)

At Pallaskenry on Thursday, Mr. W. Waller summoned Thomas Morrissey and Patrick Hourigan, for trespass in pursuit of game on his lands at Clounogullen on the 9th October.

Patrick Kirby swore that these men entered Mr. Waller's preserves without authority with dogs and beat up the place searching for game. Morrissey was fined 6s, and the other man who did not appear, 10s.

Mr. Waller had also another man named Michael Sullivan summoned for a like offence on the 30th October.

Patrick Kirby also proved this case.

Mr. Waller said he did not wish Sullivan should be severely punished as he never saw him trespassing before.

Fined 2s 6d.

WHOOPIING COUGH AND CROUP.

There is nothing so dangerous to the life of a child as whooping cough and croup; they are the scourge of childhood. The timely use of VENO'S LIGHTNING COUGH CURE has saved many thousands of children. No remedy compares with it; it is pleasant and curative. Relief comes

Now Ready. Send 1d. for Booklet "Simple Fish and Vegetables."

THE ISLAND BANK.

An attempt appears to be again the Island Bank converted in ground for horse-owners, and this pleasant walk for the citizen avoided perforce by pedestrians to get the Corporation to move but at last they did, and effectual doing so they merely discharge trustees in charge of the Bank for citizens, the Government, who at the Bank, having given it as a the citizens. The Dons or Sands in horseflesh or take exercise "a cings have plenty of roadway about the city for airing their steeds without seeking to utilize Bank, which was obviously intended menade and is not adapted for c by gentlemen who are entirely to utilising for the individual what the benefit of the community aminer."

BORN OF OPPORTUNITY.

Mr. William Moore, M.P., s bridge on Thursday night, said past two or three years the G shown persistent unfairness in e of Irish administration in the m and the time had come when should realise what their p towards the Irish Executive was future policy ought to be. Conc Nationalist was the order of the a conciliation begotten in fee opportunism.

POST OFFICE PROSECUTION.

On Thursday, at Newport, T Colonel Dease, R.M. Mrs. Eliza has been for the last eleven ye postmistress, was brought up charge of obtaining, by means sum of £30 from the Post Office account of one Daniel Boland. charges were preferred against forgery and embezzlement. A solicitor, appeared for the Post accused was defended by Mr. Limerick.

According to the evidence ceived deposits for the Savings send on a portion of the sums, stances had forged withdrawal purported to be signed by depos

The accused's employment proved by Mr. Senior, chief Post Office, who also proved de in the several documents.

The accused was committ custody to the Winter Assize Limerick on 6th December.

THE GIRL DIVINELY