EJECTMENTS.

Michael Vaughan v. Thomas Vaughan.

Mr. J. Condon, solv., for plaintiff; Mr. P. J. Liston, solv., for defendant.

Mr. Condon said it was an ejectment on title. His Honor had decided in favour of plaintiff, the case was appealed, and his Honor's judgment confirmed. Plaintiff agreed to let defendant (who was his brother) back on payment of the amount with costs, but he would not pay costs.

Mr. Liston said it was agreed to give his client the place for seven years, and they were now agreed to these terms. They had a difference whether the years were six or seven, but they would pay the £5 14s. costs and 10s. a year.

His Honor said he would give the defendant to the 1st April to comply with the agreement, and to mark a stay till then.

THE VACCINATION ACT IN WEST CLARE

At the meeting of the Kilrush Board of Guardians on Saturday, the clerk read a letter from the Local Government Board, relative to the neglect in enforcing the Act in certain districts in the rural district of the Kilrush Union and requested to be informed whether these defaulters under the Act in Kilkee and Carrigaholt had yet complied with its provisions. The clerk was directed to forward the desired information.

JOSEPH STEWART, L.P.S.I.,
THE CITY PHARMACY, LIMERICK.

Cuticura remedies have influence in restoring health, strength and beauty to weary women, who have been prematurely aged and invalided by these distressing ailments, as well as such sympathetic afflictions as anaemia, chlorosis, hysteria, nervousness and debility.

Women from the very first have fully appreciated the purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy which have made the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills the standard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.

Millions of the world's best people use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for annoying irritations, inflammations and ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanitary, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

THE CHICAGO FIRE.

WEST LIMERICK VICTIMS.

The sad intelligence which has cast a gloom over the entire district of Ballingarry has just come to hand conveying the fact that four young people, Miss M. A. Reidy, Miss H. Reidy, Miss E. Reidy, and Mr. J. M. Reidy, nieces and cousins of Mr. Thomas Reidy, Ballingarry; Mrs. O'Grady, Woods o' k, and Mrs. J. Hogan, Knockfierne, were among those who lost their lives in the recent conflagration in a Chicago theatre. The hapless victims, who otherwise were very fortunate in their adopted country, emigrated when very young from the parish of Ballingarry some 20 years ago with their largely esteemed parents, for whom and for the bereaved relatives in the county and city of Limerick, the most heartfelt sympathy is felt. Poor Ireland has thus been sadly disappointed in the hope that was entertained amid feelings of the deepest sorrow over the terrible tragedy that her scattered children would have escaped the calamitous and regrettable occurrence.—COR.

AN AUDIENCE WITH THE POPE.

"The love of music is one of the strongest of the many good qualities of his Holiness Pope Pius X. He was pleased to receive a deputation on December 17 of gentlemen who had come to present him with the latest triumph of science in the form of the Apollo piano-player and a Melville Clark upright grand piano. The chief of the deputation was Mr. Spencer Lorraine, who had the unusual honour of being received in the Pope's private apartments. Mr. Lorraine showed his Holiness the principal points of the Apollo, and afterwards played a series of selections, to which the Pope listened attentively, frequently exclaiming 'Benissimo!' He took the keenest interest in the novel instrument and its marvellous mechanism. He was surprised that any piece of machinery could produce such sweet and perfect music, and yet be so simple that one of his secretaries could play it at the first time of asking"—"Tablet."
