

will take place at Nateley Scures Church, Hants on the 5th July.

The marriage arranged between Mr. Sydney L. Christie Miller and Miss Norah Vandeleur, will take place on Thursday, the 14th July, at St. Paul's Church, Knightsbridge, at half-past two o'clock.

The marriage arranged between Major Henry Beresford-Pierse, D.S.O., and Lady Mabel Campbell, will take place on the 7th of July at Holy Trinity Church, Brompton.

A marriage has been arranged between Ivan J. Harding, of Ville es Cour St. Servan, fourth son of the late Henry Maynard Harding, and Christina F. Ralston, eldest daughter of Major-General Ralston, C.B., of Watrix, North Berwick.

A marriage has been arranged and will take place early in October between Chas. R. Barton, son of the late S. H. Barton, D.L., and Mrs. Barton, of Grove, Fethard, County Tipperary, and 15 Lansdowne Place, Cheltenham, and Ethel, younger daughter of George E. Cobden, Raheen, Doumel.

A marriage between Frederick, eldest son of J. P. Wise, High Sheriff, County Waterford, of Belleville Park, Cappoquin, and Lucy, second daughter of Sir Thomas Wrightson, Bart, M.P., of Neasham Hall, Darlington, will take place at All Saints' Church, Hurworth-on-Tees, Darlington, on the 16th June.

A marriage has been arranged between Viscount Newport, eldest son of the Earl and Countess of Bradford, and the Hon. Margaret Bruce, daughter of Lord and Lady Aberdare.

The marriage arranged between Luttrell Bruce Blake, of Whitland Abbey, Carmarthenshire, and Meelick, County Galway, and Lucy Ellen Juarlotto, only daughter of John Newall Moore, of Longford Court, near Neath, Glamorganshire, will take place at Neath on June 30th.

THE KING.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Archduke Frederick of Austria at Buckingham Palace to-day handed King Edward his oaten as Field Marshall in the Austrian Army.

BOY'S SAD DEATH

(By Telegraph To-day.)

A boy named Griffith Rees Morgan, aged seven, of Aberaman, Glamorganshire, disappeared on Tuesday, and this morning after a diligent search his body was discovered in the river.

HOME AGAIN.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

The troopship Plassy landed at Southampton to-day upwards of fifteen hundred soldiers, comprising Second South Wales Borderers and Second Dragoons, both of which rendered splendid service in the South African war.

THE POLLARD CASE.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

At Bow street to-day, the hearing of charges against Albert Osborne and five members of the Slaters Detective Agency in connection with the Pollard case was resumed.

DEVONPORT ELECTION.

Barrister at Law.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Lucan, K.P., His Majesty's Lieutenant, has appointed the Right Honourable the Earl of Altamont, of Westport House, to be a Deputy-Lieutenant for County Mayo, Commission dated 15th day of May, 1904.

Margaret Moylan was brought up in custody before Mr. Hickson, R.M., and further remanded to Killaloe Petty Sessions on Tuesday next charged with having assaulted another woman named Margaret Meers at Killaloe on 25th instant by striking her on the head with a bottle.

An agricultural Bank has been established at Brosna, County Kerry. The following constitute the officers and committee—President, Rev. Father Murphy, P.P., Brosna; Secretary, Mr. P. M. Murphy; Committee, Rev. J. J. O'Sullivan, C.C., Messrs P. O'Callaghan, J. O'Connor, D. Leahy, B. J. Murphy, J. O'Connor.

The Earl of Dunraven and Lady Aileen Wyndham Quin are staying at the Golf Links Hotel, Lahinch, County Clare, for golf, with a party which includes Miss Blennerhassett (the Knight of Glin's sister) and her daughters. Lord Dunraven and Lady Aileen Wyndham Quin, who are both fond of motoring, came from Adare Manor to Lahinch in their crimson motor car. Lady Aileen is playing in the Irish Ladies' Golf Championship.

IRISH LAND AND LABOURERS' BILLS.

In Parliament last night, the Prime Minister, questioned by Mr. John Redmond, could give no date for proceeding with the Irish Land Bill and the Irish Labourers' Bill.

In a previous question, Mr. Atkinson declared that Mr. Wyndham intends proceeding with the Land Measure.

DEATH OF MRS. WILSON.

Many of our older readers will regret to hear the intelligence, which reached us this morning, of the death of Mrs. Wilson, relict of the late Dr. Wilson, who for close on 50 years was Minister of the Presbyterian Church in Glentworth-street. The sad event took place at the residence of her son, Mr. Danny Wilson, B.L., Fitzwilliam-place, Dublin, last night. The remains of the deceased lady will be brought to Limerick, and will be interred in St. Munchin's Graveyard on Saturday, but the hour is not yet fixed.

CHURCH SCHOOL CONFERENCE.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

At the National Societies Church School Conference at Westminster to-day there a general complaint of inadequacy of teachers.

POSTAGE TO AUSTRALIA.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Lord Stanley, replying to Sir Gilbert Parker, explained that it has not yet become practicable to extend the penny postage rate to letters for Australia, but no endeavour would be wanting to arrive at a satisfactory understanding with the Commonwealth authorities.

FUNERAL OF LORD POWERSCOURT.

with nervous attacks an

The local authorities resorts at Germany, Av have publicly intimate Jews as unwelcome guests to spend their holidays.

The Rhonda Valley received a note from Har informing them that he before a body which was disfigured condition h Jordan's.

An Exchange Telegraph shot telegram says it is that Sir Evelyn Wood mand of the 2nd Army the conclusion of the Plain in August.

Surprising a powerful Passaic, New Jersey, him, says the "New York" midated him with a k brought the neighbours.

The heirs of a French who died in Venice in 1840 was paid a sum of their ancestor, says th unsuccessfully sued th for its return.

There was a great Monday. Traffic was hours, the streets and turned into lakes. A done; telephone wires uprooted, and many wi

The Press Association and Queen will not atte to be held at Aldersl honour of Archduke Fr Prince of Wales will a and will take the salute sentative.

In his instructions to the Metropolitan Fire to the training of hor says it is not advisable t sugar, carrots, etc., as if ing them, they will e actual turn out.

The Rev. G. Martin costs at Southwark y thirty-six bottles of glasses; belonging to lane, Borough, on S Martin said that he against Sunday trading

One of Nelson's medals be offered for sale in L handed it, at a Honitor Captain Wescott, kill had not received th would have been entitl is inscribed with Nelson

A dispute in a cab or put a stop to a Halifax tive bride and bridegro to which should oper tempers rose high, heated, and, on reachi groom ended the du door hastily and maki alone.

Sportsmen will regr of Mr. Ben Cooper, a