

dark hours begin?
from my face?

at night,
then just in sight?
ending at that door.
ore and weak?
sum.
d all who seek?
e.

MINA M. ROSSETTI.
ily by cutting all

many a man from
man, for example,
ing in his way of
most, that is not
if he became a
at kind that all
honest and crooked
straighten out his
reduce his income,
sacrifice, and so
Jesus Christ.

intercourse with
one of their holier
al chords of the
re so melodious,
evening of their

e a sum,
ears.
e child doth come,
and unshed tears;
r side and nether,
the sum together."
GE MACDONALD.

to take it.
verlasting youth.
yal road will find
of life. Instead
hills of life, he
into clearer air.
here the sunsets
asts longer.

e from the greed
shall never be

before you and
ry will be easily
hance against a
housand; it will
against infinite
cles in the way
ss the Lord God
ever.—REV. DR.

tion, let him be
ortify yourself
peace which is pon you. For
as been spoken.

oats, 9½d to 10d per stone; firkin butter, 51s to 52s.

The annual collection in aid of the Magdalen Asylum took place on Sunday in all the Roman Catholic Churches of the city and at all the Masses, by permission of his Lordship Dr. O'Dwyer. In St. John's Cathedral the charity sermon was preached by Rev. Father Butler, O.C.C., Dublin.

At Skibereen on Saturday, a young man named Cornelius Regan, late rural postman, Ballydehob, was charged at the suit of the Postmaster-General with wilfully destroying and feloniously damaging letters, the property of the Postmaster-General. Defendant was sent for trial to Bantry Quarter Sessions.

At the meeting of the Tipperary Board of Guardians on Saturday the Board of Trade wrote stating they had no power to hold a sworn inquiry into the question of railway accommodation, but had forwarded the guardians' resolution on the matter to the G. S. & W. Railway Company.

On Saturday morning while two men named William and Benjamin Regan were engaged fishing in a small boat in Kinsale harbour, they captured in a small net a seal of average sized dimensions, which they brought on shore, but could get no buyers for it.

The death has taken place at Birr of Dr. Thomas Woods, one of the oldest medical practitioners in the country. The deceased had a very interesting career, and by his death a picturesque figure passes from the ranks of the profession in Ireland. He was 96 years, and was pensioned by the Board of Guardians a couple of months ago.

TUESDAY

Ennis Urban Council are trying to get a higher valuation placed on the mills at the waterfall.

The police are busily engaged in connection with the alleged shooting affair in the vicinity of Bruff.

Replying to an ultimatum, Lord Longford has refused to sell his Longford property, both urban and rural.

Patrick Carroll, postman, Trim, has been sent for trial on a charge of withholding 118 letters entrusted to him for delivery.

The present age of Mrs. Ellen Reidy, of Abbeyfeale—the accuracy of which is indisputable—is 111 years. She was born in 1793.

The death has occurred of Mrs. Berkery, Garden Hill, Castleconnell, a much respected and lamented lady at the grand old age of 94.

His Honor County Court Judge Carton opened the business of the Kilrush Quarter Sessions yesterday. There were no criminal cases for disposal.

Miss Kenny, poultry instructress for County Clare, will deliver a series of lectures at Clonlara, Broadford, Ardnacrusha, and Kilkishen during the week.

Surgeon-General W. Fawcett, who has been P.M.O in Ireland for some years, has been appointed Deputy Director-General of the Army Medical.

Mrs. Humphries and family, Claremont, Lime- rick, tender sincere thanks to the many kind friends for sympathy shown in their recent sad bereavement.

John Foster, a Constabulary pensioner, was committed for trial at Cork yesterday, charged with the murder of Wm. Regan, an American army pensioner.

At Belfast yesterday, Robert Nelson ex-

Boherbuck, the property about the 20 further roma held on the At the ad boys named Frederick V pectively, w Kelly, Boher from a plate whose father ase was part

The annual Barringto's for the elec the ensuing report, and adjourned the Corporation, tives on the George Fog tended yeste Registrar.

Major-Gen Harper's Ho The weath three days in but wind and lands.

In some in on Sunday stake weirs

The marri Mahon, Bart. place at Ahn 25th inst.

Lord Inch tographer an of photog ap great histor gallery.

We are ple 36 Cecil stree of £5 in t Design," whic of "Technics

Two more in the Clare have taken p that is possibl that the defec

On Tuesda gamekeeper, C heifers of his residence. It eating young r

The Earl p scription of E modern art g Inchiquin have Both of the la good art critic

There are 2 Clare Lunatic The Clare take a supply Council at a r The Athea held yesterda up at 10½d. p The Earl Ardilaun's gu of Wales.