

FUNERAL OF MR. WILLIAM BOYD.

Yesterday the remains of the late Mr. William Boyd, Principal of St. Michael's Parochial Schools, whose very sad death occurred at Killee on Wednesday, under circumstances already stated, were interred at St. Mary's Cathedral. The body, which arrived in the city by the one o'clock mail train, was accompanied by the deceased gentleman's wife and family. When the train drew up at No. 2 platform at Limerick, the coffin was removed from the mortuary compartment and transferred across the station to the western entrance and deposited in the hearse that was in readiness to receive it. The attendance of the general public was large and representative, and indicated very forcibly the esteem in which the late Mr. Boyd was held, and the deep sympathy which is felt for his bereaved family. A goodly percentage of the mourners included past pupils of deceased, through whose sound knowledge and educational attributes, many are now filling lucrative positions both in the profession and in commerce.

The chief mourners were—J. G. Boyd, W. T. Boyd, and J. V. W. Boyd, sons; J. Boyd, G. Boyd, and James Boyd, brothers; Venerable Archdeacon Latham, brother-in-law, and Mr. King, Cork;

The clergy included the Lord Bishop, Right Rev. Dr. Kunbury, the Archdeacon of Aghadoe, the Rev. G. L. Swain, M.A., Rev. T. B. Robertson, St. Munchin's; Rev. R. A. Adderley, St. Mary's; Rev. J. Dowd, B.A.; Rev. J. H. Thomas, Trinity, and Rev. W. H. Brown, Quin.

Amongst the general public were—Dr. Har e, Mr. J. E. Murphy, Mr. F. G. M. Kennedy, R. Evans, R. Fogerty, C.E.; W. Cromer, C. Hill, H. L. Stewart, W. Cooke, J. G. Hanna, H. V. Morony, B.E., J. Stewart, P. R. Toppin, R. Reid, E. Bell, T. Hewson, R. Lynn, J. Galbraith, J. T. C. Day, M. Gough, T. Ledger, E. Collopy, —Clarke, A. Sexton, J. Cusack, J. Broderick, R. T. Levery, R. M. Johnson, J. Enright, O. Rea, Sergeant Dunbar, R.I.C.; G. L. Sullivan, W. Thompson, E. Bell, junior, W. Reid, W. Christy, children St. Michael's Schools.

Wreaths were sent by the family of deceased, the Ven. Archdeacon, Mrs and the Misses Wynne, Miss Hamilton, Mrs Paul, the Misses Dyer, Herbert C. McClelland, and Masters Dunbar.

As the coffin was being borne up the aisle of the Cathedral the hymn, "O Rest in the Lord," was sung, after which the Rev. Mr. Swain read the 90th Psalm and the Lesson. At the conclusion of the service the Archdeacon of Aghadoe paid a touching tribute to the memory of the deceased. He said Mr. Boyd, who had been before the people of St. Michael's Parish and the other parishes of the city for so many years, had surely led a life of consistent holiness. They all mourned with the mourners in their great sorrow—the widow, the orphans, brothers and sisters of the deceased—and assured them from the depths of their hearts the sympathy of the young and old—those who had passed through the institution over which he presided for so long a period, and were now by their presence testifying to the feeling of respect they had entertained for him, and regret at his unexpected death.

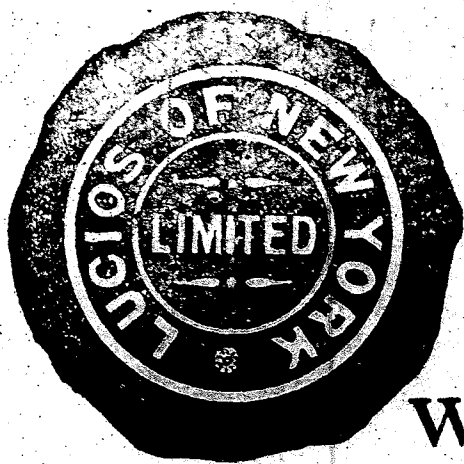

The hymn, No. 592, "Now the labourer's task is o'er," was then sung, and at its close the coffin was removed to its last resting place. As the remains were being removed from the chancel the solemn strains of Beethoven's Funeral March issued forth from the organ, which was presided over by Mr. H. C. McClelland, organist Carmarthen Cathedral.

The officiating clergyman at the graveside was the Venerable Archdeacon Wynne.

THE SERVICE AT KILKEE.

The body was removed from the Pink Lodge the Strand, to the Protestant Church on Thursday night. At half-past seven on Friday morning a special service was conducted by the Rev. Canon Blood-Smyth, most of the Protestant visitors attending. To the melancholy tolling of the bell, the funeral cortege moved on to the railway station, where a special waggon was attached to the 8.20 train, by which the remains were removed to Limerick. Among those present were—Messrs. James Boyd, George Boyd, Joseph Boyd (brothers), James Boyd, Willy Boyd (sons), Rev. A. Blood Smyth, Head Constable Moore, Mr and Mrs. W. H. Gullen, Wm. Switzer, W. J. Paul (St. Munchin's), R. J. Paul, George Hewson, James Layden, Jos. H. Wright, W. McGarrigle (Tulla), J. O'Connor, P. O'Connor, M. O'Connor (Charleville), George Kearon (Middleton), and many others, who respectfully raised their hats as the train, in which were the bereaved mother and family, passed on its outward journey.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN GUINANE, J.P.

Our Guarant

We guarantee each and every stone to retain its brilliancy for ever, and the to give perfect satisfaction. We will give to any Charitable Institution in Great Br can be shown that we ever refuse to replace Scientific Diamond that does not give sat

Lucios of New Y

Lucios Scientific Dian

will stand acids, heat, alkali, etc., in fact, washed and cleaned like genuine diamond attendant in charge of our display of Scientific Diamonds, Rubies, Emeralds, Sapphire will cheerfully explain their merits to customers and will demonstrate that they will stand mentioned above.

JOHN MCBIRNEY & COMPANY
GEORGE STREET, LIMERICK.

DEATH OF MR. J. P. FITZGERALD, GLIN.

(From our own Correspondent.)
Expression of regret and sympathy with the family were heard on all sides at the death of Mr. John P. Fitzgerald, Killaquilla, Glin. Deceased, who was a member of an old and respected Glin

P
M
JO

P LEASURE

ELIGHT !!