THE WORLD'S SKIN CURE

Sold Wherever Civilization Has Penetrated

From a small beginning in the simplest form, Cuticura Remedies have become the greatest curatives of their time, and, in fact, of all time, for nowhere in the history of medicine is to be found another approaching them in popularity and sale.

In every clime and with every people Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills have met with the same reception. They have conquered the world. By rail and sail, by caravan, by saddle, and on the backs of human beings, they have made their way to the farthest parts of the earth.

There seems to be something about Cuticura Remedies which invites the confidence of mankind. National peculiarities, European, Eastern, and Asiatic teachings and traditions seem to have no adverse influence upon them. Hence they are to be found in every part of the world, and the sight of them in the bazaars and native

Doan's backache kidney pills are two shillings and ninepence a box (six boxes for thirteen shillings and ninepence). They cannot be bought loose, but only in 2s 9d boxes, which may be had of all chemists and stores, or post free on receipt of price direct from Foster McClellan Co., 8, Wells street, Oxford Street, London, W.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. BURKE.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Frances Burke (widow of the late Dr. Thomas Burke of Killaloe) whose death occurred on Monday at the residence of her son, Mr. W. S. Burke, "Freeman's Journal," Clare street, took place yesterday. The deceased lady who had attained a ripe old age, was of a most amiable, courteous, and hospitable disposition. She was a very interesting raconteur, and was held in loving regard by a wide circle of relatives and friends who deeply mourn her demise and the void in the home that it has occasioned. The funeral took place about 12 o'clock for the Railway station whence the remains were conveyed by train for interment in the family burial place at Killaloe.

The following clergymen were present—Rev. M. Murphy and Rev. Father Casey, St John's.

The chief mourners were—Wm. S. Burke, "Freeman's Journal"; Louis Burke, Dublin; Thomas Burke, "Cardiff Catholic Herald"; (sons); S. J. Hurley, Killaloe (brother), S. J. Riordan, Dublin; George Hurley and Alfred Hurley, Killaloe (nephews), James C. Forde, H. M. C., London (son-in-law), Anthony O'Dwyer, Annagh, Miltown Malbay; James Kelly, Clenagh Castle; James O'Dwyer, Malachy Hogan, E. J. O'Riordan, M.R.C.V.S.

Amongst the general public were:—M. O'Sullivan, Dr. M'Grath, P. J. O'Sullivan, S. M'Carthy, W. G. Peacocke, James F. Barry, G. McDonagh, G. Hare, John Egan, M. K. Butler, C. O'Sullivan, P. Browne, John Johnson, J. M. Ginnane, J. J. Maguire, W. Reeves, J. A. Baldwin, M. Cashin, W. Barrett, F. Lawlor, Jas. Killeen, Ralph Nash, W. Broderick, C. Holland, M. Moylette, S. J. Bradley.

The Very Rev. Canon M'Inerney, P.P., V.G., Killaloe, and Rev. Father Doheny, U.C., met the funeral on the arrival of the train at Killaloe, and the prayers at the graveside were recited by the Very Rev. Canon M'Inerney. Amongst those who were present were Surgeon-General John O'Niall, C.B.; Mr. W. M'Keogh, junior, James Cahill, M. Malley, Dr. J. C. Ryan, Broadford, and a very large gathering of the residents of the town and surrounding districts.

Wreaths were sent by her loving children, her nephews, and the Limerick Journalists' Association.

AN ARMY TRAGEDY IN INDIA.

Advices from India state that as Regimental Sergeant-Major Murphy, of the Lincoln Regiment, was returning with his wife from church to garrison at Secunderabad, he was shot dead by a soldier, said to be Private Smith, "M" Company. Smith bore a grudge against the Sergeant-Major for some petty punishment he had received, and whilst doing duty as barrack-room orderly alone one evening he prised open an ammunition chest and extracted ten rounds. Shortly after nine at night he proceeded to Murphy's bungalow and waited his return from church. Hearing someone call Murphy went to
