

place last evening, at Edin-It was of a semi private character. d Waterford has left North Wall for nd.

Algernon and Lady Coote intend going l, and have arrived in London en route.
Prince of Wales, who is the guest of Lord un, shot over Ashford and Ballykine day. The weather was ideal and the Prince arty enjoyed a fine day's sport. The bags heavy

Press Association is requested to state ady Curzon, having entirely recovered er recent illness, is shortly returning to with her children.

Michael Davitt has departed from Ireland Petersburgh. It is understood he has gone urnalistic mission in connection with the Petersburgh riots.

Marquis of Conyngham, whose family Slane is said to have been taken by ohn Pierpoint Morgan's brother for the 3 season, will be 22 years of age on y next.

marriage arranged between Captain of Kiltanon, Co. Clare, and Miss Heysham Lodge, Lancashire, will take on the 22nd of February at St. Peter's Heysham.

Grenfell's ball promises to be one of the it entertainments during the season. A umber of invitations have been issued for e Prince of Wales, with Lord and Lady and the visitors from the Castle, will be and also many guests from all parts of who are in Dublin for the Levee and groom.

Hon. Beatrice O'Brien, who is to marry ous young inventor of wireless telegraphy the eight pretty sisters of the fifteenth ochiquin, and can claim descent from the Irish Monarch Brian Boroihme, who was the adjacent island" from 1002 to 1014, was slain at the head of his army at the Clontarf.

IE HON. BEATRICE O'BRIEN. dson Turlough, King of Munster had whereof the third was the ancestor of Inchiquin. One of Turlogh's descend-or O'Bryen, was King of Thomond at tively recent a period as 1528, and it other Murch...

Tralee is getting up a testimonial to the volunteers who assisted at the recent disastrous fire. The military, constabulary, and civilians all rendered excellent service.

A night attack was made on the house of a farmer named Thomas Mahony, of Ballybrannigan, near Cloyne, on Monday night. Nothing was stolen and no arrests have been made.

A spirited effort is being made at Nenagh to encourage the local fowl market. At yesterday's market only two chickens fit for fattening were bought for the local fattening station.

The death is announced of Mr. W. T. Ferris, millowner and manager of the Clanrye Steamship Company, Newry. Deceased was only in his fortieth year.

Ennis Guardians declared yesterday that Scotch potatoe seed would not grow, and that if the seed (loan) potatoes were not a reasonable price they would decline to take them at all.

There was quite a breeze at Ennis Union yesterday, one member accusing another of looking at him "like a tiger." The row was eventually "drowned" by the stentorian voice of the Clerk reading the correspondence.

Official returns issued by the Royal Irish Constabulary authorities show that five more sub-districts have been discontinued. The number of stations discontinued up to 31st December last was 50.

In the Chancery Court on Tuesday, an order was made for the administration of the personal estate of the late James McMahan, timber merchant, Limerick, who died in 1899. His son Morgan made the application.

A sacred cantata, entitled "The Star of Bethlehem," composed and arranged by Charles Darnton, was most successfully rendered by the choir of St. Mary's Church, Nenagh, on Thursday last.

The North Tipperary Teachers' Association declared in meeting on Saturday that the starved state of Irish education at present was solely due to the parsimonious spirit displayed by the Treasury.

Mary Carey, of Park, has been found dead in the house suffocated by the smoke from a long neglected chimney. Two goats in the house had eaten the straw chairs, and thus kept themselves from starvation.

On Monday, Olive Rose Eleanor Madden, eldest daughter of M. P. Madden, Esq., Borrisokane, County Tipperary, was received into the Order of Mercy, Carysfort Park Convent, Black-rock, County Dublin.

At his residence, Guilford Lodge, Sandy mount, County Dublin, the demise has occurred of Mr. Cecil Moore, in his 84th year. Deceased was late Registrar of the King's Bench Division in the High Court of Justice.

We regret to have to announce the death of Mr. James O'Connell, J.P., Kilvalla, which sad event took place at his residence, Fethard, on Monday last, after a protracted, borne with the utmost patience and resignation.

Mr. T. W. Russell, speaking at the annual meeting of the Irish Temperance Lodge, Belfast, expressed the belief that temperance legislation could not be got from the Conservative Party.

The cover of St. Elizabeth's Well at Cork—centuries old—was smashed in by a Government engine on Tuesday, and revealed an opening, 6 feet in diameter, and a well 100 feet in dep h, in Barrack street. It has been closed in again.

Mrs. W. L. Stokes desires gratefully to acknowledge the following generous donations and contributions received towards the Penny Dinners:—From Lady Clarine, vegetable...

A telegram from Cairo stat-the Holy Carpet have been lo-The theft was perpetrated juarrival of the Mecca pilgrit European of the name of Croo be the perpetrator of the out-

Charles H. Lee and W. R. I ded at North London, were been suspiciously examining in company with another man, They said they were seeking sweetheart.

A few days ago King Leop his physician that he had stil live, is stated by a Brussels c have replied—"I will need o This is understood to refer to State projects King Leopold ha

Major-General D. D. O'Cal who recently relinquished the Royal Artillery at Malta, has President of the Ordnance Cor cession to General J. F. Owen, on the application of his three

FOR THE PO

OUR SHILLING F

The Fund now stands as follo

- Rev. R. Ross Lewin ...
- Mrs. M. F. O'Grady, Erinagh ...
- P.M. ...
- M.L.L. ...
- Mrs. G. M. Vincent ...
- Collected by Mrs. Colpoys Keane ...
- scape, Clonlara ...
- Fifty of Messrs. Cannock and Co ...
- (first instalment) ...
- Anonymous ...
- Master Jack Barnett ...
- Miss May Barnett ...
- A few of the CHRONICLE Staff ...
- Clerical Staff, W. J. Shaw and So ...
- McBirney's Staff ...
- Anonymous (stamps) ...
- Captain Harkness ...
- Staff of Messrs. Cannock and Co. ...
- [2nd instalment] ...

Amount received thus far

"DEAFENING UP

"BEAR GARDEN" MEETING

(From Our Own Correspondent)

At the Glin School Board on Reidy moved that the resolution November retaining Mr. David Ho be rescinded, and was offering se tions in support of same, when Mr.
"There is no wonder this institut damnified throughout the count things are going on. There is no up for the poor ratepayer." A fusion followed these remarks, di the Chairman repeatedly threaten the chair, and the Clerk said he w special report to the Local Govern The uproar became deafening, and t dissolved the meeting, as the Board a member declared, become a "bear

A GIRL ENJOINED