

LE, THURSDAY EVENING FEBRUARY 2

na, and hay. A hen is a very ere is evidently more scope in the of an essay than we supposed.

CULT CONDITIONS.

the country are many instances of ad, but none can be more so than in Yorkshire, where the tenant wball in June, and a red rose in equal rent.

EMPLOYMENT.

le tells its own story. It shows British Trade Unionists out of ast 10 years :—

December.	Average for the Year.
4.8	5.8
3.2	3.4
5.3	3.5
2.9	2.0
2.5	2.4
4.0	2.9
4.6	3.8
5.5	4.4
6.7	5.1
7.6	6.5

at winna ding," says Burns, and fact " that 1904 saw the highest oloyed during ten years. No ts and imports will get over that

AGE BUT TRUE.

f the rare booming hittern has Wood, Kitt-green, near Wigan sured 39in. from beak to claw ; from tip to tip, measured 4ft. 2lb. 6oz.—The downfall of a had persuaded young men to attributed to dancing. Her ears ago she would rather have church service.—Mr. E. R. nd beach track at Ormond, -mile straight away run with ile in 6min. 31sec. This is a recent scenes in St Petersburg ris for cinematograph repro- acks are men out of work ead, and the horses are cab ine, an Englishman, and three ersed the entire Mont Blanc e the supposed dead body of a a, near Gibraltar, was being suddenly rose, and seizing a blows on his wife and her condoline with

OUT AND ABOUT.

There is a credit balance of £918 6s. 2d. in the Ennis Union.

The first crop of Irish tobacco will be on the market by March.

There is a credit balance of £918 6s. 2d. in the Ennis Union.

The milling industry on the co. Kilkenny side of the river at Waterford, is to be re-started.

Swine fever has increased within the past two years in Ireland. There was no case of rabies last year.

Mrs. O'Mara and Mrs. Ray desires to thank the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly helped to make the concert a success.

The death of Mr. Joseph Ryan, of the Silvermines took place yesterday at the patriarchal age of 90 years.

Drs. Kennedy, Coffey, and Ryan, all in the Nenagh Union, have reported that cases of diphtheria had occurred in their districts.

On Wednesday Sir Ralph S. Cusack, D.L., was unanimously re-elected Chairman of the Irish Railway clearing-house Committee.

Mrs. Frances Armstrong, widow of Mr. E. Marcus Armstrong, Co. Tipperary, has left personal estate of the value of £6,563.

The death has occurred at Brosna of an interesting nonagenarian named Kate Lyons. Deceased possessed her faculties up to the last.

At the Tralee fortnightly pig fair there were 500 pigs in market, prices being from 45s. to 48s. per cwt.; 300 bonhams, 16s. to 23s. each.

Miss Carson, of Ballyneety, died at Clogheen Co. Tipperary, from internal injuries caused by a fall in the hunting field.

Messrs. Glynn's steamers are affording the people of Glin an excellent goods service just at present, calling several days in the week at Glin Pier.

Oyster dredging in the fishing bed near Glin and at Red Gap seems to be fairly remunerative, judging by the number of boats engaged at present.

The weekly fresh butter market was held yesterday at Athea, when a good quantity of prime butter was bought up an average of 10½d. per lb.

Mr. Henry Vincent Jackson, of Inane, Roscrea has been sworn as High Sheriff, and Mr. Richard Bull, Tullamore, as Under Sheriff of the King's County.

The Mullingar drapery establishments have decided to close their premises in future at eight o'clock on Saturdays and seven on other evenings.

The Glin School Attendance Committee will meet on next Tuesday to make arrangements

FROM DAY TO DAY

A strike in the printing establishment Naples has broken out.

The Westphalian strike led to a record of Fifeshire coal for Germany last week.

Three men were suffocated by foul air in a well which was being sunk at Northampton Monday night.

Thirty-five undergraduates have announced their conversion at the Torrey Memorial meeting at Cambridge.

During a gale off the coast of Looe a cutter and three boats were sunk with the loss of 15 lives.

A new coalfield has been discovered at Bromwich, 700 acres in extent. The seam is 100 feet deep.

The inventor of the new swinging berths for the prevention of sea-sickness is a dentist.

Emma King, 20, of Hounslow, announced her forthcoming marriage to her mother's day, and immediately went out and fastened her throat.

A Luffan's telegram from Washington that while the North Atlantic Squadron was in port during the Christmas holidays 500 Able seamen deserted.

The latest club in Berlin is for those afflicted with stammering. The chief object is that the members have to start on dinner at breakfast time.

Lloyd's reports the British steamer Newport to Amsterdam, ashore at Zandvoort, Tugs cannot approach her owing to weather.

"I spent the money in going to music and buying cigarettes," said William Pinder, charged at Clerkenwell with embezzlement and Remanded.

A Lloyd's message says the train in the neighbourhood of Greenhithe, was considerably damaged yesterday morning by a tug running into her.

One of the applicants at a meeting of the Swindon Board of Guardians was a widow who stated that she had been relying on a National Tea pension, which had not arrived.

Refusing to go to his home in Fulham taking "strong beer," Joseph Doak was fined in the street that he "wanted American English law fined him 5s.

"She always said she would be found one morning," said the husband of a woman who died at the Holborn inquest, who met death as she predicted.