

TORNADO IN KANSAS.

Twenty Persons Killed.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Kansas City, Tuesday.

A large portion of M.quette, Kansas, was destroyed by a tornado this morning, twenty people being killed. The tornado made a clean sweep of a strip a hundred feet wide, extending the length of the town.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Mr. Chamberlain left Birmingham for London this morning. Beyond looking somewhat more pallid than usual the right hon. gentleman showed no trace of his recent indisposition.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Reynald's firm, High Easter, Essex, belonging to Colonel Tufnell, has been destroyed by fire, only the house being saved; cattle and fowl perished in the flames.

SURRENDER OF SANAA.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Hodieda, Sunday.

The surrender of Sanaa is officially confirmed, the rebels capturing 30 guns, twenty thousand rifles and ammunition.

SIR B SAMUELSON'S CONDITION

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Sir Bernhard Samuelson, Bart., who is lying ill at his residence in London, passed a restless night. He is weaker this morning.

FIRE AND MASSACRE IN POLAND

A terrible conflagration is reported from Poland. One hundred and twenty houses have been burned down at Chenziny. Sensational reports have also been received by private telegrams of a Jewish massacre at Skitamor, which is said to have lasted three days.

A BAD SON

Pat McKissay, who while drunk knocked his mother, Mary McKissay, down and tried to hit her with a chair, was sent to prison for six months by Mr. Ffranch, R.M., at Newcastle Petty Sessions. She pleaded that he should be sent to a home for 12 months, as he would be just as bad when he came out.

ALL ABOUT A DOG.

The much-talked-of Newcastle West dog case (John Fitton against Robert Dore) has been again adjourned till next court day. It is alleged that Dore's dog is ferocious, while Dore says it is harmless, and that he can prove it.

brother of the deceased. Also a magnificent wreath in the shape of a cross, 6 feet high, sent by his comrades at College street Police station; from B Division; Superintendent Lareasey and family; sergeants and constables D. Division; O'Connor and Shee, Dame street; Nursing Staff Portrane Asylum; Sergeants Collège Green Division; Mr. and Mrs. Cavey, Essex street; sergeants and constables Green street Station, men of Ferenure, constables C Division, Military Foot Police, Dublin; men of the A Division, members of the Fire Brigade, men at Clontarf Station, Guinness's Tug-of-War Team, Messrs Dunne and Byrne, men of Mountjoy Station, men of C Division, Miss Fry; his comrades at Lad Lane, Irishtown police, his comrades at College street, men of the Detective Departments; from the Depot R.I.C., and a wreath without a name inscribed "loved by all."

ARRIVAL IN LIMERICK.

The remains arrived in Limerick at 1.30 p.m., and a large and sympathetic concourse assembled on the platform. Amongst them were—Mr. M. Fitzgerald, Assistant Secretary County Council; J. Forrest, City High Constable; W. M'Namara, D.C., J. Heffernan, J. F. Halvey, M. O'Shea, T. B. Gough, B.C.; Captain Hayes, Fire Brigade, and staff; Mayor's Sergeants, T. Mulqueen, — Pike, M. Hartigan, P. O'Connor, C. Quilligan, J. Fitzgerald, J. Sarel, and numerous others. The Mayor was unavoidably absent, having had to leave town. There was a guard of honour of the local R.I.C., under the command of District Inspector O'Hara, who placed on the coffin a handsome wreath sent by the Limerick force. The waggon containing the coffin was shunted on the Cork direct platform, and there attached to the Foynes train. All heads were uncovered, and the Sarsfield Band played the "Dead March in Saul." During the interim and up to the departure of the train at 2.5 the band played the "Last Home," composed by a member of the band, and also the "Flowers of the Forest" as the train steamed out, when spectators again raised their hats. Altogether it was a demonstration of the deepest respect and sympathy.

THE ALLEGED MOONLIGHTING.

At Newcastle West Petty Sessions, the case against Patrick Curtin and William Lenihan, charged with moonlighting and assaulting Maurice Lynch and Hanora Lynch on the night of April 23rd, was adjourned till the 12th of May at Dromcolloher. This is the already reported case in which two masked men went into the house, and Mrs. Lynch tearing off the mask, scratched one of their faces, thus leading to the arrest.

BOY'S SAD DEATH.

John Doyle, aged five years, the son of a widow, was accidentally hanged to death by his clothes igniting at his home in Clancy's lane on Sunday morning. The poor mother was earning her living by selling provisions at the corner of Mary street at the time. The jury to-day returned a verdict of accidental death.

city next Citizens' connection object a de A. W. Sh meeting of their sym

P.Y.M

The first held on attendance in excellent noon was tea tables. cricket m opening g also be ple

PI

An acic Mr. Peter obey an c storage pr adjourned rangemen occupier o sidered tl danger to

S

Cousol

Nator Münst Hilen Provin Uster

Great Midlar Dublin Great

Guinn Dublin Prefer Coats, Burke Mattee Denny O'ono Dohir Wifele A'ehin Deave Eric Louiav Mimor Norfol Ontari Southe Southe Steel 7 Union Charis Golds East I John Randf