A marriage has been arranged, and will take place at the Mariner's Parsonage, Kingstown, on 5th June, between Thomas Wingrave, eldest son of the late Edmund Ashton, and Frances Gertrude, eldest daughter of Eyre Mannsall Eyre, Innishannon, County Cork.

A marriage has been arranged and will shortly take place between Mr. Clarence C. Colley, only son of the Venerable Archdeacon Colley (Die. Natal), and Gabrielle, youngest daughter of the late Major Des Barres, of Maryville, Fermoy.

The Earl of Orkney is progressing satisfactorily at his residence at Stewkley, Bucks., but his injuries in the recent accident while out with the hounds were more serious than at first supposed, and included a compound fracture of the leg.

TYPHOID OUTBREAK IN THE CITY.

Immunity from virulent disease is one of the few blessings that Limerick enjoys, but now and then in the course of Nature isolated cases of health disorder are inevitable in any community, and while they last are the subject of considerable alarm and speculation. At the present time the city has been visited with an outbreak of that dread disease, typhoid fever, which this morning claims no fewer than fifteen victims. Since the unwelcome visitor made his appearance amongst us to obviate a scare has been the one object, and with a view to accomplishing this effectively the health officers have all along been working silently. However this may be, the prevalence of the disease has within the past few days been generally spoken of in anything but cheery language and a hundred and one causes assigned for its origin. We should be very slow to assume the role of alarmists in an affair of this nature, but no matter what might be said or thought, there is no gainsaying the fact that the situation is not as bright as we should wish. Fifteen victims and a death from typhoid is not a pleasant outlook for future developments. Anyhow, it is satisfactory to learn that every precaution is being taken to check the growth of the infection, and in the various city hospitals where the cases are under treatment, the staffs are incessant in their labours to tend towards the one end, which it is hoped will shortly eventuate in the eradication of the epidemic. As to the origin of the disease, those competent to give an authoritative opinion are yet unable to trace the source from whence it sprung. The consumption of milk has been theorised on, but in the absence of anything specific this can only be accepted as an abstract cause until the report of Professor M'weeney, Dublin, to whom liquids containing probable sources have been submitted for analysis. When his statement is received it will be forwarded to the Corporation, to whom Dr. McGrath, Medical Superintendent Officer of Health, will report on the existence of the disease at to-morrow evening's meeting.

FUNERAL OF MR MARTIN M'GUIRE.

At 10 o'clock on Sunday morning the remains of the late Mr. Martin M'Guire were removed from 67 George Street, to St. Lawrence's Cemetery for interment. The cortege, which was large, was in every respect a fitting tribute to the esteem in which the deceased was held by his fellow-citizens, amongst whom as a shrewd business man he had moved for considerably over a quarter of a century.

The chief mourners were—Thomas, William, and James McGuire (sons), Bert Keyes, and Joseph A. Bourke.

The clergy present were—Rev. J. M. Cregan, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. Dr. O'Riordan, C.C., do; Rev. J. Lee, C.C., do; Rev. J. Creagh, C.S.B.; Rev. T. Walsh, C.S.S.R.; Rev. J. Maher, S.J.; Rev. Fr. Wallace, C.C., St. Mary's; Rev. Fr. O'Kane, O.P.; and Rev. Fr. Hogan, O.P.

Amongst the general public who either attended personally or sent carriages were—Mrs. O'Brien, South Hill; His Honor Judge Adams, J. Guinane, J.P., Stephen Hastings, John Egan, M. Egan, Sir Vincent Nash, D.L., Dr. Kearney, W. M. Beauchamp, P. Riordan, S. Turbidity, J. J. Browne, C.E., H. Coyle, M. Moylett, P. Cronin, P. Hartigan, Alderman Daly, T. Ryan, V.S., J. P. Hall, M. J. DeCoursey, H. J. Guinane, J. F. Power, J. Boyd, M. J. Wallace, Dr. Fogarty, E. C. Winter, V.S.; J. O'Malley, C.E., G. Spillane, E. J. O'Riordan, V.S., J. McNamara, P. MacDonagh, J. Anglim, O. D. Coll, V.S., J. J. Peacocke C.E.; J. Begley, J. D. Cusack, S. McCarthy, W. G. Pike, A. Hall, junr.; J. Ryan, B. McCann, W. M. Nolan, J. H. Roche, J.P.; D. Begley, J. Killeen, W. Holliday, Ald. a glass case in the room in which it was found, and identified the note branded "E. J. Cean, grocer, Listowel."

Evidence was given by her niece, Mary Flanagan, who deposed to getting that note from Mr. R. Walsh, of Kilsrush.

Mr. Michael Downes, foreman Mr. Ryan's bakery, testified to the finding of the six pound notes in the ceiling of the bakehouse by Mr. Bourke, a baker in the place. The accused worked in the bakery about six or eight weeks ago.

Rochfort pleaded guilty to stealing the money, and was sentenced to four months imprisonment with hard labour.

Mr. Conlan cautioned Mrs. Frawley against keeping her money in such a loose fashion.

Head Constable Thompson said more money was found in jugs and mugs about the place.

OBSTREPEROUS SOLDIER.

Some little commotion was caused at the Crescent on Sunday night arising out of the antics of an obstreperous soldier. At about 10 o'clock it would appear "Tommy" was noticed by the picket to "have dined not wisely but too well." Having reprimanded him, but without avail, they proceeded to take him to barracks. The arrest naturally created the usual curious crowd, and what followed is more or less a veiled affair, or at most a piece of conjecture. It is stated that in resisting detention, the soldier unsheathed his bayonet with a view to effecting his release. Beyond this nothing further took place, spite of the wondrous rumours that since have been diligently circulated.

FRACAS AFTER A HURLING MATCH.

The hurling match under Gaelic rules at the Markets' Field on Sunday, between Bruff and Caherline, had a rather unpleasant sequel. In the contest proper Caherline were discomfited by the narrow margin of two points, and subsequently when the rivals met in Upper William street, before their departure for home, a regular fracas occurred. It is stated that the affair had its origination in a heated controversy over the rights of the teams, but at all events, whatever the cause, portion of those who formed the contestants attacked each other with a vengeance. In the melee, in which sticks were freely used several received nasty facial injuries and scalp wounds, and had to be treated at Barrington's for same. The timely intervention of the police, assisted by some civilians, brought to a conclusion what to all appearances threatened to become a very serious brawl.

GARRYOWEN II.

A great concert in aid of Mrs. Wm. Lloyd's Stall at the forthcoming Garryowen II Fete will be held on May 5th at the Theatre Royal. There will be a chorus and orchestra of 90 performers, and the fact that the programme is in the hands of the M. Jos. Pemen Belens is a sufficient indication of the high class character of the concert which may be expected. Bookings can now be made at Guy's.

PRESENTATION TO MR. R. ROOKBY.

This afternoon the members of Matterson's F. C. presented Mr. R. Rookby with a beautiful Gold Medal, in recognition of his services to the Team, both as a player, and supporter, on his departure to take up an important position in the Firm's offices in Manchester.

QUIET IN POLICE COURT.

The police court was uninteresting and quiet this morning. There was no case for hearing. A fact to indicate the decorous behaviour of the citizens during the holidays.

THE REPOSITORY SALE ON SATURDAY.

A bigger entry than usual on last Saturday: class fairly represented; no top lots. Prices easier than previous sale by £1 a head. Enquiry not so active, demand slackened as the great bulk of wants have been supplied. Prices of in-calf heifers ranged from £16 10s. and fees to £12 2s. 6d.; dairy cows made from £15 5s. and fees to £9 10s.; calves from £6 6s. to £5 3s.

KILRUSH UNION.

Auditor's Report.

(From our own Correspondent.)

At the weekly meeting of the Kilrush Board of Guardians on Saturday, Mr. A. McNamara (chairman) presiding,

The Clerk read a letter from the auditor, Mr. C. E. Browne, respecting the establishment, in which he stated:—"I am glad to be able to report a substantial decrease in the cost of outdoor relief, and also in the average cost of in-maintenance. . . . The cash account is far from satisfactory, and the Guardians should institute proceedings against all those patients who are of sufficient ability to pay the sums owed by them. I would recommend that in place of the present fixed and immovable scale by which coal is issued, the medical officer should be given authority to direct that the issue be varied from time to time, as he may deem necessary. . . . I note that the master has on his own responsibility altered the diet scale in many instances—a course for which he has neither justification nor authority."

The Guardians considered the report satisfactory, and his suggestions as to coal, keeping of books, etc., were adopted.

DEATH OF MR. D. DUGGAN.

Those who had the pleasure of the acquaintance of Mr. Daniel Duggan, who for a number of years held a position at Messrs Todd, Limerick will be sorry to learn of his death, which took place on Saturday morning. Deceased, who conducted a flourishing drapery business at Moore st. Kilrush, was an all-round favourite in the district. He was an old lover of Gaelic pastimes, and was instrumental in bringing laurels to the famous Commercial Club, Limerick, of which he was a member.

MOTOR FATALITIES.

At Homel, Hempstead, yesterday, Roco Cornalbas, chauffeur to Mr. Hildebrand Harmsworth, of London, was brought up charged with causing the death of William Chiton, a little boy, at Markyate, Hertfordshire, on Tuesday last by furiously driving a motor car. This is the case where the crushed body of the little lad was left lying in the road, while the motorists made off, and a singular thing is that Sir Alfred Harmsworth in the "Mail" offered £100 for the discovery of the motorists, while another of his papers denounced the callousness in no measured terms. The self-accused was remanded without bail till Saturday.

While driving his motor car through Copthorne on Sunday night, Mr. Harry Reynolds, a veterinary surgeon of Horley, Surrey, suddenly fell forward dead from heart disease.

Mrs. Emma Brand, aged 58, was knocked down by a motor cycle in the Peckham road, London, yesterday. She struck her head with great force against the kerb, and death ensued. Mrs. Brand had just placed her nine year old daughter on the pavement.

Captain Burnside, whose motor car accidentally killed an old woman named Jane Russell at Dublin on Saturday afternoon, was yesterday exonerated from all blame by a Coroner's jury. Police proceedings against the Captain were adjourned till Thursday on bail of £50.

PATRICKSWELL ELECTORAL DIVISION.

Intimation of the withdrawal of Mr. Patrick Mulqueen, Rosbrien, from the contest in the Patrickswell County Electoral Division was on yesterday received by Mr. H. J. Guinane, Clerk of Limerick Union. This is the only case in which a withdrawal has been notified in the district, and as such leaves ten rural and three county divisions to be fought in Limerick No. 1. Had Mr. Mulqueen persevered in going to the poll a triangular contest would ensue, but now that he has contented himself with seeking reelection on the District Council, the larger issue will be between the sitting representative, Lord Emily, and James Sheehy, Kildimo, who three years ago was ousted from his seat in the County Council after a stiff fight in the same division, on petition.
