ROOSEVELT AND IRISH GENIUS.

"I send you my hearty good wishes for the success of so worthy a movement. It is peculiarly appropriate that in our country, where so large a portion of the blood of our mixed people is drawn from Irish stock, there should be this movement on broad lines, and carried out in such a wholesome and comprehensive manner for the purpose of illustrating the industrial talents and artistic and literary genius of the Irish race." So ran a message sent by President Roosevelt to Mayor McClellan on the occasion of the opening of the Irish Industrial Exposition, which is at present in progress at Madison Square Garden, New York.
