WEEK IN BRIEF

On Saturday the Local Government Board wrote to the Kilrush Board of Guardians asking to be informed if the medical officer was satisfied as to the arrangements made for the discharge of the duties of Miss Maryanne Clancy, wardmaid, during her absence on leave. The letter was referred to Dr. Counihan.

At the meeting of the Limerick (No. 2) District Council on Saturday, a notice of motion standing in the name of Mr. Thomas Bourke, that the treasurership of the District Council be changed from the National to the Munster and Leinster Bank, was proposed by Mr. P. Fitzgerald in Mr. Bourke's absence and seconded unanimously.

At Camblin, Co. Tipperary, a young man named Bergin died as the result of fearful injuries received while feeding a threshing machine. He raised one of his feet to crush the corn into the mouth of the thresher, when the leg was completely torn off from the knee, hurled through the beaters, and deposited where the straw issues.

At the meeting of the Kilrush Guardians on Saturday, an application was read from Hall Porter O'Donnell applying to be allowed to keep a little daughter of his, who was after returning home. She was too young to be boarded out, and he wished to have her under his own protection in the house. The application was granted.

"If it wasn't for his pleading guilty and expressing regret he would have been sent to gaol for a couple of months for touching the policeman. He is now fined 10s and costs or seven days." So said Mr. Turner, R.M., at the Tipperary Petty Sessions after hearing the evidence in a case in which a man named Tim Ryan was charged with having assaulted Constable Reidy.

At the County Council on Saturday a deputation was appointed to wait on Mr J. B. Barrington, agent for the Croker estate, near Herbertstown, to ask for the reinstatement of Michael Power, who said that he got an assurance both from the landlord and agent that when the estate would be for sale he would be reinstated.

At the meeting of the Rathkeale Town Commissioners the following vote of condolence with the family of the late Mr. Cusack, D.I., was passed. Resolved:—"That we, the members of the Rathkeale Town Commissioners, beg to tender to the family and family and friends of the late Francis Cusack, Esq., D.I., R.I.C., our
