

Protestant visitors attending. To the melancholy tolling of the bell, the funeral cortege moved on to the railway station, where a special waggon was attached to the 8.20 train, by which the remains were removed to Limerick. Among those present were—Messrs. James Boyd, George Boyd, Joseph Boyd (brothers), James Boyd, Willy Boyd (sons), Rev. A. Blood Smyth, Head Constable Moore, Mr and Mrs. W. H. Gullen, Wm. Switzer, W. J. Paul (St. Munchin's), R. J. Paul, George Hewson, James Layden, Jos. H. Wright, W. McGarrigle (Tulla), J. O'Connor, P. O'Connor, M. O'Connor (Charleville), George Kearon (Middleton), and many others, who respectfully raised their hats as the train, in which were the bereaved mother and family, passed on its outward journey.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN GUINANE, J.P.

We record with very sincere regret, which is shared in by the citizens at large, the death of an old and highly esteemed Limerickman, Mr. John Guinane, J.P., which took place at his residence, Queen street, last night. Though Mr. Guinane had been in ill health for some time past, and confined to his house for less than a fortnight, his demise was unexpected. It occurred about ten o'clock, and the sad tidings soon spread through the city. Mr. Guinane was a gentleman of a most kindly, affable, and genial manner, an excellent "raconteur," and one of the best authorities on local affairs. Family history, or local doings in the dim and distant past, he had at his fingers' ends, and was always accessible to those who sought information at his hands. He was a liberal in politics, and figured in some noted city elections, amongst them the contest of the late Mr. D. F. Gabbett and Mr. Richard O'Shaughnessy against the late Sir James Spaight. Mr. Guinane was agent for the Gabbett estate and various other properties, and was ever on the most friendly terms with the tenantry. He was a magistrate for the city for more than twenty years, and was a constant attendant on the bench. In public life he filled a considerable part. He frequently served as a Grand Juror for the city; was a member of the Board of Guardians for many years, where he evinced a deep interest in the sick and the poor; he was elected one of the representatives of the Glentworth Ward in the Corporation on the passing of the Local Government Act, and was again returned at the triennial elections in January last. Everything tending to the welfare of his native city, had his heartiest sympathy, and by all classes and creeds in Limerick—by the poor, to whom he was a tried and staunch friend—his demise is deeply regretted. We tender our sincere sympathy to his widow, and relatives in their bereavement.

Deceased gentleman was in his seventieth year. The funeral will take place on Monday at eleven o'clock, from Queen st., for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery.

The City flag is at half-mast. The Corporation will attend the funeral in State.

VOTE OF CONDOLENCE.

A meeting of the Trustees of the Carnegie Free Library was held to-day, the Mayor presiding. Also present:—Rev. J. Dowd, B.A., and Mr. Jas. Frost, J.P., and Mr. Wm. M. Nolan, Secretary. A vote of regret and sympathy was passed by the Trustees on the death of the late Mr. Guinane, J.P., who was a prominent and useful member of the Free Library Committee, in the work of which he took a great interest as also in the progress of the new Carnegie Library.

ACCIDENT AT KILKEE.

While walking on the rocks on Wednesday evening a lady visitor from Limerick had the misfortune to slip with her arm doubled up under her. Surgical assistance being obtained the arm was found to be broken.

DEATH OF MR. J. P. FITZGERALD, GLIN.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Expression of regret and sympathy with the family were heard on all sides at the death of Mr. John P. Fitzgerald, Killaculla, Glin. Deceased, who was a member of an old and respected Glin family, had been ailing for a considerable time, and had reached the grand old age of 75. Throughout his long life he was most deservedly popular, and the largest funeral procession seen in the district for many years followed his remains to their last resting place.

The clergy in attendance were:—Ven. Archdeacon Roche, P.P., Glin, Rev. Charles M'Carthy, C.C., Glin, Rev. Stephen Danaher, P.P., Loughill, Rev. John Conway, C.C., Loughill.

The chief mourners were:—Miss Johanna and Miss Kate Fitzgerald (daughters); Messrs. Cornelius, Patrick, Maurice, and John Fitzgerald (sons); Mrs. Bennett (sister); Mrs. Griffin, Miss Normile, and Miss Fitzgerald (nieces); Mr. M. Fitzgerald, Mr. M. Normile, and Mr. P. Normile (nephews); Miss Nolan and Mrs. M. Fitzgerald (sisters-in-law); Dr. C. Nolan and Mr. Bennett (brothers-in-law).
