powers of the County Council to take over the control of the Fairs, or in other words whether it would require an Act of Parliament to repeal that, by which the Munster Fairs were constituted. Only two Commissioners—Mr. James Frost, J.P., and Mr. J. Corneill, attended with Mr. E. D. Hunt, Assistant Secretary, and Mr R.
 Roche, Secretary of the County Council. In the absence, therefore, of a quorum no business was done.

THE CITY MEMBERSHIP.

For some time past rumours have been ripe in the city that Mr. Michael Joyce, M.P., would on attaining the Mayoralty of the city vacate his seat in Parliament, and it has also been stated that Mr. James F. Barry, J.P., would be the gentleman who would be put forward for the vacancy. It is now authoritatively stated that Mr. Joyce will not vacate the seat, and that he never had the slightest intention of doing so.

MR. P. J. O'SHAUGHNESSY, M.P.,

Supports local manufacture, and writes:—
