JITY CHILD'S DEATH.

At an inquest on a child named Eliza beth Higgins, held by Coroner DeCourcy yesterday, allegations of cruelty and neglect were found by the jury to be not substantiated. The mother was said to be neglectful, and the child terribly emaciated, weighing only 8lbs, while a healthy child of the same age would weigh 28lbs. Dr. O'Donnell said death had occurred from tubercular peritonitis, and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical testimony. Sergeant Beatty had charge of the case.

The Kilrush Race Committee have passed a vote of thanks to Mr. P. K. Sullivan, manager of the West Clare Railways, for the excellent arrangements made by him for the excursion to the late races.
