

key, who cruelly ghton Races, caus-ail of blood behind ing costs, by the

Frederick George kfield, Bucks, was with a companion on Tuesday even-attempt at rescue.

the decoration of
Mrs. Marion Jeffreys
ices at the action of December, 1880 (25

Thomas Willoughby,
enced to two years' 1 watches, and a e property of the his Company, Lon-

ly from Hamburg,
from the Zillerthal
y of Schwarzenstein sudden attack of cold and over exert to Hamburg.

ay Dr. Henry White dford, was awarded
e Bradford Corporan a collision between tion tramcar, which ing at an excessive

George Thomason, a in a pool of water
ley Bridge, Bolton, was afterwards dissidence with bruises he bedroom bore stigs place.

rew himself in front fused to move. He s with a knife, and nauffeur alighted he th a poker. He was g a medical examina-

who refused to pay at toll, crossing the could eat any police-n which, according to ad his eye against the ad he was fined 15s.

65, was accidentally
; by the discharge of arr accompanied two n the river to Carnee ried by one of them
ing in Barr's breast, ites.

AN ACCIDENT.

or Cliff At ate.

iously Injured.

To-day.)
it occurred at Rams-

Great Southern and Western Railway, with the object of obtaining facilities—cheap fares, etc., for intending visitors to the Exhibition. The railway representatives received the deputation very courteously, and promised to give their views every consideration.

THE NORTHUMBERLAND FUSILIERS.

Tribute from the Archdeacon of Ardfert.

At the conclusion of his sermon on Sunday morning, the Archdeacon of Ardfert said—On this probably, the last occasion upon which I shall have the opportunity of addressing such a large number of the men of the Regiment present, I cannot forbear expressing my deep sense of gratification at the conduct of the men during their sojourn in Tralee, and I confidently say this, because I have it on testimony which cannot be doubted, from several sources. On my own part I thank them, and I think I may say the same on the part of all the parishioners, and I am sure the Regiment will maintain elsewhere the admirable record they have made here.

AMUSING NORTHERN LARCENY.

James Walker, a native of Huddersfield, England, when arrested on the charge of stealing a pony and trap belonging to John Quinn, Down-patrick, made an extraordinary statement to the police. He said that when he awoke one morning last week he found himself in a field belonging to Quinn. The pony was looking at him, and it entered his head to have a drive. He yoked the pony and drove to Killough, where he went into a pub, and had a few pints. When he came out he met a woman who said she was on holidays from Glasgow, and asked him for a drive. He granted her request, but the following morning at Newtownhamilton he went into a publichouse and got drunk, and when he came out the woman and pony were gone.

FUNERAL OF MR. JAMES CUSSEN CROAGH.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The remains of the late Mr. J. Cussen whose demise at the fine old age of 78 years, occurred on Sunday evening last at his late residence Ballinaguike, Croagh, were on Tuesday removed for interment in the family vault in Kilmeedy Cemetery. The funeral was very large and showed how highly esteemed was the deceased, and testified in a marked sense the respect and widespread sympathy which is expressed with the members of the bereaved family and numerous relatives. The chief mourners were—Mr.
William Cussen, son; Miss Catherine Cussen, daughter. The clergy present were—Rev. Fr.
Mnleahy, P.P., Croagh; Rev. Fr. Conway, C.C., do.

MODEL SCHOOL.

It will be perceived by advertisement that the Intermediate Programme has been adopted in the Model School. This school has always maintained a high position among the leading educational establishments of the city, and the present departure proves that the staff is fully alive to the requirements of the rising themse lves for re-election.

WILLIAM J. GOULDING,
Chairman.

Kingsbridge Terminus, Dublin, 28th July, 1905.

SAD DROWNING FATALITY.

At two o'clock yesterday the dead body of a woman, which has been identified as that of Mary Mowbeck, Windmill Street, was found floating in five feet of water in a quarry at the reer of Prospect Hill, adjacent to the G.S. & W.
Railway Company's Goods Department. The body was first observed by some boys who were playing about the quarry, and one of the number at once gave word to the police at Edward Street. Constables Frazer and Williams at once proceeded to the scene of the drowning, and with the aid of a few civilians had the remains taken out and conveyed to the house of a relative, awaiting an inquest. The deceased, who was a sea captain's widow, had been missing since Sunday morning last. She was about 45 years of age.

THE INQUEST.

An inquest was held on the remains at Mrs.
Walshe's publichouse, Henry street, to day, by Mr. Coroner DeCourcy, and a jury, of which Mr.
James Bourke, D.C., was Foreman.

Sergeant Murray conducted the inquiry.
David Forsythe identified the body as that of his sister in law, Mary Jane Mowbeck, who was a widow and aged 40 years. Witness last saw her alive at 11 o'clock on Saturday night at her own house. Shortly after that hour she went to bed and was missing at 7 o'clock the next morning.
For sometime past he noticed her strange in her mind. She used to get into passion fits but these would blow over in a very short time. Witness was aware that the deceased had on three distinct occasions been in the Lunatic Asylum.
About three years ago she attempted to commit suicide in the same quarry as the body was found in last evening.

Sergeant Murray told the Coroner that after that incident the woman was committed to the Asylum.

The mother of the deceased, Margaret Tierney, stated that the deceased got up out of bed at 5 o'clock on Sunday morning last. She was in the habit of getting up early, but on the morning in question mysteriously disappeared from the house.

Sergeant Murray deposed to taking the body out of the quarry hole, accompanied by Constable Frazer and a man named Williams. There was from 10 to 12 feet of water in the place from where the body was recovered.

The Foreman—Are young fellows in the habit of swimming in this quarry?

Sergeant Murray—Not in this hole. It is a much cleaner place down further. This is a dirty place.

Dr. Shanahan deposed to examining the body after being taken out. There were no marks of violence thereon, but it presented the appearance of having been drowned. From the evidence now submitted he believed death was due to drowning.

The jury found that the deceased, Mary Jane Mowbeck, was drowned in a quarry at back of Prospect Hill, and at the time of her death she was of unsound mind.

A juror thought that this quarry should be closed. It was a source of danger to the public.

CROPS IN WEST LIMERICK.

(From our own Correspondent.)

ever since the