AN UNDESIRABLE "DOUBLE."

At Dublin Police Court on Thursday Patrick Kelly was charged with having used his tobacco shop in Fade street for betting purposes, and was fined £50. He had previously been fined £25 for a similar offence.

LADY'S PICTORIAL.

Several interesting photos, personal and scenic appear in to-day's Pictorial. They include the latest portrait group of the children of the Prince and Princess of Wales, and views of Ashford, Cong. County Galway, where His Royal Highness is at present staying as the guest of Lord Ardilaun. There are also some very artistic views of the season at the Riviera.

MAN, WIFE, SON AND A GUN.

(From our own Correspondent.)

At the Ennis Petty Sessions yesterday, before Mr. A. M. Harper, R.M., and Messrs. P. J. Kelly, R.M., James Kennedy, M. S. Gibson, C. L. Rynue, and A. N. Brady, R.M.

Cornelius McMahon was charged by D. L. Smyth, Tulla, with threatening to shoot his wife and son, at Mackinish, Spanshill, on January 11.

Defendant's wife and son said he was in a rage with his wife, and ran first for the shovel and then for the gun.

Sergeant Callin deposed to receiving a complaint and taking the gun, which was loaded in one barrel.

Eventually the Bench decided to refuse information in the case.

NO RIGHT TO FISH.

In the King's Bench Division, yesterday the Lord Chief Baron and Mr. Justice Gibson refused to grant a certiorari to quash a conviction of the Justices of the County Limerick, whereby would be reverted to.

The following is a list of the stock on which tolls was paid:—Horses, 836; cattle, 2146; sheep, 1021; pigs and bonhams, 182. The corresponding period of last year reads thus:—Horses, 630; cattle, 2314; sheep, 752; pigs and bonhams, 190.

SALE AT HARTIGAN'S HORSE-REPOSITORY

The usual Bloodstock Sale was held in connection with the Fair on Thursday by Wm. B. Fitt. The entry was a larger one than is generally made at this Fair, the Catalogue numbering 57 lots. Business was better than vendors anticipated. The sale proving a good one, as anything like a useful horse changed hands. There was nothing special in the way of Thoroughbred Stock. Harness horses made from twenty to forty gns., Useful workers fifteen to twenty five. There was a good attendance.

DEATH OF MISS O'MARA.

After an illness extending over a considerable period the death took place this morning at 11 o'clock of Miss Nannie O'Mara, Alexander Terrace. The deceased lady was youngest child of the late Mr. James O'Mara, J.P., and throughout life had maintained a gentle and unassuming manner. She was ever the friend of the poor and needy, and in the circle of friends which she moved was regarded with the utmost affection. Among her own family her kindly counsel will be missed, and in the hour of their bereavement the sympathy of the citizens will go out to Ald. O'Mara and family in the loss they have sustained. The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock on Monday morning from Alexander Terrace.

DEATH OF LORD VANE TEMPEST.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

The Press Association's Melton-Mowbray correspondent telegraphs—Henry Vane Tempest, brother of Lord Londonderry, died very suddenly this morning at his hunting quarters, the Harboro' Hotel, Melton-Mowbray. Lord Henry retired to bed last night apparently in his usual health but on waking this morning complained of internal pains, and expired before the arrival of a doctor. The deceased, who was fifty, was a master of the Foxhounds, and a Colonel of the Volunteers.

CATHOLIC LITERARY INSTITUTE.

Last evening, at the Catholic Literary Institute, Miss Mary Murphy, B.A., delivered a graphic and able lecture, entitled "The Educational Value of the Gaelic Revival." His Honor Judge Adams presided, and a very large audience listened with great pleasure to the address, and most heartily applauded the talented young lady. Mr. H. J. Guinane proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Miss Murphy, which was seconded by Mr. J. J. O'Donovan, who spoke partly in Gaelic and English. His Honor put the motion in his own happy style, and Miss Murphy replied. Dr. O'Riordan, C.C., was moved to the second chair, and a vote of thanks to Judge Adams, proposed by Mr. P. O'Brien, seconded by Mr. P. Hannan, and supported by the chairman, concluded the proceedings.
