DEATH OF LORD GRIMTHORPE.

(By Telegraph To-day.)

Lord Grimpthorpe died at two o'clock this morning at his seat near St. Albans, from heart failure. He is succeeded by his nephew, Mr. Ernest Beckett, the Conservative member for the Whitby division. The deceased was well known for his restoration of St. Alban's Cathedral and other churches in the neighbourhood. He was author of several publications on clocks, architecture, and astronomy. His death was sudden, though not unexpected. About a week ago he had a fall, since when his condition had been partially comatose, notwichstanding the efforts of a local doctor and a specialist.

Her many friends will regret to learn that the Countess of Limerick has been for some time past under medical treatment. She intended to start in October next for a long tour in the States giving concerts in aid of well known Dublin charities, and for some time past she has been greatly interesting herself in the arrangements. It is now stated that she may not be able to carry out her proposed musical tour.

The "World" states, on excellent authority that Lord Dudley has no intention of resigning the Viceroyalty, but has made some important permanent changes in the Dublin Castle menage. There is no foundation for the rumours that an abolition of the Viceroyalty is contemplated.

DEATH OF MRS. E. D. O'NEILL.

We announce with very sincere regret the death of Mrs. E. D. O'Neill, wife of Dr. O'Neill, the esteemed Resident Medical Superintendent of the Limerick District Lunatic Asylum. The sad event occurred yesterday Asylum. The sad event occurred yesterday morning at her residence, Mulgrave Street. Mrs. O'Neill had been in failing health for some months past, but her early demise has come as a great shock to the numerous friends of the tamily in Limerick and elsewhere. Mrs. O'Neill had always taken a warm-hearted interest in charitable undertakings, and at the Thomond and Colleen Bawn Fetes worked most assiduously and earnestly in what was to her a labor of love. She was also Treasurer of the Eedford Row Hospital. Deep sympathy is expressed by the public with Dr. O'Neill and family in their keen sorrow. The funeral is to take place at ten o'clock to-morrow morning for Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.
