

by an iron tree intervened, and the shot, but one pellet passed through Studdert's eyes, while other pellets struck about the head. The injured man was a good deal, but he had the usual attendance in a short time, and Dublin next morning to consult a physician. There is a hope that the eye may be saved. Sympathy is expressed with Mr. Studdert's unfortunate accident.

MAN'S CLAIM.

Mr. Hickson, R.M., a case was which James Hartman, a black man, the crew of the ss. "Oraignank," master, Captain Henry, for £5. The dispute was as to the case. Mr. Hickson decided that he could case out of the ordinary Petty but would hear it to-morrow. Moran appeared for the comby Petty Sessions to-day, before R.M. Constable King had five cases for cycling on the footpath at In two cases where there were no the path at the time, the same was dismissed. One or two of the other they found the road too hard. Defendants were cautioned.

ON THE FOOTPATH.

CITY SURVEYOR.

Clark has received a communication from the Lord, announcing that the Lord has acceded to the request of the Council creating the office of Assistant City Surveyor with a view to appointing thereto Mr. Fitzgerald, who has been for several years in the Department both with the present City Surveyor. The new office secures fixity of tenure for Mr. Fitzgerald to continue at the same salary as

INGTON'S HOSPITAL MEETING.

It is to be said that by inadvertence in the vote of thanks to those who had the Garryowen II. Fete the great names of the following names were omitted: the President and Vice President and their assistants. The Tea Rooms and her assistants.

THE ROYAL TOAST.

It is that it is the intention of a section of the members at the forthcoming Congress in London to hold a private banquet, at which the King will be duly honoured, and every name will be carefully selected with care. It is rumoured that in the event of the Mayor-elect might be given a permission for the use of the name and thus upset the Congress ar-

THE DEAD KING.

BY TELEGRAPH TO-DAY.)

Copenhagen, Thursday. The King of Greece arrived to-day, and was met by King Frederick and Queen Alexandra. The remains of the late King will be taken from the 13th to the 15th and be interred at Roskilde Cathedral on the 18th.

Catholic Young Men's Society and the National and Commercial Club yesterday resulted in a win for the former.

No visits to patients in the fever or maternity wards at Ennis Union are to be allowed on Sundays without the previous permission of the head nurse. The hours have been fixed at from 11 to 12 noon.

At Belfast, Henry Palmer, traveller for an English brewery company, was found dead with his throat cut, the head being almost severed from the body. Deceased was one of the best cricketers in Ulster.

The Gaelic Athletic Association has expelled an Irish M.P. because he attended a smoking concert given by a cricket club, and cricket, in the estimation of the Leaguers, is "a foreign and anti-Irish game."

The new gas engineer will be appointed by the Corporation on Monday, February 19th. The salary is £300 a year. The advertisement does not say whether the Irish language test will be insisted on.

A meeting of the Croom town tenants has been convened for the purpose of meeting Mr. Peter Fitzgerald, agent for Lord Dunraven, relative to the question of the proposed purchase of their holdings.

Her Excellency has written to Mr. F. W. Crossley a letter in which she states, "I need scarcely assure you that I am as much interested as ever in the Irish Tourist Development movement, and shall hope to see more of the subject when I get settled in Ireland."

A fine of £5 and costs was imposed by the Riverstown magistrates on a licensed publican named William Doyle, Brooklodge, for a breach of the Sunday Closing Act. Two men who were seen leaving the premises were each fined 2s 6d and costs.

The Corporation have been invited to attend the special religious service at St. John's Cathedral on Sunday. There is to be High Mass at noon, and the preacher will be Very Rev. P. Beecher, M.A., D.D., Maynooth College. The Bishop, Dr. O'Dwyer, is to preside.

On Tuesday last the House Committee went on a tour of the inspection through the Kilrush Workhouse. Subsequently they considered the Inspector's suggestion as to the laying down of elaborate bathing and heating arrangements in the establishment involving a cost of something like £50, but action was deferred.

The Distress Committee of the Cork Corporation, at their meeting, decided to ask the various charitable societies in the city to submit a list of the deserving unemployed in the city to the City Engineer, with a view of their getting employment in the new work of block paving Penrose Quay, which is shortly to be undertaken.

The funeral of Mr. Martin Beegan, late of Colonee Street, took place from the Limerick Railway Station on Friday last. Deceased, who had been ailing for some time, latterly resided in Team. The large and representative assemblage of people who attended to pay its last respect to the remains testified to the respect in which deceased was held. The chief mourners were—Patrick Beegan (son), Henry and Patrick Beegan (grandsons), William Broderick and John Blake, G.S. & W. (sons-in-law), Thomas Beegan (cousin), etc. The officiating clergy were Rev. Father Carroll, C.C., and Rev. Father O'Connor, C.C., St. Michael's.

CHRISTIAN WORK IN THE ARMY

A Word for the Soldier

"Christian Work in the Army" furnished the subject of an interesting address by Mr. James Lytle, Dublin, at the Presbyterian Church Lecture Hall last night. The Rev. R. H. Semple, M.A., presided, and there was a large attendance of friends of the Christian Work in the Army Society.

MacNamara, C.B., Principal Medical Officer of the 1st Army Corps, Miss Sydney Brown, War Office Matron-in-Chief of Queen Alexandra's Military Nursing Service. A number of deceased's relatives and some London friends also attended, including Messrs. Maurice and James Fitzgerald (brothers), Dr. W. Ryan, F. C. Siles, Brother Dorvan, Dr. Stoker, Dr. Bennett, J. Dunlea, J. Desmond, and J. C. Russell. H. Lenape, W. Desmond, E. O. Fitzgerald. There was a very large number of handsome wreaths.

We tender our sympathy to Mr. Maurice Fitzgerald, and to the members of the family in the great bereavement they have sustained.

THE ACCIDENT TO MISS ROCHE.

A Welcome Correction.

We gladly publish the following letter from Miss Roche, and are sure her many friends will be delighted to know that the results were not so serious as at first reported:—

"Carraig, Croom, 7th Feb., '06.

"DEAR SIR,—In Tuesday's issue of your paper I see an account of my fall while out with the County Hounds on Friday last; but as your report is rather different from what really happened, I should be glad, for the sake of my friends, to have it corrected. My horse slipped on stones jumping off a bank, and fell backwards into the grip, I being underneath him. In his struggles to rise he hit me in the face with his forefoot, and my face was somewhat cut and bruised, and I got slight concussion, but I am now almost recovered. I was not dragged, neither was I hit by my horse's head.—Yours truly, "J. ROCHE."

CO. LIMERICK HOUNDS

Election of Masters

At the general meeting of the County Limerick Hunt Committee held on yesterday, Major F. H. Wise and Mr. A. P. B. Warren were unanimously elected joint masters of the hounds, their term of office to commence from 1st May, 1906.

A large number of tickets were taken for the Hunt Ball, which will be held on Friday, 16th inst. The last day for receiving applications for tickets will be Saturday, 10th inst.

A HOLIDAY WITH A CAMERA.

Lecture at the Field Club

On last evening, under the auspices of the Limerick Field Club, Rev. J. H. Thomas presiding,

Mr. P. J. Lynch, M.R.I.A.I., delivered an interesting lecture on "A tour through Devon, Cornwall, and the Isles of Scilly with a Camera." After a general description of the botany and geology of the districts he dwelt more fully on its history, particularly in the neolithic, bronze, and iron ages, when the Aborigines gave place to the Celtic invaders; followed by the early Christian period, at which time numbers of Irish Saints passed into Cornwall, thus explaining the striking resemblance between some Irish and Cornish remains of that period.

The prehistoric age was illustrated by lantern slides of the grave mounds found in the Isles of Scilly, Cromlechs on the mainland, rock basins and other remains. A view of a pretty May day celebration on St. Mary's, fitted in appropriately, as covering the lapse of time by the survival of the Pagan festival of Beltaine