THE HANDROSS MOTOR-BUS ACCIDENT.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO-DAY.)

At the resumed inquest on the victims of the ideross motor bus disaster to-day, Mr. rral Wilkinson, member of the Stock change, deposed on September 2nd he rode in anguard bus down Handcross Hill. The pace s terrific, and on complaining the driver, nry Jones, told witness the brakes were in- quate. The driver referred to, said, in- dence, he was accustomed to go down Hand- ss Hill with free wheel because of the risk of brakes firing. In September witness was fined 0 for driving down Handcross Hill to common nger. He then put in his report book, showing at on three separate occasions he had reported a defective condition of the brakes of his bus, t no notice was taken, and if the tying-up ion brake had given way, his bus would have ne where the other bus went on July 12th. Witness in cross-examination stated he would t like to say that a chance vanguard bus taken London streets would go down Handcross ill dead slow. He admitted having gone down andross Hill under circumstances of danger th the responsibility of other lives on his nda.

DEATH OF MRS. P. J. BERGIN, QUEEN STREET

We regret to announce the death at the early age of 36 years, of Mrs Mary Bergin, the dearly beloved wife of Mr. P. J. Bergin (late of Gortboy, Kilmallock), which sad event took place at their business house, 26 Queen street, Limerick, on Monday morning, after a brief illness. The deceased belonged to a highly respected Co. Limerick family, and her early demise is deeply regretted by her numerous friends and relatives in and around Kilfinane, Kilmallock, and Tipperary. The remains were removed on Tues- day to the family burial ground at Effin.

The funeral was joined on the way by numerous cars, at Bruff and elsewhere. On reaching Kilmallock it was exceedingly large, thus testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The following clergy attended—Rev. Father Carrick, P.P., V.G., Kilfinane; Rev. Father Barry.

The chief mourners were—Mr. P. J. Bergin (husband), Miss Mary Bergin (sister-in-law), Messrs. P. J. Brennan, and John Brennan, R.P. (brothers), Miss Winifred Brennan (sister), Mrs. Fitzgerald, Kilfinane; Miss Cissie Fitzgerald, do.; John Fitzgerald, do.; Mrs. Hogan, Kilmallock; John Hogan, do.; Thomas Hogan, do.; Mrs. Lena Organ, Limerick; Mrs. Coleman, Mountrussel; R. Fitzgerald, Thomas- town, Kilfinane; Messrs. M. and P. Carroll, and Miss Grace Carroll, Ballinahinch; D. Hayes, P. Hayes, and the Misses Hayes, Charleville; T. Curtin, and Miss Curtin, Lismore (cousins).

COMPLIMENTARY PRESENTATION.

On Saturday a presentation was made to Mr. P. Mulcahy, Chief Clerk of the Limerick Steam- ship Company, at Hanratty's Hotel, on his appointment to the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company, when a large gathering met to testify the esteem in which that gentleman was held. Mr. T. Brinn was moved to the chair, and amongst those present were—The Committee, Messrs. Ryeroff, Kearney, Sheahan, W. South, B. McDonald, and hon. treasurer (P. Enright) and hon. secretary (O. C. Mason).

Amongst the subscribers present were the following:—Captain Power, H. G. Supple (Kilrush), W. P. O'Brien (Liverpool), J. Gillespie (Clarecastle), J. O'Brien (Limerick), H. Carew (Limerick S. S. Co.), H. Clarke, do.; W. O'Shaughnessy, do.; J. Sheahan, do. C. Whelan, do.; G. Sexton, do.; J. Eggers, E. W. Hickson (Tralee), D. Cantwell (Waterford), J. Ireland, Lower Shannon S. S. Co.; T.
