

Edition Items

EVERY DISASTER.

EVERY OF BODIES.

(TELEGRAPH 1-DAY.)

entombed in the Urpeth pit, Durham, were found dead last rescue party experienced great aching the bodies, owing to the lamp. A number of the rescuers of the shaft suffering from after-lager being in a state of collapse.

THE CHURCH

THE ENGLISH EDUCATION BILL.

BY BISHOP O'DWYER.

at the distribution of prizes at schools this evening, the Most Rev. said, although a child in the might score the highest possible written examination in a modern followed as a rule that his or her n was poor. That was the case t conducted by the nuns of the panions, where care was taken not ut the great essentiality of pro- While he had been following s that evening his thoughts had been with matters of a different concern, in that city the education given to neration of Catholic boys and girls similar was being given all over the throughout Ireland, and which gave the future. Then turning to

PARTS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH
 cloud of sorrow was descending, and ry good Catholic in the world, from itself down to the humblest member ul. was full of anxiety, his lordship blessed they in Ireland were, and ful they ought to be to them look at France, once daughter of the Church, member of the Western Church and y under the tyrannous, relentless waters of Christianity. France was olic as Ireland, and what was going lay was simply the fruit—the harvest

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, & DEATHS

BIRTHS.

CHAMBERS—December 14, 1906, at West Hill Lodge, Highgate, London, the wife of Francis Robert Charles Chambers, of a daughter.
 CLARKE—December 14, 1906, at the Bank House, Bangalore, the wife of Barry Sydenham Clarke, of a son.
 DUDLEY—December 14th, at Portobello House, Dublin, the wife of James J. Dudley, Mallow, of a son.

MARRIAGE.

STEWART and WALKER—December 8, 1906, at St. Paul's Church, Herne Hill, London, Frank Stewart to Muriel Hope, eldest daughter of W. D. Walker, of Bungay.

DEATHS.

BOUCHIER—On 14th December, 1906, at 3 Prevanion Road, West Kensington, London, after much suffering, patiently and bravely borne, Charlotte Sophia, youngest daughter of the late Richard Barr Bouchier, M.D., late of Limerick.
 BYRNE—December 13th, at her residence, 18 Crescent Avenue, Limerick, Mrs. Byrne, widow of the late John Byrne, Knocksouna House, Kilmallock.
 CRAIG—December 12, 1906, at a nursing home, after a serious operation, W. J. Craig, M.A., of 35a Gloucester place, Portman square, London, W., son of the late Rev. G. Craig, M.A., formerly Rector of Aghanloo, Co. Derry, aged 62 years.
 GRIMLEY—December 12, 1906, at Showell Green House, Sparkhill, near Birmingham, Edwin Fearn Grimley, in his 76th year.

WREATHS	SPLENDID NEW DESIGNS made up in
CROSSES	CHOICEST CUT FLOWERS PROMPT DESPATCH LOWEST CHARGES
BOUQUETS	EDWARD KIDD & CO. Telegrams 4, GEORGE ST. "KIDD" LIMERICK.

DOMESTIC SERVANT'S SUDDEN DEATH.

A domestic servant named Eliza O'Grady, aged 22, was found dead in bed on Sunday morning at 65 George street, where she had been employed by Mr. J. Lavertine. From the evidence adduced before Mr. Coroner DeCoursey who held an inquest on the remains at Harratty's Hotel yesterday, the girl retired to bed at the usual hour on Saturday night in apparently good health. Not coming down on

JOH

Annou

MIL

They are now

HIGH-CLASS

LAIH

ARE NOW SHOWING FOLLOWING

Christi

Perfumes—In Cases an repute

Manicure Sets—Con

Hair Brushes and

Military Brushes—1

Kodaks—From 5s. to Th Fancy Soap

Hot-Water Bottles

Perfume Sachets—