

OUT AND ABOUT

Reported To-Day.

BY WIRE AND OTHERWISE.

h are glass. The vanity ugh; when such vanity is question whether it would the vanity lest worse s just occurred at Preston a woman was caused by The explanation is very ere made of what is known thin plating of gold had metal in contact with the supervened. The moral "Never wear imitation

S IF YOU WILL.
m., unless they be of the l nature, have a natural ere mention of the presence house is enough to drive all r away. Even the tallous to avoid a workhouse where o have been seen. But it quite wrong about ghosts. longer strike terror into any by a lady pycometrist (and name), that the ghost is a omes to haunt us because he a spirits of the departed ones rings appertaining to higher iticians and men of affairs op earth to devote to the e. One would have thought vale, the soul would have from earthly sources; but no ought to know, because she astral bodies to achieve the The lady also says that round r she sees crowds of spirits.

E—BUT TRUE. and a foot thick formed the nover butcher's wedding—for a ship over a century ago, at Garstang, Lancashire.— o, Miss Leila Romer, who Lawrence Scott, weight 7st heir engagement.—"If you, ou'll have to eat grass," was Rochford (Essex) pauper—not to put their cigarettes on the notice hung in one of the s.—After sleeping in pig-

At the last meeting of the N. ^{agh} Guardians ^{married one} not a single member turned up—o. either.

As a result of the Grand National, it is ^{reported} that Mr. Martin Connors, jun., Pound s. ^{tract,} Nenagh, won £1,300, and another account sa, ^s £200.

Nenagh Town Council has decided to confine its advertising to the two town papers—"News" and "Guardian," and to reject all outsiders. The proprietors of the "News" also got the contract for printing.

The Local Government Board have decided that the area of charge for the Kilkee Waterworks shall be the dispensary district. A notice of motion was handed in to confine the area of of chargeability to Kilkee Town and Upper and Lower Daugh.

Miss Mary Teresa Duane, of Garranban House, Moyard, Bettefrack, wants permission to form Oyster Beds above and below, or exclusively below low-water mark, in Ballynakill Harbour, on the shores adjacent to the Townland of Knocknabaw, in the parish of Ballynakill, barony of Ballynahinch.

A girl of fourteen was found drowned in a stream four inches deep at Auganagarvan, Co.
Armagh, on Saturday. She was subject to fainting fits.

The death of Dr. Edward Joseph Dore took place recently in London. Deceased, who was son of the late Mr. Edward Dore, Glin, had a brilliant collegiate career, and had practised in London and Wales for many years. He leaves a wife to mourn his death in early manhood, and two daughters and brother (Mr. Michael Dore, Provincial Bank, Waterford) the sympathy of all who had the pleasure of knowing Dr. Dore is extended in their bereavement.

There were no cases for hearing at the Police Court either yesterday or this morning.

A Committee of the Corporation which visited the disused City Prison on Saturday evening have recommended the Council to advertise the premises to be let for some purpose or other to be decided upon.

There were 1,353 dogs licensed in the city on the 31st March last as compared with 1,205 last year.

There are £780 in rates outstanding at Nenagh.

Mrs. Peters, Ballygibbon, was found dead in bed on Saturday.

On Friday the Sub-Sheriff of Limerick removed a labourer named Doody from a cottage of which he had taken possession at Kilconlea, Abbeyfeale.

In a semi-final round of the Munster Cup competition (Rugby) at the Mardyle on Saturday, Garryowen defeated Cork County by 3

Sir Thomas Lipton has commissioned Mr.
Alfred Mylne, of Glasgow, to design a challenger for the America Cup.

Kilrush has adopted the anti-live cattle imports from Canada resolution.

Kilrush Rural Councillors have decided not to entertain the question of a supplemental cottage scheme for some time to labourers' come.

The Local Govern-ment Board has sanctioned the payment of £1 ea. to the officers engaged in work in connection with the Poor Law Reform Commission at Kilrush.

The Queen and Princess Victoria left London yesterday morning for Dover en route for Calais and Marseilles to join the King at the latter place for a cruise in the Mediterranean.

M. Stein, the former Norwegian Pres-ident, on Sunday morning of heart disease after weeks' illness.

Rev. Dr. Cunningham Galkie, the well-know writer on Biblical subjects, died at Bournemouth on Sunday, aged 81.

Listowel Town Tenants' Association have passed a resolution calling upon the Irish Party to take immediate steps with a view of promoting legislation in the interests of all concerned in house property.

A meeting of the Corporation is to be held on Thursday night.

Mrs. Taylor, who has received an order to paint a miniature of Princess Ena, and has already had a sitting from her Highness at Osborne Cottage, is an Irish artist, the daughter of C. O'N.
Hallaran, of Cahirtiveen, Kerry.

The Hull steam trawler Antonio, attached to Messrs Heillyers' fleet in the North Sea, has not been seen since March 12th, and there is little doubt that she has been lost with all hands. She was with the fleet when it was struck by a heavy gale.

The condition of the rescued French miners is becoming more and more satisfactory. They were given bread and milk yesterday and slept soundly last night. This morning they have been allowed some vegetables and bread.

A report reached us to-day that while a man, whose name is not given, was fishing yesterday near Gilogue he fell into the water and was drowned. Deceased is stated to have been subject to epileptic attacks.

The body of George Blea-by, 19, of Roundhay Leeds, was found in the Kirkstall Canal yesterday.
Deceased, who had been missing about a fortnight, was stated to have quarrelled with his sweetheart.

At Ashton-under-Lyne, yesterday, Mrs.
Allderman Grime, manager of the

H
T
ex at
O
L
to