HURRICANE OFF WESTERN SEABOARD.

derable uneasiness prevailed in the city unday owing to the unprecedented delay rival of the "Arranmore," the weekly steamer of the Clyde Shipping Company Glasgow and Limerick. Under ordinary ms, the vessel should have reached on Wednesday afternoon, but stress ather compelled her to put into d Bay on Thursday morning, at Ballycastle, where she remained until Saturday. In a conversation with the hief officers of the ship, a "Chronicle" rsative ascertained that the boat left the on Tuesday, and once they made the ntance of the Irish coast to blow with great r four days. Until they put into Blacksod ey were face to face with a south-westerly me which beat anything that could be ed. On Saturday the wind dropped, and e extent the "Arranmore" resumed her which she completed at noon on Sunday, be worse for the rude shocks encountered Having regard to the fact that the steamers have always Limerick men the crew, it was only natural to the city's apprehensiveness for "Arranmore's" safety, and when she to at the quay on Sunday crowd had congregated to learn of the of the delay, etc. The gale of the last

DR. STUDDERT "ON TOEING THE LINE."

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Dr. Studdert, of Carrigaholt, wrote to the Kilrush Guardians taking exception to the recent remarks of Mr. Donnellan at a recent meeting, in which he stated "that Dr. Studdert was made to toe the line in charging the same fee as the other doctors of the Union in lunacy cases." Dr. Studdert wrote that the Guardians were under a false impression regarding the fees he charged. They were fixed by the committing magistrates, and they may order any sum from a shilling to £2. He had no option. If the amount varied in one or two cases, he had nothing to do with it but the committing magistrates, and perhaps Mr. Donnellan may induce them to "toe the line" (laughter). Mr. Donnellan repeated his assertion.
