

"on earth governed more justly, and be prosperous than our own."

LOOKING BACKWARDS.

The Royal Society of Prague has been examining now, as the 'man with the revolving turned his head round naturally as far der, and then twisted it further with he looked completely backwards, with ve the line of his spine.

THE JOSTLER.

"rachaun" says with regard to the street genus is not altogether unknown in "We hear that that interesting animal, jostler, recently had a "fine" day with

THE FOOD AND DRUGS ACT IS at Fermoy. Dr. Ahearne said the rugs Act was one of the most important sh had been passed, as it prevented people food that was injurious to health; it also cure that persons would get value for SPANISH ROYAL WEDDING.

age of King Alfonso and Princess Ena ce on May 31st, but the wedding ll extend to altogether over a week. tion that marriages are unlucky at is of the year, exists nearly everywhere the month may not be the same in tries, many will think that Princess bold in becoming a May bride. The festivities will include gala banquets, romance at the opera, and a Royal ball is still a great cotery for bull fight-dly be expected that Princess Ena will tional enthusiasm for this form of Princess Henry of Battenberg and are expected at Madrid about the the Prince and Princess of Wales y or two later.

AS OTHERS SEE HIM.

by Bulletin" generally says what it it stands for a substantial body of on. Here is its verdict on our new Government—"Sir H. Campbell man well, but, fed on Cobdenism and he upholds a vague kind of 'liberty' letting things drift, and in having ned over with the refuse of Europe."

RECORDED ATTENDANCE.

's unbroken attendance at the Royal Windsor, a little girl, named Swain, ned with a gold chain to be attached ch of which she was the recipient last l is fifteen years old, so that she must chool every time it was opened since ars old. In making the presentation rked that he believed no other girls ad could show such a record. No; ot in the United Kingdom either.

BATHING AT KILKEFF.

of the Drapers' Assistants Association, a large number of drapery houses have agreed to close at ten o'clock on Saturday nights instead of eleven.

Mr. Dent, G.S. and W.R. Co. has written to the Killarney, Glengarriff and South of Ireland Tourist Association intimating that the company have agreed to grant a donation of £25 towards the Association.

A number of tenants on the Herbert estate, at Broona, Co. Kerry, who purchased under the Ashbourne Act at 18 years have been decreed by the Land Commission for non-payment of the November instalments.

James Bourke, a Tipperary labourer, has been remanded, charged with the alleged larceny of £7 from a fellow lodger at Banaha. The money it was alleged, was in a bag which hung on the wall in the bedroom.

Upon the occasion of his departure from Oughterard for Killarney, Dr. Bartholomew Mangan was made the recipient of an illustrated address accompanied by a purse of sovereigns by the inhabitants of the district, where he had acted as medical officer for over ten years.

The Limerick City R.G.A. Militia has just assembled for the annual training, which is being carried out at Bere Island in connection with the defence of the naval rendezvous there.
The regiment is commanded by Lieut.-Colonel and Honorary Colonel R. A. M. Henn, and musters about four hundred of all ranks in six companies.

At the County Petty Sessions to-day fines of 10s each were imposed at the suit of the police against John Hayes, Patrick O'Keefe, Joseph Murphy, and Con Healy, summoned for being drunk while in charge of horses and cars.

On Sunday evening last at Divine Service in the Birr Parish Church for the first time in living memory, and probably since the church was opened nearly 100 years ago, a surpliced choir supplemented the ordinary choir.

On last Friday the solemn and interesting ceremony of dedicating a new organ took place in the pretty little Protestant Church at Cappo-quin, in the presence of a large number of clergymen, and a large, representative, and distinguished congregation.

We regret to record the death of Mr. L. G. P.
Fitzgale, J.P., which took place at Ballycastle, Co. Antrim, a short time ago. Mr. Fitzgale was formerly a resident in the Co. Limerick, but it is now many years since he went to live in the North.

According to the state of the house return of Limerick Union, there were 1,142 inmates in the institution on Saturday. This represents a decrease of 40 on the week, and an increase of 53 on the year.

A marriage is arranged, and will take place early in June, between Thomas Brodie, younger son of the late Mr. James S. Bennett, of Tulla-brakeev, Bruff, Co. America, and Pauline Atholme, third daughter of Captain T. Westropp Bennett (late old 39th Regiment), of Ballymurphy, Limerick.

THE DEPARTMENT'S WORK.

Reviewing its work during the past year the Department of Agriculture and Technical Education in its report just issued says:—The twenty itinerant instructors who were at work during the year attended at 1,054 meetings of farmers, at which they delivered lectures and assisted in the subsequent discussions. The average attendance at these meetings was sixty-five. The Department are most hopeful of the future prospects of poultry farming in Ireland, and consider the most important development in connection with this industry is the establishment of poultry fattening stations.

who lost his arm as the result of an accident at Droppollocker Creamery on Monday last, is growing favourably.

"Honesty is the best policy, but you w fined 2s. 6d. and costs and ordered to take licence now," remarked the Chairman of the County Petty Sessions Court to James Br who denied to a constable that he was in p sion of an unlicensed dog.

In the unavoidable absence of the Most Doctor Fogarty, Lady Emily will open the Bazaar on Thursday, 24th May.

A milkman was fined 40s. in the Wool Police Court for adulterating his milk water from a horse trough.

The 3.55 train from Limerick to Kings was delayed for 25 minutes last evening bet Sallins and Newbridge owing to a breakdown of the engine.

There was a further meeting of the Ca yesterday morning.

The Marquis of Waterford has returned Curraghmore, after a short absence in Eng

The Marchioness of Waterford returned terday to Curraghmore, having been in since her arrival from West Africa.

The Countess of Limerick has left Dro Castle for Lismore Castle, on a visit to the and Duchess of Devonshire.

In yesterday's thunderstorms in German people were killed by lightning.

The "Catholic Herald" says Mr. Mic Davitt will have to undergo another sur-operation.

The War Stores Commission has expre the opinion that there was no ground suspicion of Captain Huntaman.

The Maidstone Election Petition was missed, and relief allowed in respect of ex of election expenses.

While some workmen were demolishin building at Haggerson gasworks, Lond yesterday morning, the roof collapsed. man was killed, and three seriously injured.

At Crawford, Nebraska, yesterday, s cowboys tried to lynch a soldier. A party cavalrymen came to their comrade's assistan and fired on the cowboys, killing two. Seritrouble is expected there.

It is understood that the 4th Bata. No umberland Fusiliers will have a six weeks' under canvas at Tralee. They will return Limerick after the summer drills.

The "Columbian Chronicle" announces much regret the death of the Very Rev. Ca Edward Quinn, P.P., V.G. (brother of Frederick J. Quinn, of Springfield), which event occurred at his residence, Ballybrack, Sunday last.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Swift MacNeill gave notice that at the earl opportunity he would call attention to "partisan and political conduct" of Mr. Jas Grantham during the Yarmouth election petit trial.

Emma Gertrude Ward has been allowed £ damages against Mr. Green, building contract for the loss of her husband, who was killed wh in the defendant's employment.

Rev. Fr. Hogan, O.P., who has been on mission in Limerick for the past four and a h years, left last evening for Adelaide, Austral He was a musician of a high order, and while Limerick did much to bring the Dominic choir to its very efficient condition.

Patk. Moore has been remanded at Tippera for alleged breach of trust in connection with sum of £12 10s. which he got from John Bra shaw to pay for a heifer at Suircastle, but d not return with either the heifer or the money When arrested £2 2s. 3d. was found in h possession.