

HORRIBLE ECZEMA ON LITTLE BOY

With Mouth and Eyes Covered With Crusts—Face Itched Most Fearfully—Hands Pinned Down to prevent Scratching.

RACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

When my little boy was six months old, he suffered from eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes.
Hands, arms, chest, and back, in short the whole body, was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down; otherwise he would scratch his face, and make an open sore. I think his face must have been scratched most fearfully.

NO HOPE. I finally thought nothing could help, and made up my mind to send my wife to Europe, hoping that the sea and climate would cure him, otherwise he was to die. Good medical care there. But, as I was so distressed, matters came differently, soon saw a miracle. A friend of ours about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and in ten days or two weeks we noticed an improvement. Just as quickly as the sores had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was well, and his skin was smooth and never before. F. Hohrath, President

THE THREESERS.
On Monday, the 15th, James Ferguson, Mr.
James Connolly, were tried at Carrickbeg, for associating under the denomination of Threesers. After a trial which lasted the whole day, they were found guilty, and sentenced to transportation for life.

EXECUTION.
Yesterday last, Peter McGuire, who was found guilty at the last Commission of the Bench for burglary and robbery in the case of Mrs. Jocelyn, at Templeogue, was executed at the front of Kilmalnam Gaol, his sentence.

CAHIR FATALITY.

SISTERS KILLED BY FALLING GABLE.

A very sad fatality occurred in Cahir on Christmas night, by which two sisters named Baleigh, home for a holiday with their sister Mrs. Ahern, lost their lives. It appears that a new house was being built beside Mrs. Ahern's in Church street, and the gable end, which towered above Mrs. Ahern's, suddenly collapsed during the night, and tumbled down on Mrs.
Ahern's house. The roof was smashed in, and the debris falling on the bed in which the Misses Baleigh lay asleep, drove it through the floor of the bedroom into the kitchen below. The unfortunate young women were killed instantly, and when the police arrived soon after, they were engaged for an hour extricating the dead bodies. Miss Alice Baleigh had been employed in Dublin, and Miss Kate Baleigh in Limerick.
A servant had a narrow escape, one of the falling stones striking her as she lay in an adjoining room. Mrs. Ahern slept at the other side of the house, and was uninjured.

THE OLD STORY SEEMED NEW.

The Shoreditch coroner entertained a jury with a Bible story. The inquest was on a baby who had died from suffocation through overlaying. The jury were probably aware, he said, of a case of overlying mentioned in the Bible.
The jury looked puzzled and made no reply, so the coroner told them the story of the judgment of Solomon, and how one woman's child "died in the night because she overlaid it," how she changed her child for a living one, and how Solomon by strategy discovered the real mother. The jury listened with attention, but the story appeared new to them.

DEATH OF MRS. CURLING, NEWCASTLE WEST.

Our Newcastle West correspondent writes:— The sad announcement of the death of Mrs.
Curling, Newcastle West, which took place about 5 p.m. on Christmas Day has cast a gloom over the town and district, where she was universally esteemed and regarded for her gentle, kindly, and charitable disposition, and many a home will to-day mourn the loss of a true and condoling friend in adversity and their great benefactress. She was a member of the old and distinguished family of Collingwood in Kerry and mother of Captain Richbell Curling, J.P., the popular agent of the Devon Estates, for whom the deepest sympathy is felt in this hour of his bereaved sorrow. The funeral will take place on to-morrow (Friday) at 12.30 p.m. at Churchtown.

THE LATE SERGEANT PATRICK FITZGERALD, R.I.C.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

The deeply lamented demise of Sergeant Patrick Fitzgerald, R.I.C., Castletown Conyers, which took place on Wednesday morning last at Croom Hospital at the age of 45, has caused feelings of sincere regret among the members of the force in the district by whom he was highly esteemed and the general public with whom he was very popular on account of the courteous and dignified manner in which he discharged the onerous duties entrusted to him.
