AN INGENIOUS PLEA.

George Hart, according to Constable Portobelle, is only a small man, but as the boy said of the flea, "though he's little he's all there," especially when the drink is in. With coat off he was making the Irish town lively by a "bit of a scrap" with a fellow bigger than himself. Hart advanced the plea that somebody had asked him to have a drink, but as the somebody was already partly drunk he declined, and was then attacked. The ingenious plea did not save him from a fine of 10s 6d and costs at the Police Court yesterday, where, incidentally, he called the constable a liar.

THE "GOOD HEALTH" MAGAZINE.

February "Good Health" is bright in appearance and replete with interesting and helpful articles concerning sanitation and everyday hygiene. In the Editorial Chat we find a discussion on the "Underfeeding of School Children. Dr. F. C. Richards has contributed a forceful article on "Modern Methods of Treatment," "Family Life in Persia," "The Exalted Work of the Mother," "The Health of Our Young Men," "The Cause of Old Age," and "The Curse of Modern Civilisation," will be read with interest, and the series of articles on Hydrotherapy and Foods for the Sick, by Nurse Gertie Wright, contains sound advice.

DEATH OF MR. FRANCIS GAFFNEY.

The death took place in St. John's Hospital yesterday of Mr. Francis Gaffney, after a comparatively brief illness. The deceased, who was son of the Alderman Thomas Gaffney, J.P., was in the prime of life, and his untimely demise will cause genuine regret to his friends and acquaintances. Though of a retiring disposition Mr. Gaffney's loss will be felt in the circle of friends, who appreciated his ready intelligence and liberal views. The funeral will take place from St. Michael's Church to-morrow morning for interment in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

A LONG WAIT

Six hours seem a long time to leave a horse unattended, but this, according to the police evidence yesterday was what Mr. Gerald Flynn did. It was in a narrow thoroughfare, too—Laurel Hill Avenue to wit. Gerald was lucky in being called on to pay only half a crown and costs. A more "flinty" hearted magistrate would have made it double.
