

...carriage in it, and it is in some rm of public security, as in Dublin and d, whose time-honoured corporations e properties within their respective These public bodies are certain to lose value of the asset upon which their secured will be greatly diminished.
 Agency was probably not contemplated promoters of the Act, and illustrates the way in which an ill-drawn and measure, produced for the purposes a titator only, is prone to do injustice ose whom it pretends to benefit.

GUESTS FOR TO-NIGHT AND TO-MORROW.

ughter is often nothing but the of tears.

le and generosity are often con-ed. There are many who give, se they are too proud to withhold.

ot live in the past. Custom is the wall against which feeble minds to a stand still and hinder the ses of the world.

NEWS-NOTES AND NOTIONS.

PAPER SLIPPERS FOR GUESTS.

New York hotel, which is rather famous fashioned excellence, contributes a novel comfort of its guests. The newcomer on room, finds on the bureau a pair of he slippers are of paper. They are of rkish or mule variety. They have a flat, are decked out forward, and that's all. of pasteboard, with a thin layer of on its upper surface. A paper band together. On the band itself is printed—

TEAR ME.
 WEAR THEM.
 TAKE THEM HOME.

TELEPHONE FROM A TRAIN.

ville correspondent of the "American" successful test of a new invention enabling senger: to telephone from a moving A. P. Joffe, the inventor is reported to on a conversation by telephone from a t the rate of 25 miles an hour.

CHRISTMAS GOOSEBERRIES.

e Constable Clarke's garden at Tuddeneberry bush which has a second crop of s, and fruit upon it. A second crop of ea picked from a tree in the same striking contrast to the Christmas

SAW A BALL OF FIRE.

vere thunderstorm in Flintshire, Mr. a medical practitioner, of Holywell, experience. He was walking up to the eifog, having sent on his horse and him, when he was the astonished eye

London, Miss Eveline Elliott, of Park View, was awarded a diploma of the "Licentiate-ship of the Royal Academy of Music."

Miss Elliott was a pupil of Mr. Frank Muspratt, whose abilities are so well known, and whose services are so highly appreciated by reason of the deep interest he takes in those placed under him for musical training.

OUT AND ABOUT.

Colonel Kiggell and his eldest son are spending the Christmas holidays at Cahara, Glin, with the Colonel's father, Major Launcelot J.
 Kiggell, J.P.

Sergeant Doran has been transferred from Croom to Boherbuoy in room of Sergeant Murray retired on pension. Sergeant McGrath has been transferred to Croom.

The Treasurer of the Co. Limerick Infirmary acknowledges with thanks the receipt of £5 10s towards the funds of the institution from the employes of the Loco and Wagon Works, G.S. and W. Railway, Limerick, per Wm. Gadd, Esq.

Harry Read, a barman at South Norwalk, Connecticut, who has inherited £40,000, says that he intends to spend it on drink in two years. He intends to drink as many cocktails as he has mixed in his life, but he declares that he will not mix one while his money lasts.

St. Mary's Band thank the Mayor for a ton of coal.

DEATH OF MR. T. B. GOUGH

We regret to announce the death of Mr. T.
 B. Gough, which took place at his residence, Lough Quay, this morning from pneumonia.
 Deceased had been less than a couple of weeks laid up. On the Local Government Act coming into force he was elected a Councillor of the Irishtown Ward in the labour interest, and went out on the expiration of the three years term.
 At the last triennial elections Mr. Gough was again returned to the Council. He was also a member of the Poor Law Board. Mr.
 Gough was in the prime of life, and his demise is much regretted by many friends. Keen sympathy is being expressed with his wife and family in their sorrow. The city flag is at half mast as a mark of respect to his memory.
 To be interred at 3 o'clock on Monday at Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

J.P.R.—Enough has been said. Too much adulation, like too much sugar, is likely to nauseate; and we know the gentleman does not like and does not want it. Besides, a report of a Sunday occurrence ought surely to be sent in before 2 o'clock on the following Saturday afternoon.

ACCIDENT.

Mr. Patrick Moloney, an assistant in the bar at Mr. Egan's, Patrick street, was drawing a bottle of claret this morning, when the bottle broke in some way or other, and severely cut Mr. Moloney in the leg, causing him to bleed a good deal. He was removed to Barrington's Hospital, where he was detained. The accident is much regretted by Mr. Moloney's many friends.

VETERAN BARONESS ILL

(BY TELEGRAPH T-DAY.)

The condition of Baroness Purdett Coutts, who is seriously ill, is to-day unchanged.

Very severe weather now prevails: frost, with occasional falls of snow. exporters in Glin and district are calling for fish preservation while in transit to Season opens 12th February.

IRISH TRAIN WRECK

CRASHES INTO A SNOWDRI

A train coming from Sligo to Ennisk with disaster last night in a heavy near Lord Enniskillen's residence, Court.

The engine was derailed by the im-the carriages crashed into the tender, them and the guard's van being reduce to matchwood.

The permanent way is torn up for fif Most of the passengers of the train no injury, but a girl had her arm bro some passengers are suffering from sho

THE LEGEND OF THE BELLS

The fine peal of bells of St. Ma Protestant Cathedral in Limerick, ha been noted for their sweetness of tone Dublin "Evening Mail." On St Step they were rung by a company of change from St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, first time after being re-hung. A very c legend tells that the bells were cast origin an Italian for a convent. They posse exquisite tone that their founder was p them beyond measure. In the course the convent met with misfortune, and t were sent to foreign parts. Their fond was also unfortunate, and was drive as an exile to wander over the the earth. He found himself in the of his wanderings on the River Shannon up to Limerick. As he neared the cit exquisite notes of the bells he had lo well-coated to him from the Cathedral.
 The joy was too great for him, and he fe dead from the shock. Unfortunately, the is too pretty to be true. The maker of th was William Perdue, whose death took p the reign of the Merry Monarch. (C original peal only the D and F bells rema G, A, and B bells were cast in 1829, and on half a century ago the C bell was ad the Earl of Limerick. When Dr. Banbu present Bishop of Limerick, was Dean Mary's, the G. bell was cast.

£10 LOST.

Mr. Collins, publican, Upper William despatched a messenger boy named Flanagan, who has been in his employe some time, to the Provincial Bank this m with an envelope containing a five pound four single notes, and an order for £1 5s. 3 lodgment. The young fellow had the en in his sleeve, but missed it when he go George street. Sergeant Smith and Con Milton were at once on the scene, a making inquiries, but so far the missing p. has not been found.

We learn this evening that the lost p was found in George street by Mr. E McMahon, 15, High street, and handed o the owner, Mr. Collins.

FOOTBALL.

Owing to the extremely hard state ground, after the very heavy frosts of the week, the match intended to have been p to-day at the Market Field between Garry and Queen's College, Belfast, had to be de off.