Glynn, Moloney, and Garry, are deputed to attend and give evidence before the Royal Commission with the object of exposure with a view of ameliorating the great hardships which the overburdened ratapayers suffer from in connection with the West and South Clare Railway.
18th October, 1906.

Proposed by H. R. Glynn, Chairman Railway Committee, seconded by P. J. Hogan—"That the Council present a petition to the Lord Lieutenant setting forth the fact of the order in Council and Act in Parliament of the West Clare Railway Co. the making of the line, and that the Baronies have for three years and upwards been continuously called on to pay and have paid certain sums towards working expenses of it, etc., and praying the Lord Lieutenant may order the County Council to appoint a Committee of Management."

THE LATE MRS. HALL.

Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Doherty, Joseph, John and William Hall beg to return their sincere thanks to all those who so kindly inquired during her illness, and expressed sympathy with them in the loss of their beloved mother. The letters of condolence are so numerous that they are unable to acknowledge them individually.

EDUCATIONAL DISADVANTAGES.

"A Lay Synodsmen" writes asking what effort has been made to remedy the educational disadvantages in this diocese. He suggests an appeal to the laity of the city and county, or an appeal to Mr. Carnegie for funds and strongly depreciates the policy of "drift" which sends our young men out of the country through lack of education. He concludes, my opinion can best be told by one fact, I have placed my two sons in a school at Newhaven to prepare for Yale.
