RENT COMMENT
 The Park Committee have taken the most decided and entered their strongest protest against the action of the Technical Education Board who proposed to annex another piece of land for the building of an institute for the purpose of technical instruction. A few members of the Park Committee visited the Park as of custom monthly, and came to the conclusion of resisting any further encroachment away the rights of the citizens. This has been upheld by the majority of the Council, and we might say by the public. It is now stated that the application has been persisted in, a wise determination is to be made.

WINTER ASSIZES
 Since to-day that the Winter Assizes are held this year at Limerick instead of at Ennis is a feather in Limerick's cap, an achievement well deserved, and we congratulate the Council of the movement, and the citizens on the fact that the old time reproach (which we hope for ever) been removed from the city.

POSTAL UNION
 Whether a scheme will come into operation or not is a matter for the Post Office which will prove a boon to the country, if in these days of picture post-cards, if in these days of picture post-writing is not becoming "a lost art." The sending of a letter from one part of the Postal Union to another will be a matter of course. The Post Office of the country participating in the scheme will issue coupons, which will be exchanged for other participating country for a...

New Vicar of Ambleston, Pembrokeshire, inquired after it. A farmer took him to the back of his house, and there a part of the font was disclosed used as a cheese press. It had been bought at a public sale of materials after the renovation of the church twenty years ago.

NOT TWO QUEENS VICTORIA.

Although no official notices are to be issued on the subject, we understand that it is desired that in all public announcements respecting the Queen of Spain Her Majesty should be known as Queen Victoria Eugenia, and not as Queen Victoria.
