

th the work as a kind of brother se).
 Vivian, M.P., seconded the resolution l he had listened with great interest to rees of the Bi-hop, and welcomed the ous way in which he explained the y condition of the City of Limerick. He
 r) had

OPPORTUNITY OF SEEING SOME OF THE HOUSE IN LIMERICK

Lordship referred to. From experience r towns, more particularly cross-Channel that there were few towns in any part King's dominions where better housing working classes was more essential than City of Limerick. He hoped they would him saying so, and as a stranger he did an it in any bad spirit, but he did feel Limerick there existed a condition of that must be injurious to the well being community.

vice—It is disgraceful.
 Vivian (continuing) said the word dis l did not by any means over-present the a that had been drawn. The question as

WHAT WERE THEY GOING TO DO.

edy the evil. It was no use merely express heir sympathy or stating the condition of es one section of the people had to live her. He hoped, not, and that a lesson would ught from the able address of the Bishop were many ways in which that lesson could rned, sympathy was all very good but as writer had said with regard to good inten there was no instance on record of a man y good intentions and with power to enforce l that did not do more harm than good. B atter of

REMEDYING THE EVIL

are that evening they should proceed with udgment, as it was better to sit still for e months than to rush headlong into what not effect a permanent good der to achieve any practical result from solution they should try and find out the nic causes that underlie the mischief, and g done so, organise their resources with d securing that they should not be en for all time on the rest of the coun ty. He believed that it was possible to ise a solution of the housing problem sound from the economic as well as every standpoint. He had been for some years ested in what was known as

THE GARDEN CITY MOVEMENT

England, to which he referred at length.
 e resolution was then put to the assembly passed unanimously.

WORKING CLASSES ACT.

Mayor proposed the next resolution

MARRIAGES, & DEATHS

BIRTHS.

Thursday, August 9th, at Millview, wife of Captain Hugh Fawcus, a daughter.
 August 8th, 1906, at the Hotel, Roa-wife of T. J. Grealy, of a son.
 August 11th, 1906, at School House, he wife of Robert J. Halpin, of a

MARRIAGES.

Perke—August 7th, at St. An-wife of James Conroy, C.C.S., Anastasia, daughter of Daniel Law, Baggot street, Dublin.
 Mellor—August 2nd at St.
 Mrs. Hershman, Surrey, by the Rev.
 Vicar, Charles Dunne-Lindsay, Law, Advocate, High Court, Bombay, India, to Marion (May), daughter of the late T. Randolph B., formerly of Clifton, Dalkey Co.
 Campbell—August 8th at St Church, Thomas street, Dublin, by W. Greer, M.A., Rector, assisted H. A. D. Barbor, M.A., and the R. S. Miller, M.A., James, fourth son of Richard Lord, Ballyfin, Queen's Elizabeth Anne, eldest daughter of Campbell, 9 Dufferin avenue, Dub'

DEATHS.

August 11th, 1906, William S. Burke son of the late Samuel Burke, Baggot Cabir, County Tipperary—R.I.P.
 August 12th, at his residence no Athlone, Captain the Hon. A 43rd Foot, age 71.
 August 8th, 1906, at Richmond, Dublin, Hopkins, aged 46.
 August 12th, at 25 Denmark street, aged 75 years—R.I.P.
 August 11th instant, at his residence, Dungarvan, Samuel Ruddell
 August 5th, at St. Joseph's Hospice London, Jeremiah Francis,
 the late Jeremiah Sheehan, Kirkee, R.I.P.
 August 13th instant, at his father's 35 Upper William street, Thomas aged 31 years, third son of Mr Patrick general water manufacturer. Funeral at 2 o'clock from St Michael's Mount St. Laurence Cemetery

THEATRE ROYAL LIMERICK.

NOW OPEN.
ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION
 Nightly at 8. Doors open 7.30. open at 7.15 3d extra. Special set (equal to night) on Thursday and Doors open at 2.30. Prices of ad
 2s. 6d., 2s., 1s., and 6d.

JOSEPH POOLE

Latest Myriograms and Variety Amalgamation. An absolutely pe
SPECIAL PRODUCTION OF Beautiful Venice. The Queen C Adriatic.

DUBLIN,
 Showing Sackville street, one of thoroughfares in the world

THE BLESSING OF THE Realistic effect of the great Bomb

Port Arthur.
A Magnificent view of
MADRID,

The capital of Spain. The Peurita Gale of the Sun. Scene of the Madri the attempt on the life of King Al Bull Fight Arena, as it appeared festivities in honour of the Royal ST. PETER'S, ROME.

Illuminated in honour of the Jubili Pius X.

In conjunction with POOLE'S My the more rapid representation of paes is Poole's Myriograph of up-to-date Photography. Constant changes in I series of comicalities.

THE ST. LOUIS EXHIBIT

Pool's Consolidated Variety Confede aggregation of representative pe —Important engagement of Madle
 —Oliveria, the Queen of the feather —Silly Solby, the merry monna and musical clown.—The Veronaa, lady vocalist, and duettists.—McAskell, t a few words. A comic talking conj May Finch, the charming character —Felix Somers, the facial King, in his tainment, entitled "People we know," i celebrities past and present.—Mr. Nat popular guide and raconteur.—Paula sensational eccentrics, in their rew Creation. Frolics in the Cafe Garden Pool's admired Orchestral Band.
 Musical Director, Mr. Charles Thorn

WREATHS SPLENDID NEW DESIGNS made up in