WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE,

NO HOPE.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO-DAY.)

The "Pall Mall Gazette" says:—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has replied to the Women's Social and Political Union on the subject of Women's Suffrage, that as some of his Cabinet were not agreed on the subject nothing could be done by the Government in the matter at present.

ILLEGAL PRACTICES,

BUT NO INTENT.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO-DAY.)

The Election Commissioners at Worcester to-day intimated that Mr. Williamson, the unseated member, would be reported for illegal practices, owing to a payment to a person other than a duly appointed election agent. They acquitted him of illegal intent, and suggested that application should be made to the Judge for relief.
